UPDATED RESULTS OF OUR SURVEILLANCE TEAMS, AS WELL AS INFORMATION OBTAINED [REDACTED] WHICH INDICATES [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] THE DEPARTMENT HAS INDICATED TO STRIKE FORCE ATTORNEY STARR THAT NO FAVORABLE ACTION WILL BE TAKEN ON THE REQUEST FOR TITLE 3 COVERAGE OF [REDACTED] SET FORTH IN THE AFFIDAVIT WITHOUT SETTING FORTH THE BASIS FOR THIS REFUSAL OR INDICATING TO THE FBI WHAT SPECIFIED FURTHER INFORMATION WOULD BE NEEDED IN ORDER TO OBTAIN APPROVAL.

FOR THE INFORMATION OF THE DIRECTOR, THE PHOENIX DIVISION IS CURRENTLY UTILIZING ON A DAILY BASIS INVESTIGATIVE TECHNIQUES OF A SOPHISTICATED NATURE REQUIRING EXTENSIVE COMMITMENT OF EQUIPMENT AND MANPOWER. THESE TECHNIQUES ARE AS FOLLOWS: 1. TITLE 3
ELECTRONIC SURVEILLANCE REQUIRING MONITORING PERSONNEL, [REDACTED]

THE ABOVE IS ONLY A PARTIAL LIST OF THE ACTIVITY OF AGENTS AT TUCSON, ARIZONA, IN THIS MATTER. IT IS INDICATIVE OF A FULL SCALE COMMITMENT BY THIS OFFICE TO THIS INVESTIGATION AIMED AT THE MAN WHO IS CONSIDERED BY MANY LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES TO BE THE MOST PROMINENT INDIVIDUAL MEMBER OF THE LCN. HIS CONTINUED CRIMINAL ACTIVITY IS AN AFFRONT TO LAW ENFORCEMENT AND A SY.BOL

OF TOP MEMBERS OF THE LCN TO FRUSTRATE LAW ENFORCEMENT INVESTIGATION BY REMAINING ALOOF FROM THE EVERYDAY CRIMINAL ACTIVITY OF THE LCN. THE CURRENT SITUATION PROVIDES AN EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY TO EXPOSE BOMANNO'S ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES AND IT IS FELT THAT DEPARTMENTAL APPROVAL FOR TITLE 3 COVERAGE OF

[REDACTED] WILL PROVIDE THIS EVIDENCE.

THE CONTINUED REFUSAL OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE TO AUTHORIZE THIS NECESSARY COVERAGE WITHOUT STATING VIABLE GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL CAUSES A FEELING OF FUTILITY ON THE PART OF FBI AGENTS WHO ARE WORKING SO DILIGENTLY TO ACHIEVE SUCCESS IN COMBATTING ORGANIZED CRIME, AN AREA IDENTIFIED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE U.S. AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE U.S. AS A PRIORITY AREA FOR FBI INVESTIGATIVE EFFORTS.

IT IS WELL KNOWN TO MYSELF AND THE AGENTS OF THE PHOENIX DIVISION THAT WE ARE RECEIVING THE FULL SUPPORT AND ASSISTANCE OF THE BUREAU, SPECIFICALLY THE ORGANIZED CRIME SECTION AND SUPERVISOR [REDACTED] IT IS FELT THAT THE ACTION NEEDED IN THIS MATTER IS FOR THE DIRECTOR TO PERSONALLY CONTACT THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE U.S. AND APPRISE HIM OF THE COMMITMENT OF THE

Under the provisions of Part II(a) of the Attorney General's Memorandum of October 16, 1972, to the Heads of Executive Departments and Agencies entitled, "Monitoring Private Conversations with the Consent of a Party," emergency monitoring was instituted under the authorization of an appropriate official of the FBI.

Monitoring of this conversation was authorized in the best interest of law enforcement in that it was expected to provide corroborative evidence and to protect the individual utilizing the equipment.

Further monitoring is expected in this matter and it is requested that your office approve the use of this equipment for a period of 30 days beginning the date on which you grant approval.

[redacted] were contacted and arrangements were made to [redacted]

[redacted] The [redacted] were apprehensive about helping the FBI in this matter as subject has a reputation for being a major LCN figure and they justifiably feared reprisal should their cooperation with the FBI become known to the subject. They assumed the investigation regarded BONANNO and as the need for [redacted] was revealed to them, they probably realized sophisticated electronic equipment was being operated.

It is felt that a letter of appreciation from the Director of the FBI should be directed to the [redacted] as their cooperation contributed immeasurably to this investigation and they unquestionably were inconvenienced and were apprehensive as to their personal safety.

ADDENDUM OF THE CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION JH: cak 11/27/78

Re Phoenix airtel to Bureau, 2/23/79.

Evidence has been obtained [redacted] that will have to be examined by the FBI Laboratory for handwriting comparisons. This evidence is singular in nature but is extensive and sensitive information. Strike Force Attorney CRAIG STARR does not desire this evidence be submitted to the Laboratory through normal channels which would necessitate using the U. S. mail and losing control of the items.

If feasible, STARR would prefer a handwriting examiner travel to Tucson, Arizona to examine the evidence. If this is not feasible, the material would be hand-carried to the Laboratory by an Agent from Tucson, Arizona in order to maintain the security of this evidence. The FBI Laboratory is requested to advise Phoenix as soon as possible which procedure is preferred.

These documents have been reviewed, analyzed, and in some instances interpreted by an Agent who has been assigned to organized crime investigations since the Bureau's institution of the Top Hoodlum Program on November 22, 1957. However, due to the scribbling of BONANNO inasmuch as he intended these notes only for his personal review, only a fraction of his handwriting is legible to the Agent in Tucson. The following is a summary of that small portion of the documents which is legible in Tucson.

It would appear from the notes that what BONANNO has attempted to do is to prepare his memoirs, a history of organized crime since its inception as the Mafia in Sicily in the 1200s. It appears in a very few instances that he has taken information from another publication, at least in that portion of the documents which pertain to the Sicilian origins of the Mafia and that he has put his imprimatur on the contents of these publications and is incorporating it as his own. It should be noted by the Bureau that some of the pages are obviously out of sequence but this is the way they were discovered in BONANNO's "buco". It appears that these personal notes of BONANNO might serve as the basis for his autobiography. In this regard it should be noted that on one page he has the words "Title: The Real Story of Joe Bonanno" or "The Prince of Honored Mafia" and on another page later he has the words "The Sicilian-American Mafia Prince".

Many of the documents contain the first line "The Sicilian History of the Mafia". On these pages BONANNO writes what he apparently believes is the origin of the Mafia in Sicily. He writes "where the mother of the girl near the church (in the Vespers Insurrection) cried 'Ma-Fia' (my daughter) became years after the expression of the symbol of protection..... against the oppressor". "The Symbol of Honor, Courage, Integrity, Justice, Liberty". "This secret organization were formed as the 'Blessed Paul's' whose aim was to bring about the righting of wrong. The Mafia was the product of despotic government". "In an unjust world, it was necessary to create one's own justice". BONANNO described MUSSOLINI's purge of the Mafia as being motivated by an attempt to "appear as a champion of decent living" but even more so as an attempt to "repress against any sort of arrogance". In his writings he refers to "Saint Principe Ala Mafia, the Mafia Prince".

During this segment of his writings, BONANNO describes the influence of the BONANNO family in his construction of the Tower of Pisa, their influence with the King of Italy, and describes a member of the BONANNO family who was Mayor of Palermo. He also describes how he was instructed by his father on his death bed: "Above all, be a BONANNO and be proud of the BONANNOS". He describes how he finished high school and went to college in Italy, came to the United States, settled in Brooklyn. He writes, "I was in bootlegging business at age 21 or 22."

The next segment of his writings BONANNO writes at great length concerning the Castellammarese War in New York. How JOE "The Boss" MASSERIA created a "conspiracy against JOE AIELLO in Chicago". He writes that this conspiracy involved AL CAPONE, who was with MASSERIA. BONANNO apparently traveled to Chicago at this time because it was believed "AIELLO wanted to kill JOE, the boss". MASSERIA used CAPONE (apparently to kill AIELLO). BONANNO writes of a plot at this time to kill STEVE MAGADDINO, a boss in Buffalo, New York. He writes MAGADDINO was "begging us for help". MASSERIA then "called other important Dons" from out of town, accused MAGADDINO. Word was sent "to JOE AIELLO in Chicago to be careful from any CAPONE representative".

The next portion of this narrative is illegible in Tucson, however, it seems fairly obvious that the above situation is believed by BONANNO to lead to the Castellammarese War because the above narrative immediately precedes the words "The war started.... order to .... soldier to kill all the New York big Dons." In another part, BONANNO writes "The Castellammarese War starts early 1930 after the killing of the boss of Detroit, a Castellammarese himself born in Sicily, to protect the other Castellammarese, to kill or not to be killed....MASSERIA had support of AL CAPONE and his organization, BUGS MORAN organization, and JOE AIELLO, the real official head of Mafia boss of Chicago although CAPONE had a powerful organization of his own in Chicago." In this connection in another part of his writings, BONANNO talks about the bad feeling between MASSERIA and AIELLO and says "MASSERIA wanted to be supreme over CAPONE. CAPONE wanted to be supreme over MASSERIA in New York." He writes that "MASSERIA went to Chicago" where a meeting was held with "other out of town bosses" to settle this problem.

BONANNO names many of the bosses of geographical areas in the country at this period of time, around 1930. He identifies STEVE MAGADDINO of Buffalo as being allied with MARANZANO, who battled with MASSERIA in the Castellammarese War. He mentions FRANK COSTELLO, JOE ADONIS, and LUCKY LUCIANO who were with MASSERIA. He mentions LOUIE LIPSCHULTZ as possibly being with MARANZANO "who ordered all New York bosses to be killed." BONANNO writes that other bosses "begged MARANZANO to spare other innocent people in the country." "J. B. met these group before they had a chance to kill MARANZANO". BONANNO describes how MARANZANO traveled from place to place with body guards in a bullet proof Cadillac to escape his killers. At this point BONANNO describes how he was beaten by a New York City detective and how he suffered. Again, at this point he mentions "LUCKY, FRANK COSTELLO, JOE ADONIS, and VITO GENOVESE" possibly as being top men during the latter stages of the Castellammarese War. BONANNO describes the wholesale killings at this time. This included AIELLO in Chicago which made "CAPONE now sole boss in Chicago." CAPONE thereafter had nothing to do with New York and then was interested only to have peace in Chicago." He describes how the war came to an end and how 500 bosses met "by the Table of the Great Hall". MARANZANO was acclaimed the (illegible word). "MARANZANO was acclaimed the boss of all bosses from all over the country". From the writings it appears that CAPONE had some question at the meeting but "MARANZANO assured CAPONE the peace in Chicago and made CAPONE official boss of all Chicago". BONANNO then writes that MARANZANO selected five New York bosses. MARANZANO told all the bosses "to come to New York if any trouble in their city-help or whatever". JOE BONANNO named the New-York bosses at that time as "CHARLIE LUCKY, MANGANO, SCALISE (?), JOE PROFACI". He mentioned only four of the five, with the fifth believed to be BONANNO. He mentions that SCALISE (?) was shortly thereafter replaced. Described how upon the death of MARANZANO the Commission was elected. BONANNO seems to say the election was for a term of five years. The function of the Commission was to "keep the peace in New York and all over the country - to make law, to settle trouble in other areas, and to guarantee the justice for all. No Commission have the authority to control or to give order to another boss". However, at this point BONANNO writes "But after the 1965 deterioration among New York bosses started doing that".

Getting back to the origins of the Commission in the early 1930s BONANNO writes that he was "the first one nominated" to be a member. In interpretation, it appears that most of the above is self explanatory. With the exception of AIELLO and CAPONE, all those mentioned were leaders of organized crime in New York. JOE AIELLO, at one point, is described by BONANNO as the "real boss of the Mafia in Chicago", was in fact the head of the Italian-American Unione, the organization of Italian Americans in Chicago. It is believed to be a matter of history that he was in fact the leader of the "mustache" faction of organized crime in Chicago whereas CAPONE had a conglomeration of Italians and other nationalities who banded together to form the "hard nut" of organized crime in Chicago. It is a matter of history that AIELLO was killed in Chicago in the early 1930s and that this killing was generally believed to be perpetrated by the CAPONE Organization.

As all offices are aware, the "Commission" is the ruling body of organized crime in the United States.

BONANNO then prepared an outline of his life following the creation of the Commission. He touched upon the following points:

"The trust among the Commission members, the deterioration among the Commission members, the Kefauver Committee, the betraying start within the Commission, a boss to betray another boss, the killing (?) of ALBERT ANASTASIA, the LUCIANO deportation, VITO (GENOVESE) leaving, return from Italy; COSTELLO supporting ANASTASIA, the order to kill COSTELLO, the COSTELLO escape, how J. B. made effort to keep the peace, trip of J. B. to Italy, return of J. B. from Italy day after the ANASTASIA death, the Apalachin Meeting, who really ordered the meeting at BARBARA's, who were there and who were not, the Apalachin trial, J. B.'s heart attack, his appearance in court, J. B.'s fake subpoena to appear in New York, J. B.'s arrest in 1958, 1959 J. B.'s appearance in Los Angeles, KEFAUVER looking for J. B., house in Phoenix and Scottsdale, VALACHI starting to squeal and to talk, mentioned J. B., cheese in Wisconsin, assist (or assets) in Montreal, trapped in Montreal, released in Chicago, subpoena to New York, appearance three or four times, return from Montreal, MAGADDINO-COLUMBO-LUCCHESI alliance with GIANCANA, Chicago against J. B. because J. B. accused to help PROFACI and now MAGLIOCCO, send SALVATORE to help, order to appear again in October 1964, J. b6

The following is an interpretation of the above:

BONANNO obviously believes that when the Commission was initially formed, there was trust between members but that sometime thereafter deterioration of this trust set in. In 1950 Senator ESTES KEFAUVER of Tennessee initiated a Crime Investigating Committee with national television which attempted to locate BONANNO and force his appearance before the Committee. CHARLES "LUCKY" LUCIANO was deported from the United States. FRANK COSTELLO and ALBERT ANASTASIA, both leaders of organized crime in New York, were the subjects of assassination attempts with COSTELLO living and ANASTASIA dying. In November 1957 the so called Apalachin Meeting was held at the residence of JOSEPH BARBARA in upstate New York and was attended by most of the top leaders of organized crime throughout the United States. Following the Apalachin Meeting, there was a trial for obstruction of justice of many of the leaders who attended and who refused to furnish information concerning the nature of the meeting. Shortly thereafter, BONANNO suffered a heart attack. Although BONANNO appears to refer "KEFAUVER looking for J. B. in 1959", he obviously mistakes KEFAUVER for Senator MC CLELLAN of Arkansas who headed the Senate Rackets Committee in 1959 and used the FBI to serve subpoenas on top leaders of organized crime throughout the country whose testimony was desired before the MC CLELLAN Committee. Apparently while the Senate Rackets Committee attempted to locate BONANNO, he was hiding in a house in Phoenix and/or Scottsdale. BONANNO then refers to JOSEPH VALACHI, who testified before the Senate Committee concerning his knowledge of organized crime and who testified concerning BONANNO in this regard. BONANNO mentions "cheese in Wisconsin" apparently referring to the Grande Cheese Company in Wisconsin in which he has an interest.

In the summer of 1964, BONANNO traveled to Canada where he was charged with being an illegal alien. He spent six or seven weeks there under a deportation order and when he was released, was placed on an airplane with the first stop in Chicago where

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] he was apparently the subject of an inquiry by the Commission who from what he says apparently formed a three man committee of the Commission to investigate the charges against him. Apparently the charges were brought by MAGADDINO, JOE COLUMBO, and TOMMY LUCCHESI in alliance with SAM GIANCANA, who in 1964 was the boss of organized crime in Chicago. Apparently part of the charges against BONANNO were that in some way he assisted JOSEPH PROFACI and MAGLIOCCO, upper echelon leaders of organized crime in New York. When he was again ordered to appear in October of '64, BONANNO claims that he was kidnapped and that apparently he was kept in a house on "Parkway for eighteen months". This may have been Pelham Parkway. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] some 18 months after his disappearance and was released on $150,000 bond. His son, SALVATORE, also called BILL, came to Tucson at this period of time and was arrested by the FBI at the Spanish Trail Motel on the south side of Tucson.

BONANNO then expresses the fact that "tremendous pressure" was put on by the FBI and that a bad situation occurred with the FBI inasmuch as FBI Agent [REDACTED] allegedly headed a group which placed bombs at the BONANNO residence and at the residence and businesses of several other leaders of organized crime in Tucson. Judge WILLIAM C. FREY, Pima County Superior Court Judge, was the judicial officer who presided over the case against [REDACTED] which resulted in a favorable verdict for [REDACTED] and which resulted, in the opinion of BONANNO, in Judge FREY becoming a federal judge. BONANNO discusses "business in California" and later "destruction of all businesses", apparently a reference to the fact that his sons, SALVATORE (BILL) and JOSEPH, JR. had businesses in California. It is noted that these businesses, Kachina Fashions and U. S. Mattress Company, are the subject of the current federal investigation for obstruction of justice against BONANNO.

BONANNO then discusses his current problems before the federal grand juries in Tucson and in San Francisco. His reference to "STARR" is a reference to Strike Force Attorney CRAIG STARR who is in charge of the San Francisco phase of the investigation of BONANNO. His reference to [REDACTED] is a reference to his personal physician, who has claimed that BONANNO is too ill to appear before the grand juries. His mention of "revocation of probation, injustice" is a reference to the fact that the probation of his two sons was revoked in the summer of 1978 and they were sentenced to serve prison terms at Safford, Arizona and at McNeill Island in California where they are currently are incarcerated.

b3
b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] His references to "surveillance, harrassment" appear to be a reference to the fact that during October 1978 BONANNO was the subject of an intensive physical surveillance instituted by the Phoenix Division with the help of the [redacted] [redacted] during which his activity was closely monitored. His reference to "SCORDATO, birthday, FBI" refers to the fact that on his birthday in 1979 he became aware of the fact that the FBI was knowledgeable concerning the fact that he held his birthday party at SCORDATO's Restaurant, one of Tucson's two or three leading restaurants. His reference to [redacted] is a reference to the FBI Agent who is the Case Agent in instant investigation.

His reference to a 1979 deposition is a reference to the deposition he gave on March 1, 1979 in Federal Court concerning his knowledge or lack thereof of his sons' businesses in California. His reference to "life in Tucson, harrassment" obviously appears to be his opinion of his current lifestyle.

In another place in the documents, BONANNO writes about how "CHARLIE LUCKY became boss" in 1933. He describes how MEYER LANSKY made a trip to Chicago with BONANNO and with BUGSY SIEGAL. He describes how CAPONE became the boss in "Lexington Hotel, AL CAPONE and bosses from all over the U. S., peace party, all paid by AL CAPONE". It is noted that the reference to MEYER LANSKY and BUGSY SIEGAL are two upper echelon leaders of organized crime in New York in the past and the reference to the Lexington Hotel is a reference to the former headquarters of AL CAPONE on South Michigan Avenue at 22nd Street, which was also known from time to time as the New Michigan Hotel.

In another place, BONANNO describes how he was introduced to President ROOSEVELT and to two top leaders of Tamany Hall, the leading Democratic organization in New York City in the 1930s.

BONANNO describes how when "the FBI was looking for me in 1950 or 1951 I was hiding in Phoenix in .... DE CONCINI for to introduce me to other judges". Later in the same narrative he describes how "the FBI pursuing me. They lost us (CHARLIE B.) in Dallas." He describes how he went from Dallas to St. Louis, Missouri..... to Wisconsin, Madison and Rochester Minnesota Clinic, New Orleans, Cuba, Batista guest". This apparently again refers to the fact that in 1950 or '51 when BONANNO was the subject of a subpoena commanding his appearance before the KEFAUVER Committee, he evaded the subpoena. The reference to DE CONCINI is apparently a reference to Judge EVO DE CONCINI, the father of United States Senator DENNIS DE CONCINI, Democrat from Arizona. Reference to CHARLIE B. is apparently a reference to CHARLES BATTAGLIA who in the 1950s was a top lieutenant of BONANNO but who now has fallen from BONANNO's grace.

PX 183-93

Elsewhere in his writings, BONANNO describes a Commission meeting between ALBERT ANASTASIA, VITO GENOVESE, STEVE MAGADDINO, and JOE BONANNO to settle a New York dispute. He writes that "VITO was boss of bosses at that time". This was perhaps in the 1950s. He describes how CARLO was elected to the Commission shortly before the Apalachin Meeting which was called by LUCCHESI and (illegible). He writes that at the Apalachin Meeting SAM GIANCANA, who had been "active with ALBERT" said he felt offended by J. B. This is followed by the words "and SAM revenge against J. B. during J. B. kidnapping".

In interpreting the above, it appears that the references to all of the above are to leaders of organized crime in New York at the time and that the reference to CARLO is a reference to CARLO GAMBINO, another upper echelon leader of organized crime in New York. The reference to SAM GIANCANA is obviously a reference to the leader of organized crime in Chicago from 1957 through 1965. BONANNO writes that in 1963 JOE PROFACI was replaced as boss. "CARL and TOM LUCCHESI against". These are obviously references to the leaders of organized crime in New York with CARL being a reference to CARLO GAMBINO.

BONANNO then describes his problems in 1964-66 with the Commission. This narrative is confused but it is possible he was accused of some type of negligence and possibly of killing three people. He mentions ANGELO BRUNO and SANTO TRAFFICANTE as playing roles as Commission members in this dispute, possibly as members with GIANCANA who were assigned by the Commission to settle this dispute. BONANNO writes, however, that he tried to make contact with these three but they declined. Later in this context he mentions "CARL and TOM" who apparently "told that I was going to kill the three - a dirty and desperate conspiracy." Later, at this part of his narrative, BONANNO writes "they didn't have any official authorization because J. B. was official member of the Commission. J. B. was the head of the committee who elected the Commission every five years. The five years was already passed and they were all out. As J. B. was the only one official to call". Later he writes "The Commission voted against J. B."

In interpretation of this portion of the narrative, it would appear that in the period of time in the mid sixties described supra when BONANNO was in a dispute with other members of the Commission, that the Commission formed a committee consisting of ANGELO BRUNO, the leader of organized crime in Philadelphia; SANTO TRAFFICANTE, the leader of organized crime in Florida, and of SAM GIANCANA, the leader of organized crime in Chicago to investigate the charges against BONANNO and report to the Commission. However, BONANNO makes the point that inasmuch as he was the head of what appears to be the nominating committee of the Commission to elect members and inasmuch as the constitution of the Commission calls for election every five years, and inasmuch as it had been more than five years before he had called the nominating committee to order, that these individuals were operating ex-officia and without authority to pass judgement on him.

BONANNO then continues his narrative discussing JOSEPH VALACHI, "a stool pidgeon who lied on many things to save his skin". BONANNO then talks of "audience with POPE..... Bishop SPELLMAN". It is noted that elsewhere in the narrative he refers to the fact that when he came to Tucson in 1942 he was given a letter of introduction by Bishop SPELLMAN to the Bishop of Tucson. It is also noted that located in the front hallway of BONANNO's residence in Tucson is a framed copy of a Plenary Indulgence from Pope Pius to "JOSEPH and FAY BONANNO".

BONANNO then concludes his narrative with a series of 25 notes concerning his current problems revolving around [redacted]

[redacted] He discusses his belief that CRAIG STARR, the Strike Force Attorney in San Francisco, who is in charge of the San Francisco phase of this investigation, has devised a "dishonest strategy" and has "fabricated a dishonest conspiracy against me". He writes that the time sequence involved in the service of [redacted]

[redacted] when [redacted] blocked my very private

b3
b6
b7C

PX 183-93

driveway entrance" somehow shows the nature of this conspiracy.

It should be noted that a review of these notes does not show that BONANNO discusses in any way his strategy in defending the proceedings against him and therefore there appears to be no problem with any violation of his rights involved in the receipt of these notes.

It should be noted that also contained in BONANNO's "buc" were various other documents which are not being furnished the Bureau for translation and transcription. Among these is a lengthy list which is headed "Names and Addresses". This list consists of the names and addresses of numerous judges, legislators, a Congressman, state, county, and city officials, businessmen, leaders of the clergy, bankers, physicians, a police commissioner, his accountant, and others.

As is noted, the Phoenix Division has made a complete review and analysis of what appears to be BONANNO's autobiography. During the part concerning the Sicilian origins of the Mafia, it appears that he has conducted some research and that what he has copied in his own handwriting appears to him to be the accurate history of the formation of the Mafia in Sicily. The rest of the narrative appears to be done without recourse to any other source and appears to be the obvious recollections of BONANNO throughout his history as a leader of organized crime in New York and Tucson. Obviously, there could be hardly any other person who would be more knowledgeable concerning the subject matter of which BONANNO writes. It is noted that his father was a Mafia Don in Sicily and that BONANNO currently is the only active charter member of the Commission, he being generally believed to have been elected a member of the Commission as the leader of one of the five New York families when the Commission was formed in or about 1931. In addition to all this, BONANNO is college educated, a highly intelligent individual and a prolific writer.

A copy of this communication is being directed to all offices where individuals are mentioned by BONANNO. The Bureau is requested to furnish to each of these offices and to the Phoenix Division the results of their transcription of this manuscript.

Remytel 3/22/79 and Phoenix airtel, 3/8/79.

For information of all offices not having received prior correspondence, the Tucson Resident Agency of the Phoenix Division executed a search warrant on the premises of captioned subject at 255 Sierra Vista, Tucson, Arizona on 3/17/79.

During the course of the search, hundreds of documents were taken and/or copied. Many of these pertained to captioned investigation and were evidentiary thereto. Moreover, however, there were hundreds of pages of personal notes of BONANNO which set out in explicit detail his recollections of the history of organized crime. His memoirs start with the formation of the Mafia in Sicily, it being noted that he gets some of this first-hand from his father, a Mafia boss in Sicily in the late 1980s and early 1900s. More importantly, he traces the history of the Commission, the ruling body of organized crime in the U. S. since it was organized in 1931. It is noted that he is an authority on the Commission since he was a charter member, elected as the first one nominated to it, and in the 1950s and 1960s he was the chairman of the nominating committee of the Commission. He names members of the Commission and the nature of some of their meetings. He identifies factions and enmities within the Commission.

At the conclusion of the search on 3/17/79, it was the feeling of the Agents conducting the search, some of whom have been assigned exclusively to organized crime investigations since the inception of the program in 1957, that should leaders of organized crime throughout the country learn of the quality and quantity of the items taken and copied from BONANNO's "Buco" (safe), they would have a significant reaction, perhaps including imposition of their ultimate penalty.

In this regard, the search has been the subject of considerable press in Arizona and perhaps nationwide. The fact of the search itself was reported by reporters near the scene during the all day search and some sense of the magnitude of the search was portrayed when the press mentioned its lengthy duration and the fact that a copying machine and a large truck were used during the day.

Information has now been received from [redacted] that [redacted]

[redacted] In this connection, it is noted that BONANNO continues to associate with LCN members from various parts of the country and has certain individuals working under his aegis throughout the country and Canada. This is particularly true in New York, Denver, California and Miami, as well as Canada.

LEADS

b7E

All offices receiving this communication will be alert to any Commission meeting or meeting of leaders in their area pertaining to the significant information obtained from the BONANNO Buco. In view of the explosive nature of this information, it is expected that should its magnitude become known to the LCN including the naming of names and details of some meetings, the Commission may decide on sanctions against BONANNO. [redacted]

PX 183-93

Those seven offices who were requested to conduct interviews of associates of BONANNO in rem airtel are requested to expedite these interviews. During the interviews, it is suggested that questions be put to the interviewees with a view toward ascertaining whether the fact of the search of the BONANNO Buco is generally well known around the country and toward gauging the reaction attendant thereto.

SAPUTO & SONS CHEESE COMPANY OF MONTREAL, CANADA, dba Utica Cheese Company of Oriskany, New York, was scheduled to commence operation 4/1/79. Due to allegations of OC connections in this company which have received extensive press coverage, New York State Governor HUGH CAREY has called for a non-criminal investigation of this company which is presently being conducted by the New York State Police, Organized Crime Task Force. This investigation is to be concluded by 4/25/79. SAPUTO & SONS CHEESE COMPANY has contracted with the National Farm Organization (NFO) to purchase 300,000 pounds of milk per day at blend price which at this time is $11.46 per hundred weight. Officials of SAPUTO & SONS CHEESE COMPANY advised the NFO by the end of calendar year 1985, they will be purchasing 500,000 pounds of milk per day. Under the agreement set up contractually, payments for milk by SAPUTO & SONS CHEESE COMPANY can lag up to 40 days from the day of purchase. Based on these figures, should SAPUTO & SONS "bust out", as they have done in one other cheese company in the past, the proposed cheese company at Oriskany, NY, has the potential for inflicting an economic loss based on 300,000 pounds of milk per day which would be $1,375,200 and based on 500,000 pounds of milk per day would be $2,292,000.

AL 183-502

Furthermore, FBI [ ] investigations to date have revealed that it appears as if the LCN, including CHARLES JOSEPH BONANNO, has used cheese companies and related Italian food industry companies to "wash" money illegally gained from narcotics trafficking, gambling, prostitution, shylock loans and other related OC criminal activities. Also, the organized crime infiltration and takeover of legitimate business is apparent.

b7D
b7E

Albany Division considers SAPUTO & SONS CHEESE COMPANY OF MONTREAL, CANADA dba Utica Cheese Company, a top priority matter. [ ]

The Bureau is requested to advise Albany of any on-going investigations concerning Italian food industry infiltration by the LCN that may relate to the activities of SAPUTO AND SONS CHEESE COMPANY.

PURPOSE: To request that the Document Section of the Laboratory transcribe, translate, and analyze the attached document.

DETAILS: On 3/17/79, a search was conducted of the residence of Joseph Bonanno, Sr., in Tucson, Arizona. During the course of this search, the attached manuscript was discovered by our Agents and Agents of the Arizona Narcotics Task Force. The document appears to be a manuscript of Bonanno's memoirs. The United States Attorney did not allow the seizure of the original document; however, a xerox copy was made on the premises and forwarded to FBI Headquarters. The manuscript consists of both English and Italian writing. A cursory examination shows that this manuscript depicts a substantial portion of Bonanno's life in the Mafia. He also appears to discuss killings and other matters which could become evidentiary.

RECOMMENDATIONS: That the Document Section of the Laboratory perform the following with regard to the attached manuscript:

1. Transcribe the attached material which contains both English and Italian writing.

Notarized statement dated 3/20/79
United States District Court Affidavit dated 2/28/79

ALSO SUBMITTED:

Miscellaneous items obtained on the same dates as above questioned items

Result of examination:

It was concluded that the majority of the writings on the following questioned items were prepared by one writer:

Q1, Q2, Q5-Q9, Q12, Q13, Q15, Q17-Q19, Q22, Q23, Q25, Q30-Q33, Q35, Q37, Q38, Q41, Q44, Q46-Q53, Q55-Q57, Q57a, Q61, Q63, and the side of Q69 starting "Fay".

Numerous identifiable characteristics were noted when the above questioned items were compared with the known writings of JOSEPH CHARLES BONANNO, SR. (K1). It was therefore concluded that the majority of the above questioned writings were prepared by JOSEPH CHARLES BONANNO, SR. (K1).

Although a positive conclusion was not reached, numerous similarities were noted indicating that JOSEPH CHARLES BONANNO, SR. (K1) probably prepared Q10, Q20, Q21, Q26, Q36, Q39, Q40, Q43, Q45, Q54, Q58, Q59, Q60, Q62, and Q64-Q68.

Due to limited writing, a lack of clarity or a lack of comparable writing, no conclusion could be reached regarding the remaining questioned items submitted.

The submitted evidence has been photographed and was returned separately.

Dear [redacted]

As we discussed yesterday on the telephone People and Time magazines have received a copy of what they term the "Bonanno manuscript". It is incumbent upon us to try to determine the source of their information. Since the search of Mr. Bonanno's home, copies of the document have been maintained by the United States Attorney's Office, the FBI, and the [redacted]

I know you are seeking to determine what has happened to the copy of this item which was sent to the FBI for analysis. In that inquiry, it is imperative that we know the number of copies that have been made back in Washington, who has those copies and who has had access to those copies. In addition, if you or your agents have any information as to who it was that xeroxed the original "manuscript" at the search scene, how many copies were made, who else in Tucson has made copies of the document since it was seized, and where those copies are presently located, please supply that information.

I have contacted [redacted] and have asked him to try to determine who among his personnel made copies or have copies of the item in question.

I know you share my concern that the case against Mr. Bonanno not be prejudiced by improper disclosure of

I, [redacted] Special Agent, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington, D.C., being duly sworn, dispose and say:

By a communication dated March 22, 1979, from the Phoenix Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, I received one Xeroxed copy of a manuscript, which was copied at the residence of Joseph C. Bonanno, Sr., on March 17, 1979. I maintained that copy in my possession until April 25, 1979, when it was turned over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation Laboratory for reproducing. Special Agent [redacted] supervised the photographic reproduction of the Xeroxed manuscript, and he informs me that four photographic copies were made of the manuscript. One of the photographic copies was returned to me, along with the Xerox original, and they remain in my possession or in the possession of [redacted] and when not being worked on are kept in a secure cabinet. The other three photographic copies and photographic negative remain under the control of Supervisor [redacted] under lock and key.

I have not disclosed the manuscripts or information contained in the manuscripts to anyone outside the Federal Bureau of Investigation nor am I aware that anyone else has revealed information from the manuscripts to persons outside the FBI.

Specimens received April 22, 1979

Qc71 Photocopy of three hundred ninety-seven page handwritten manuscript

Result of examination:

It was concluded that the majority of the legible English portions of the Qc71 manuscript were prepared by JOSEPH CHARLES BONANNO (K1).

The non-English portions of Qc71 could not be sufficiently compared to the known writing (K1) to positively identify the writer. However, similarities were noted when the non-English portions of Qc71 were compared to the known writing of JOSEPH CHARLES BONANNO (K1) indicating that he probably wrote the majority of these questioned writings.

Portions of the Qc71 manuscript are too illegible for handwriting comparisons. JOSEPH CHARLES BONANNO (K1) could neither be eliminated nor identified as the writer of these questioned writings.

Qc71 has been photographed and is being retained at the Bureau.

Re Phoenix airtel dated 3/22/79.

Enclosed is one copy of a translation/transcription of the manuscript seized from the residence of Joseph Charles Bonanno, Sr., on 3/17/79.

As the Phoenix Office is aware, a Federal court order is in existence requiring the return of the "Bonanno Manuscript." On 12/19/79, San Francisco Strike Force Attorney Craig Starr advised Unit Chief [REDACTED] that a hearing will be held on 1/4/80 regarding the return of translation/transcription of this manuscript. In the meantime, and with Strike Force Attorney Starr's concurrence, Tucson Agents familiar with the manuscript should review the enclosed translation/transcription in order to determine if information exists that could be considered relevant to ongoing criminal investigations.

The enclosed translation/transcription must be protected as evidentiary type material and cannot be shown or disseminated to other than FBI Agents. It is highly likely that the 1/4/80 hearing will result in the enclosed copy being returned to the judge handling the San Francisco investigation. No copies or notes are to be made.

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO

Joseph Charles Bonanno, Sr., aka Joe Bonanno, along with [redacted] were found guilty by USDJ William Ingram at San Francisco on 9/2/80. Bonanno was found guilty of conspiracy to obstruct a FGJ investigation. He faces a maximum 5 years +/- $10,000 fine. [redacted] was found guilty of three (3) counts of perjury before the FGJ. Sentencing for both is to take place in early October.

Following a fourteen (14) week non-jury trial which ended on 7/24/80 at San Jose, California, Judge Ingram took the decision under advisement. He released his memorandum decision yesterday.

Bonanno, of Tucson, Arizona, who is 75 years old, was one of the founding fathers of the modern La Cosa Nostra (LCN). He is the only original LCN commission member still alive.

This case began with an investigation by our San Francisco and Sacramento Divisions into the extortion activities of his sons, Salvatore "Bill" Bonanno and Joseph Bonanno, Jr. While attempting to hide their investments and ownership in two (2) northern California businesses, Bonanno, Sr.'s attempts to subvert the FGJ process by directing perjured testimony, concealing and altering evidence were discovered.

INSTRUCTIONS

(1) Submit an original only of the FD-515 within 30 days of a recordable accomplishment. Submission of each statistic should not be delayed awaiting the accumulation of several statistics.

(2) The date the FD-515 is submitted must be shown.

(3) The field office file number and appropriate subclassification, if applicable, must be set forth.

(4) Category A - "PRELIMINARY JUDICIAL PROCESS" - This indicates the number of subjects against whom judicial action has taken place. The number of subjects must be indicated with a numerical entry and not with the letter "X" or a check mark.

FOR EXAMPLE: If 4 subjects have 10 Bills of Indictment returned against them, enter 4 on line 3.

(5) Category B - "FINAL JUDICIAL PROCESS" - This, again, indicates the number of subjects and the number of counts or violations for which the subject is convicted. The number of counts shown on lines 5 and 7 must equal or exceed the number of subjects indicated on lines 4 and 6, never be less. Category 4 and 5 or 6 and 7 cannot be claimed prior to sentencing.

FOR EXAMPLE: If a subject is convicted for multiple counts in a single indictment or is convicted on a number of individual indictments, the entry in either case will be one subject convicted.

(6) Category C - "SENTENCES" - Indicate only the number of subjects and where a combination of sentences are imposed, enter only the most severe sentence. The number of subjects cannot exceed the number of subjects indicated in Category B, lines 4 and 6. The amount of the fine (line 5), if any, is always claimed in conjunction with either lines 1, 2, 3, or 4.

(7) Category D - "ARRESTS/LOCATES/SUMMONS" - Indicate the number of subjects under designated priorities.

(8) Category E - "RECOVERY AND LOSS PREVENTED" Recoveries - When stolen or illegally possessed items with intrinsic value are recovered as a part of an FBI investigation, the value of the item should be recorded. Restitutions will be recorded in this category when ordered as part of a sentence.

Potential Economic Loss Prevented Record items such as counterfeit securities, money orders, Cashier Checks, Travelers Checks, and pirated copyright and patented material.

A justification airtel must be submitted with the FD-515 as an enclosure when the recovery or potential economic loss prevented exceeds $1,000,000.

(9) Category F - "CIVIL MATTERS" - To record an entry in this category, it is necessary to conduct actual investigation in the matter. Both the original amount sought and the damages awarded by the court are to be recorded under amount of suit and settlement or award. Therefore, if numbers 1 or 3 are completed, it is necessary that number 2 and 4 also be completed even if by zero. The only exception would be when monies are paid by the subject in Ascertaining Financial Ability Matters wherein it is not necessary to record an entry in F3.

(10) "REMARKS" - Identify the name of the subject(s) and when reporting a conviction identify the Title, Section, and Code applicable to each count convicted.

(11) Errors - If a previously submitted FD 515 is determined to contain an error after verifying the statistic on the Monthly Statistical Results Report, submit an original only of the FD-515 clearly marking the top of the form in red ink with the word "AMENDED." Other than the title, FBIHQ file number (if known), field office file number, and date, only complete the category being corrected by a numerical entry representing the appropriate decrease or increase. If this entry represents a decrease, insert a minus "-" sign and if an increase, insert a plus "+" sign directly to the left of the numerical entries which will signify the type of correction.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, New York City, reflect BONANNO was born January 21, 1905, in Sicily, Italy, his parents being SALVATORE and CATERINA BONANNO. He entered the United States illegally through Florida from Cuba in 1924 and left in 1938 to legalize his entry. In May, 1938, he entered the United States through Detroit, Michigan, from Canada, for permanent residence. He was naturalized May 17, 1944, in the U. S. District Court, Eastern District of New York. At this time he stated he resided at 61 Clermont Avenue, Hempstead, Long Island, with his wife, FANNIE, and two children, SALVATORE and [REDACTED]. He stated he was self-employed at the B and D COAT COMPANY, 47 Thomas Street, Brooklyn. His witnesses for naturalization were FRANK P. GIARAMITA, Attorney, 75 Wilson Avenue, Brooklyn, and IGNAZIO DE PASQUALE, coat contractor 139-11 116th Avenue, South Ozone Park, Long Island. He gave 208 Union Avenue, Brooklyn, as his residence from 1935 to 1938. From 1943 to 1944, he resided at 1122 North First Street, Tucson, Arizona, for the health of his children.

In July, 1942, in answer to questions asked of him by the Immigration and Naturalization Service, BONANNO stated he had never been charged with or arrested for a crime. However, as will be shown subsequently, at that time BONANNO had a criminal record. This matter is being reported to the Bureau by letter, looking toward active investigation for possible prosecution.

The records of the Federal Narcotics Bureau, New York City, reflect BONANNO on his original arrival in the United States resided with one PIETRO

From 1933 to 1934, BONNANO was in business as an undertaker, being a part owner of BONANNO AND ANELLO at 273 Central Avenue, Brooklyn. The records of the State Motor Vehicle Bureau, New York City, show BONANNO has operator's license No. 1524642, originally issued August 16, 1945, which expired September 30, 1951. New York 1950 automobile registration 8Q5400 was issued to BONNANO for a 1947 Black Cadillac.

The records of the Marriage License Bureau, Brooklyn, indicates BONANNO was married November 15, 1931. He was a barber at that time and resided at 4009 Church Avenue, Brooklyn. His wife's name was shown as FANNIE LA BRUZZO, 114 Jefferson Street, Brooklyn.

It is noted that during March, 1950, [REDACTED] Los Angeles, California, Police Department, had occasion to bring into custody two well-known Los Angeles racketeers. BONANNO's name was included therein, and his address was shown as 114 Jefferson Street, Brooklyn.

The records of DUN AND BRADSTREET reflect BONANNO and NATALE DE PASQUALE, 1726 De Kalb Avenue, Brooklyn, are partners in the B AND D COAT COMPANY, 480 Johnson Avenue, Brooklyn, contractors in women's coats, which formerly was located at 47 Thomas Street, Brooklyn. This business was established in 1932 at 135 Montrose Avenue, Brooklyn, with one JERRY BONOMO, who withdrew in February, 1936. The company banks at the MANUFACTURERS TRUST COMPANY, 23rd Street and Second Avenue, New York City.

BONANNO has FBI #2534540 and New York City Police Department Number B-85172. He has used the aliases of JOSEPH BONVANTRE and REPPINO BONANNO. He was arrested on September 16, 1930, by the New York City Police Department for grand larceny and possession of a revolver. It was charged at this time that he, with others, transported machine guns to mobsters of the Capone gang in Chicago, Illinois. Also arrested with BONANNO were CHARLES ~~DI~~ BENEDETTO, New York City Police Department No. B-85170, and CORNELIUS ~~DI~~ SCHINGER, New York City Police Department No. B-85171. BONANNO was discharged on the grand larceny charge on September 26, 1930, and on the revolver charge on September 29, 1930, on a writ in the Supreme Court.

BONANNO was arrested in January, 1942, by the U. S. Marshal, Brooklyn, for violation of the Wage and Hour Law. He received a suspended sentence, being placed on probation for eighteen months, and fined $400 with restitution of $6,000 to be made to employees. On December 13, 1941, an information had been filed in the U. S. District Court, Eastern District of New York, charging BONANNO, VICENT ~~DE~~ PASQUALE and FILIPP APPA, of New York, co-partners in the MORGAN COAT COMPANY, contractors in men's coats, 91 Ingraham Street, Brooklyn, with violation of the Wage and Hour Law, there being twenty-three counts in the indictment.

BONANNO was arrested in March, 1942, by the U. S. Marshal, Brooklyn for violation of the Wage and Hour Law. He received nine months probation and was fined $50 with restitution of $2,241 to be made to employees. On February 18, 1942, an indictment had been returned in the Eastern District of New York, charging BONANNO and NATALIE ~~DE~~ PASQUALE, partners in the B AND D COAT COMPANY with violation of the Wage and Hour Law.

On November 4, 1944, the dead body of FILIPPO ~~RAPPA~~ RAPPA, co-partner with BONANNO in the MORGAN COAT COMPANY, was found on Sunrise Highway at N.Y.C. 79th Street, Ozone Park, Long Island. The body showed a deep scalp injury. A pistol was found on RAPPA's body and over $300 in cash and several thousand dollars in checks were also found on his body. The Detectives of the New York City Police Department are investigating the possibility of BONANNO being responsible for this murder.

The records of the U. S. Probation Officer, Eastern District of New York, reflect BONANNO admitted the Wage and Hour Law offenses, stating he had full knowledge of the business even though he was not at the business every day. He was not active in the management, being the outside man. He is alleged to have had influence with the union, and therefore these businesses were not interfered with.

Criminal Activities

Phoenix Division has no information that BONANNO is engaged in any criminal activities since he has been in Arizona.

However, Phoenix Division on January 12, 1952 received from the New York Division a copy of a letter of the New York City Police Department Homicide Squad, at which time that department stated BONANNO is a known racketeer and that the New York Police had received information that BONANNO had been killed and buried in the State of Texas. Phoenix Division however, had been able to verify that BONANNO was very much alive and still residing at Tucson, Arizona.

On July 18, 1946, Chicago Division in a letter to the Bureau in the case entitled, "CAPGA", Bureau file 62-81093, advised that representatives of the U. S. Treasury Department at Milan, Italy had advised that BONANNO was one of the individuals on the Grand Council of the Sicilian Underworld.

Phoenix files further indicate this individual was a subject of the case entitled, "~~GUISSIPPE BONANZO~~, was.; - FUGITIVE", of which New York was office of origin, and he was being investigated for fraud in that on his application for citizenship he made the statement to the Immigration and Naturalization Service that he had never been charged with or arrested for a crime, although on two occasions in 1942 he had been charged and sentenced in U. S. District Court at New York for violation of the Wage and Hour Law.

Activities:

Principal activity on the part of LICAVOLI has been his appearance before a one-man Grand Jury; namely, ROBERT S. TULLAR, Superior Court, Pima County, in a one-man Grand Jury inquiry conducted by County Attorney MORRIS K. UDALL, Pima County Attorney, in investigation to establish the ownership and control of the Rillito Race Track located west of Tucson, Arizona.

Initial investigation in this connection was started by the Arizona Racing Commission in May, 1953, in view of the fact they desired to establish whether any criminal elements; namely, LICAVOLI and his associates, were moving to gain a foothold in Arizona racing. Information secured by them resulted in the disclosure that [redacted] an owner of 945 shares in the corporation of the track had been known to "front" for LICAVOLI on other occasions.

The Racing Commission, who presently carries LICAVOLI as a licensed owner-trainer of horses, made the investigation in an effort to establish whether LICAVOLI would deny or affirm any ownership interest in the track with a view to ultimately barring him from racing or ownership of any racing track interests because of his criminal background. However, the Grand Jury investigation conducted by the Pima County Attorney forestalled official action by the Racing Commission and the motives for its conduct have been attributed to UDALL's political ambition.

Investigation revealed LICAVOLI has between 30 and 50 shares in his own or his wife's name, that LICAVOLI has refused to acknowledge that he furnished the money for [redacted] investment in the ownership of the track.

Business Interests:

LICAVOLI has admitted the following business interests in addition to those set out previously: (1) Ownership, Casa Catalina Apartments, 4402 North First Avenue, Tucson, Arizona. (2) Part ownership Tucson Printing Company. (3) Apache Realty and Development Company.

ASAC E. J. McCabe called to advised that they had developed information which indicates that an Assistant U. S. Attorney (AUSA) may possibly be associated with Joseph Bonnano, one of our top hoodlums.

In reviewing a Dun and Bradstreet report which was obtained upon request concerning Joseph Bonnano, a top hoodlum, they came across the name of Peter Passalacque, an attorney who also was Vice President of the Brunswick Laundry Service, Inc., located at 39-45 Central Avenue, Brooklyn 6, New York. The Agent reviewing this material knew that Joseph Bonnano had a substantial interest in this firm. The Agent also noted that Peter Passalacque had a name similar to that of an AUSA in the Eastern District of New York by the name of Peter Anthony Passalacqua. There is a difference in the spelling but there were other items that were of sufficient similarity ~~as~~ as to cause a question to be raised as to whether the AUSA was identical with the individual listed in the Dun and Bradstreet Report. McCabe pointed out that the AUSA and the individual listed in the Dun and Bradstreet report were both in their late forties, both are native born, both have a father named Vincent, and both have a brother named [redacted] who does business at [redacted] where [redacted] is located. Also, the attorney in the Dun and Bradstreet report lists as one of his business addresses [redacted]

It would appear that the Dun and Bradstreet report of April, 1957, on Joseph Bonnano listing Peter Passalacque as Vice President of the Brunswick Laundry Service, Inc., has information which pretty well ties in with the person who was referred to as the AUSA.

McCabe says they are checking into this thing immediately and will let us know of the results of their inquiry, but he wanted us to have this information. We will follow this matter closely.

Key Witness<sup>3</sup> In Apalachin Quiz Missing

By JAMES D HORAN

A former henchman in the Al Capone mob, billed as a key witness at today's opening session of the State Crime Commission's inquiry into organized crime, has disappeared mysteriously.

The missing hoodlum is Joseph Bonanno, alias Joey Bananas, who was one of the 65 underworld figures at the Invisible Government's gangland crime summit conference at Apalachin, N. Y., last Nov. 14.

Bonanno, whose last known address was 1726 DeKalb ave., Brooklyn, has been sought for days by subpoena-bearing State Troopers, trying to bring him in to testify before the crime probers.

'SECRET WEAPON'

The underworld power who has been putting up a legitimate front as a cheese and laundry business man, was expected to tell the commission details about the Mafia's Upstate meeting.

Like some of the other prospective witnesses, Bonanno, 52, was to have been offered immunity in the hope he would reveal hitherto unknown information about the conclave and other mobster activity in the state.

The commission adopted the immunity offer as a "secret weapon" in cracking the underworld's silence.

Bonanno, arrested in 1932 for transporting machine guns for the Capone mob, was the latest of several hoodlums to drop from sight. Possible underworld violence to keep him from testifying was believed to be a strong factor in his disappearance.

Other mobsters to vanish from the scene are:

ARMAND T. RAVA, 47, of 1180 Ocean pkwy., Brooklyn, who has a record of arrests for attempted extortion, assault, and vagrancy.

CARMINE LOMBARDOZZI, 44, of 114 Stratford rd., Brooklyn, a bookie and underworld confidante.

JOHN BONVENTURA, 54, of 115 Cleveland st., Brooklyn, a self-described "salesman" who has been a shadowy figure in underworld circles.

During the weekend and through yesterday, State Troopers armed with subpoenas tried without success to find Bonanno and the other missing witnesses.

Today's opening session got under way in the Criminal Courts Building.

Mr. Hoover Sir;

I would like to know, the where about's, of Joseph (Banana's) Bonanno. The reason is simple. Everyone has written a book, about the Cosa Nostra. Now I would like to write one also; as there are women, in the state's, who would, (I feel) like to read a book, on the way an average housewife and mother feel's, about this threat to our society. Could you in any way, send me, Mr. Bonanno's address,. Because I will in turn, want his idea's, for my book. I would be very grateful if you could help me. I am no literary genius, but I will sure try my best.
I thank you.

Mr. Warner Sir.

I would like to know, the where abouts, of Joseph (Samano's) Bonanno. The reason is simple. Everyone has written a book, about the Cosa Nostra.
Now- I would like to write one also,
as there are women, in the states, who would, (I feel) like to read a book, on the way an average housewife and mother feel's, about this threat to our society. Could you in any way, send me, Mr. Bonanno's address,. Because I will in turn, want his ideas, for my book. I would be very grateful if you could help me. I am no literary genius, but I will sure try my best.
I thank you.

Re New York teletype 10/17/64 captioned
"Frank LaBruzzo, aka, AR."

It is noted that one "Gasparino," who reportedly was "put on the shelf," and expelled from Bonanno "family" by Joseph Bonanno, emerges as a central figure in factionalism which has developed in La Cosa Nostra. This has resulted in the expulsion of Joseph Bonanno from the "Commission" and as "boss" of his La Cosa Nostra "family."

According to a anonymous caller who has furnished interesting and significant information on these developments to the New York Office, "Gasparino" is a brother-in-law of Steve Magaddino, married to Magaddino's sister who was killed in the past in a bomb explosion. As set forth in retel, "Gasparino" may well be identical with Nicholas Longo, whose wife Arcangela Longo, Magaddino's sister, was killed by a bomb thrown into the Longo residence in Niagara Falls, New York, in May, 1936. It is noted that the Longo residence was next door to the Steve Magaddino residence at that time, and there was suspicion that Magaddino was the actual target of the bombing.

New York and Buffalo closely coordinate your efforts in locating Longo, determining if he is in fact identical with "Gasparino," and if so, expedite investigation of Longo as subject of separate Anti-Racketeering case to develop complete [redacted] Each feel strongly Bonanno dead but they are not sure his disappearance is authentic, for 4 reasons, namely Bonanno always carried a pistol in shoulder holster; 4 body guards had been assigned to him on 24 hour basis by "family," they did not believe 2 individuals without assistance could have taken Bonanno; and lastly Bonanno would have known that being taken as he was his appearance before the commission would have meant instant death. Bonanno "family" members also feel Attorney Maloney is grandstand actor covering for their boss.

Re New York tel 10-28-64.

In view of the involvement of Salvatore V. Bonanno, son of Joseph Bonanno, in the La Cosa Nostra controversy which undoubtedly led up to Joseph Bonanno's abduction and, inasmuch as a number of sources have reported that Salvatore V. Re: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS (2);

Salvatore V. Bonanno may be in California. New York should expedite copies of his photograph to California offices to assist in their efforts to locate Bonanno. In addition, in view of the importance of this matter New York should, by separate airtel to all offices, briefly outline events leading up to the abduction of Joseph Bonanno and Salvatore V. Bonanno's position in this chain of events which now makes him liable for execution. Photographs of Salvatore V. Bonanno should accompany this airtel to enable any Bureau office to properly handle this matter in the event Salvatore V. Bonanno is located by, or contacts, a Bureau field office.

Los Angeles should remain in particularly close contact with [redacted] for information which may come to their attention regarding the current whereabouts of Salvatore V. Bonanno.

In New York's airtel to all offices instructions should be issued that in the event Salvatore V. Bonanno is located, the Bureau is to be immediately advised.

Our highly confidential coverage of Buffalo "commission" member Steve Magaddino has divulged that Magaddino may well have been responsible for the planning, and execution, of Bonanno's abduction in New York City during the early morning hours of October 21, 1964. As you know, this action culminated a steady move by La Cosa Nostra's "commission," resulting in Bonanno's ouster from the "commission," in addition to isolating all members of the Bonanno "family" from other La Cosa Nostra groups throughout the United States.

The actual facts of the abduction permit a rather strong inference that fragmentary information received from the [redacted] source concerned the planning of Bonanno's abduction. This refers to a discussion between Magaddino, [redacted]

[redacted] and an individual known to the source only as [redacted]

[redacted] in which discussion Magaddino generally summarizes La Cosa Nostra's grievances against Bonanno, and concludes by remarking [redacted]

This becomes quite significant in view of the fact that it now appears that [redacted] originally from [redacted]

[redacted] has given conflicting accounts of his actions during the evening preceding the abduction, when he dined with Bonanno and three New York City lawyers at the Pen and Pencil Restaurant.

UNSUBS (2); JOSEPH BONANNO - VICTIM
OOJ - CONSPIRACY

JOSEPH C. BONANNO, JR., interviewed 10/29/64 at 6331 East Calle del Paisano, Phoenix, where he is living alone. BONANNO advised he spent most of last summer in New York City where he claims he stayed with brother, BILL; says he returned to Phoenix alone September 13 last and is presently enrolled in Phoenix College. Also stated he was going to work 10/30/64 at a service station located at 32nd Street and East Indian School Road, Phoenix.

BONANNO claimed he has no knowledge concerning his father's disappearance other than that which he has seen in the press, and he has no idea as to the whereabouts of either his father or mother. He said he has called all [redacted] in [redacted] as well as [redacted] and [redacted] in [redacted]. He says his relatives all profess no knowledge regarding location of parents although he said he pleaded with [redacted] to have his mother contacted. He also said, however, none of his relatives will discuss anything on the phone. He last spoke with [redacted] on 10/26/64 on the phone, at which time he said [redacted] had laryngitis so bad she said she could not talk to him and hung up.

BONANNO said he has also tried to call [redacted] on several occasions in [redacted] since his father's disappearance but has been unable to contact him. He said his sole source of income is money which he receives from [redacted] and he is practically broke at this time because of his inability to contact him. BONANNO said all the bills pertaining to the residence where he lives are sent to [redacted] for payment. He said this house still belongs to his brother, BILL.

BONANNO further claimed he knows absolutely nothing of his father's business interests and that these matters were never discussed in his presence. He said his father attempted to raise him in the European method and was always extremely strict with him, not hesitating to strike him at the slightest provocation. As a result of this, BONANNO admitted he has gotten a little wild since being "on his own." He also said that because of his father's attitude toward him he has been closer to his brother, BILL, than his father and that BILL has always treated him much better than his father.

Contact with the Registrar's Office of Phoenix College, 10/29/64, reflects BONANNO, JR. is enrolled as a student at the Camelback Road Extension Branch of this College. College records reflect he is listed on the rolls as JOSEPH CHARLES BONANNO, JR., and his parents as JOSEPH and FAY BONANNO, 1847 East Elm Street, Tucson.

In view of BONANNO's attitude, further contacts with him are contemplated.

AN INFORMANT ADVISED ON OCT. TWENTY NINE LAST HE HAD CONTACTED
[REDACTED] IN REGARD TO THE DISAPPEARANCE <sup>b7D</sup> OF JOE BONANNO AND THAT NONE [REDACTED] WOULD ADMIT HAVING ANY KNOWLEDGE CONCERNING THIS MATTER.

IN ADDITION TO ABOVE, INFORMANT POINTED OUT THAT A REVIEW OF THE FACTS IN THE LIGHT OF HIS KNOWLEDGE OF OPERATIONS OF THIS TYPE, HE DOES NOT FEEL THIS WAS A LEGITIMATE SNATCH. HE STATED IN HIS OPINION
IT WAS SET UP BY BONANNO TO COVER HIS DISAPPEARANCE. INFORMANT RELATED THAT BONANNO UNDOUBTEDLY KNEW THAT THE "COMMISSION" WAS AFTER HIM AND THAT IF HE WENT WITH THE TWO INDIVIDUALS IT WOULD BE A ONE WAY RIDE. HE STATED THAT WITH THIS KNOWLEDGE IT DOES NOT APPEAR LOGICAL TO HIM THAT BONANNO WOULD HAVE GONE WITH THESE INDIVIDUALS WITHOUT PUTTING UP MORE RESISTANCE THAN WAS INDICATED BY THE NEWSPAPER ACCOUNTS OF THIS OCCURRENCE. INFORMANT POINTED OUT THAT BONANNO WOULD HAVE HAD A BETTER CHANCE TO STAY ALIVE BY TRYING TO EFFECT HIS ESCAPE

ON PARK AVENUE. HE FURTHER POINTED OUT THAT IT DID NOT APPEAR LOGICAL TO HIM THAT THE INDIVIDUALS WOULD HAVE GRABBED BONANNO OFF THE STREET IN THE PRESENCE OF OTHER PEOPLE IF IT HAD BEEN LEGITIMATE SNATCH, BUT RATHER THEY WOULD HAVE MERELY WALKED UP AND KILLED HIM ON THE SPOT.

XINKEK INFORMANT FURTHER STATED THAT THERE HAS BEEN NO RELAXING OF TENSION IN THE ORGANIZATION SINCE THE DISAPPEARANCE OF BONANNO AND THAT HE FEELS THAT HAD THE "COMMISSION" CARRIED OUT A SUCCESSFUL "HIT" ON BONANNO THE TENSION WOULD HAVE BEEN RELAXED AND THERE WOULD BE SOME TALK OF HIS BEING REPLACED AS HEAD OF HIS "FAMILY".

INFORMANT CONCLUDED THAT IN VIEW OF [REDACTED] STATEMENT <sup>AND</sup> ~~AND~~ b7D THE ABOVE RATIONALIZATION OF THE FACTS, HE PERSONNALLY DOES NOT FEEL THAT BONANNO IS DEAD, BUT BELIEVES THAT HE STAGED THE KIDNAPPING TO COVER HIS DISAPPEARANCE.

BUREAU WILL BE KEPT ADVISED OF ALL DEVELOPMENTS.

coverage under the Criminal Intelligence Program over this period revealed that the "commission" on a number of occasions met to decide Bonanno's fate. Retel reviewed this situation and instructed that New York discuss with USA, SDNY, possible issuance of subpoenas to indicates that the "commission" continues in a quandary over the Bonanno dispute and does not appear to be completely aware of the full details of Bonanno's disappearance. This has also led to factionalism among "commission" members and other leaders who are finding fault with each other over the handling of the Bonanno "family."

Highly confidential coverage of leadership of Vito Genovese "family" of La Cosa Nostra in New York City indicates that the "commission," top ruling body of La Cosa Nostra, apparently not aware of exactly what happened to Joseph Bonanno. Thomas Eboli, a central figure in Bonanno controversy, believes commission should call key Bonanno "family" representatives and extract from them details explaining Bonanno's disappearance. Intensive investigation continuing to resolve this matter and to locate Bonanno if, in fact, he is alive.

ReBuairtel states that "in view of the involvement of SALVATORE V. BONANNO, son of JOSEPH BONANNO, in 'La Cosa Nostra' controversy which undoubtedly led up to JOSEPH BONANNO's abduction, and inasmuch as a number of sources have reported that SALVATORE BONANNO is also marked for execution by order of the 'Commission', it could be extremely important to locate SALVATORE BONANNO in an effort to attempt to develop his cooperation in this matter."

"Undoubtedly, he is aware that he has been marked for execution by the leadership of 'La Cosa Nostra'."

The following is furnished for information to assist in interviewing SALVATORE V. BONANNO in the event he is located in your division. In the interest of clarity, sources are not being set out:

Approximately 2 years ago, the "Commission" sent JOSEPH BONANNO two or three messages to go to Philadelphia when JOE MAGLIOCCO was there. Some doubt exists as to whether MAGLIOCCO gave the order that THOMAS ("Three Fingers Brown") LUCHESE had to get killed or for CARLO GAMBINO to get killed. At any rate, JOE BONANNO did not show for the meeting. GAMBINO wanted to know why BONANNO did not appear as GAMBINO and LUCHESE believed that BONANNO was behind MAGLIOCCO's decisions. Thereafter, GAMBINO and LUCHESE set "Commission" meeting dates, for they knew that neither BONANNO nor his underboss, JOHN MORALES (JOHNNY BURNS), who was to function for BONANNO on the "Commission", could appear for these meetings. There was a series of four meetings and four messages sent to BONANNO to appear for the meetings, but he ignored them all. At the fourth meeting, GAMBINO and LUCHESE insisted on discussing BONANNO and to demand an explanation why he failed to answer the "Commission".

Troubles mounted for JOE BONANNO when he placed his son, SALVATORE V. BONANNO, as a "consulieri" in his "family" illegally displacing GASPERINO (LNU), who filed a complaint with the "Commission" against BONANNO.

JOE BONANNO then sent his son, SALVATORE BONANNO, with forty men to "take over" California without the sanction of the "Commission". After intercession by the "Commission", JOE BONANNO recalled his crew from California. The "Commission", through STEVE MAGADDINO, contacted JOHN MORALES and SALVATORE BONANNO in an attempt to get JOE BONANNO to appear before the "Commission". SALVATORE BONANNO, during a meeting with STEVE MAGADDINO, after six hours of questioning, promised he would get the next plane and immediately return with his father to appear before STEVE MAGADDINO, returning no later than the promised date. STEVE MAGADDINO waited another 12 days and then heard that JOE BONANNO was in jail in Montreal and never intended to meet with MAGADDINO.

NY 92-3501

Sometime during the course of events, SALVATORE V. BONANNO, on behalf of his father, told MAGADDINO that he did not recognize the "Commission" or their rulings, and also insisted that messages were illegally delivered to JOE BONANNO as their regulations clearly state that three men must personally deliver a message for this type of "Commission" meeting.

After 2 years, the "Commission" voted to depose BONANNO from the "Commission" and to "hit" JOE BONANNO and seven of his hierarchy.

BONANNO is accused of becoming too rich and recruiting too many into his "family" and the decision to "hit" BONANNO was made in "an aristocratic way". "BONANNO dies and his son (dies)."

JOSEPH BONANNO was alleged to have been kidnapped by two men at 12:10 a.m., 10/21/64, NYC.

The following is a description of SALVATORE V. BONANNO:

scheduled reappearances before that body or any plans he has for departing soon for New York City.

It was felt by the interviewing agent that although [redacted] time sheets and diary were said by him to include all of the information maintained by him as well as other attorneys in the office who keep similar time sheets on their tally work schedules chargeable to the clients business on which they are working at the time, that without reference to the individual case files being handled, the time sheets are of little value for the purpose of checking for possible contacts from or to any particular client. The written references on the time sheets as displayed by [redacted] are very sketchy and in referring to those only, he said he could not recall as to any particular entry the exact work done for the client except there are entries such as "conf" and the name of the individual with whom the attorney conferred but anything further than that would have to be obtained from the case file or the memory of the attorney.

He said the time sheets are taken by one of the girls in the office and she then charges the client for the time as shown on the sheet.

Re Boston teletype 11/19/64 captioned "La Cosa Nostra, AR - Conspiracy."

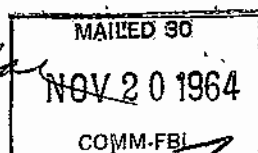

Boston is to expedite submission of verbatim transcript regarding discussion between Raymond Patriarca and [REDACTED] as reported by [REDACTED] on November 18, 1964.

b6
b7D

NOTE: Retel sets forth information from [REDACTED] covering New England La Cosa Nostra "boss" Raymond Patriarca's headquarters, that Patriarca remarked to his top subordinate [REDACTED] that Joe Bonanno "took it on the lam himself" and, in addition, that Bonanno's son is with him. Mention is made that [REDACTED] and all of the "underbosses" are meeting later this week to determine what they want to do with the remainder of Bonanno's "family." [REDACTED] is probably identical with [REDACTED] former "underboss" of the Bonanno "family" and a key figure in the recent controversy in which Bonanno was expelled from the "Commission."

Re New York quarterly informant report captioned

New York should consider the possibility that the above individual referred to by [ ] may be identical with Frank Garofalo, former "underboss" of the Bonanno "family," who returned to Italy shortly after the Apalachin meeting in November, 1957. You should make appropriate inquiry at INS to determine if Garofalo has recently returned to this country, or may be planning such a return.

Keep the Bureau advised of developments in this NOTE: During August, September and October, 1964, the "Commission" met on a number of occasions to resolve dispute involving Joseph Bonanno, "Commission" member, with other members of this group. Bonanno was repeatedly called to appear before this body and consistently refused. Following his final refusal, "Commission" expelled Bonanno as member of this group and as "boss" of his La Cosa Nostra "family," and ostracized entire membership of this group. Best intelligence sources also reported that "Commission" decreed death sentence for Bonanno and his son, Salvatore Vincent Bonanno.

During early morning hours of 10/21/64, Bonanno was allegedly abducted by two assailants on NYC street as he was entering apartment of his attorney, William P. Maloney. Conflicting reports have been received since that time regarding authenticity of this abduction and some well-placed sources report that it was contrived by Bonanno himself. [REDACTED] at 3

Enclosed for New York and Los Angeles is a copy of a clipping from the Phoenix, Arizona, "Evening American" issue of 11/23/64 regarding John Louis Battaglia. In addition to information regarding two young sons of John Louis Battaglia, this newspaper article indicates that "Police recently found a black Cadillac abandoned near a New York City police station that may be the car used in the Bonanno snatch. The car bore Illinois plates and registered to a Chicago auto rental firm owned by Pete Licavoli, who also has lived in Tucson and still owns property there. Licavoli is reputed to be a 'hitter,' a rub-out artist for the crime syndicate."

New York determine if such an automobile was located by the New York City Police Department and if it, in fact, had any pertinence to captioned investigation. Advise Bureau and interested offices of results.

Mobster's Sons Missing

Two 'Bat' Nephews Hunted

The two small sons of John Louis Battaglia now have joined the growing list of missing members of the Tucson-based "families of crime."

John Louis is the brother of Charles (Charlie the Bat) Battaglia, who has been missing since the kidnaping in New York of Joseph (Joe Bananas) Bonanno two months ago. John has been free on appeal of a 20-year sentence in Los Angeles for operating an after-post time betting fraud.

The boys, Edward, 10 and John, 8, ran away from their mother Saturday as all three were about to board a plane in Los Angeles, enroute to Mrs. Battaglia's home in Prineville, Ore.

The mother submitted a child-stealing complaint against John Louis Battaglia, her divorced husband, yesterday with Los Angeles police. She said that she received a call earlier yesterday from her ex-husband telling her that the boys were "safe with a priest" at an undisclosed location.

John Louis Battaglia was arrested Friday on another child-stealing complaint filed in Oregon and was released on $2,700 bail. He has been free on appeal of six fraud convictions in the betting fraud since August.

Besides the boys and Charlie the Bat, other familiar Tucson figures among the missing include Bonanno, who hasn't been seen since his abduction, and Bonanno's son, Salvatore, also missing since the kidnaping.

Police recently found a black Cadillac abandoned near a New York City police station that may be the car, used in the Bonanno snatch. The car bore Illinois plates and registered to a Chicago auto rental firm owned by Pete Licavoli, who also has lived in Tucson and still owns property there. Licavoli is reputed to be a "hitter," a rub-out artist for the crime syndicate.

New York police say that Joe Bonanno was trying to take over the entire rackets operations in that city and probably was "eliminated" on orders from the Mafia "commission," the high court of crime of which he himself was a voting member.

Two inmates, presently confined at USP, Leavenworth, Kansas, one of which could be identical with the individual by the name of [ ] mentioned in referenced radiogram are as follows:

LESLIE MC CULLEN MITCHELL, #78321, white male, born 3/15/20, FBI #1529729, was sentenced 6/25/59, U. S. District Court, Dallas, Texas to five years for White Slave Traffic Act. [ ] advised on 11/25/64, that inmate LESLIE MC CULLEN MITCHELL seeks the company of the more notorious inmates of this institution whenever possible.

JOHN P. MITCHELL, #63186, Negro male, born 8/4/19, FBI #4225558, was sentenced 7/26/44 by the United States Army in England for Murder for a term of 25 years. He first served at USP, Alcatraz from 1952 until his transfer to USP, Leavenworth, Kansas, on 1/15/63. He was given a Mandatory Release on 2/5/63, and was returned as a Conditional Release Violator to USP, Leavenworth on 5/6/63. He has been a hospital orderly since 5/31/63, and would have had access to VITO GENOVESE. He is due for release on 12/24/64 on Mandatory Release, and will remain under supervision until 4/21/65. This inmate is described as surly and a very uncooperative individual.

U. S. Penitentiary Hospital records reflect that NATALE EVOLA has been confined to the USP, Leavenworth Hospital from 4/9/63 to 5/1/63, and from 12/17/63 until 12/30/63.

EVOLA has a long record of sick calls to the hospital at USP, Leavenworth during 1960 and 1961. During 1962, he made the following sick calls to this hospital:

KC 92-1379

8/24/62	Hay Fever
8/31/62	Hay Fever
11/8/62	Check of Feet
2/14/63	Glasses
2/21/63	Chest Pains
4/19/63	Chills
5/3/63	Not listed
5/7/63	Check of Feet
12/17/63	Temperature
1/8/64	Medicine
3/9/64	Recheck
4/27/64	Not listed
5/26/64	*****
7/24/64	*****
11/24/64	*****
11/25/64	*****

Officers of the USP, Leavenworth Hospital report that an officer is assigned to a small office in the area where the inmates report for sick call and that it would be almost impossible for such an inmate to then travel to the second floor of this institution where they could be in contact with VITO GENOVESE while they are here for sick call.

It should be noted in connection with the alleged message that EVOLA has been reported to have received from VITO GENOVESE to be given to the brother MIKE GENOVESE, that VITO GENOVESE could have relayed a message to his brother MIKE GENOVESE during any of the months when MIKE GENOVESE visited his brother.

It should also be noted that the attorney of VITO GENOVESE was a frequent visitor to GENOVESE at this institution.

The CV Division is highly desirous of having SCALISH subpoenaed because it is highly probable that after the issuance of the subpoena, [ ] informant, [ ] should be in a position to furnish valuable intelligence information regarding the receipt of the subpoena.

b7D

It is pointed out that SCALISH as a matter of routine spends the majority of his time at his home, and past fisurs and info received from [ ] reveals that meetings of any importance are held at his home.

In view of this, it would be extremely difficult to phrase any questions to be asked SCALISH, particularly with regard to the BONANNO situation which would not jeopardize [ ] a newly established source.

It is suggested that SCALISH be asked routine questions such as:

CV 92-1124

From past experiences, it is believed that SCALISH would take the 5th Amendment, in appearing before a GJ and, therefore, anymore specific type questions regarding BONANNO would only succeed in giving SCALISH info and jeopardizing informant  b7D

Informant advised that JAMES [redacted] discussed this meeting and furnished some information to indicate that JAMES LANZA had previously acquired information concerning the fact that JOSEPH BONANNO had been in Chicago, [redacted] after leaving Canada and had to return to New York; however, LANZA did not know where JOE BONANNO was at this time.

They talked in DE SIMONE'S car as they drove around in the Fresno area and they appeared to make no contact with any other person. After the conversation JAMES LANZA returned directly to his home in San Mateo, California and DE SIMONE apparently remained in Fresno, California.

For the information of the AUSA who may be questioning [redacted] before a Federal Grand Jury, it is recommended that

SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

Winchell's article contains sprinkling of truth about Bonanno situation, in that he very likely is alive and in the New York area, but in the main is guess work and conjecture which could have been prepared by any one following newspaper accounts since alleged abduction 10-21-64. The "M" from Buffalo probably refers to Steve Magaddino, "commission" member, who has opposed Bonanno in this controversy. Coverage of top Genovese "family" figures in New York City would indicate Vito Genovese did not take part in "commission" deliberations to decide Bonanno's fate.

SIXTEEN SIXTY FOUR, PAGES ONE AND TEN, CONTAINS ARTICLE ENTITLED "JOE BANANAS ALIVE, COMING HOME SOON" BY WALTER WINCHELL, WHICH IS SUMMARIZED AS FOLLOWS..

JOE BANANAS, TOP MAFIA MOBSTER KIDNAPED LAST OCTOBER TWENTY ONE IS ALIVE AND WELL AND WILL RETURN TO HIS HOME WITHIN SEVENTY TWO HOURS.
WINCHELL WRITES HE JUST RECEIVED EXCLUSIVE TIP ON THIS FROM UNDERWORLD
SOURCES, THAT HE CHECKED THIS WITH OTHER SOURCES THAT WOULD DEFINITELY BE ABLE TO CONFIRM OR DENY, AND THEY CONFIRMED IT..

BANANAS- SON, SALVATORE, WHO LATER DISAPPEARED MYSTERIOUSLY, ALSO WILL RETURN HOME IN SEVENTY TWO HOURS. BOTH MEN AT THIS MOMENT ARE NOT

AFTER NOTING JOE BANANAS IS THE JOSEPH BONANNO WHO WAS ABDUCTED BY TWO GUNMEN OUTSIDE APARTMENT OF HIS LAWYER, WILLIAM POWER MALONEY, THIRTY FIVE PARK AVE., AFTER APPEARANCE BEFORE GRAND JURY AND SCHEDULED REAPPEARANCE THE MORNING OF HIS ABDUCTION, ARTICLE SETS FORTH REASON FOR ABDUCTION AS FOLLOWS..

HE WAS QUESTIONED BEFORE GRAND JURY AS TO WHETHER HE KNEW A MAFIA MEMBER IN BUFFALO AREA, AND, IF SO, WHAT INFO HE COULD GIVE ABOUT HIM. BANANAS TOLD THE JURY NOTHING. BUT FACT HE HAD BEEN ASKED THIS QUESTION, AND MIGHT BE ASKED IT AGAIN, LEAKED FROM SECRET JURY HEARINGS TO THE MOBSTER, WHOSE LAST NAME BEGINS WITH LETTER "M". WINCHELL REPORTS HE KNOWS NAME OF "M" BUT MUST WITHHOLD IT AT THIS TIME.

ARTICLE CONTINUES WITH INFO IT WAS "M" AND ANOTHER MOBSTER WHO DID THE KIDNAPPING. WHILE JOE WAS HELD IN CAPTIVITY, HIS LIFE WAS THREATENED MANY TIMES. ONLY REASON HE WAS <sup>S</sup>PARED WAS ORDERS FROM HIGHER UP. SOME SAY ORDERS CAME FROM THE TOP, FROM VITO GENOVESE.

JOE WAS OFFERED LIBERTY AND A RETURN TO HIS HOME ON THE FOLLOWING CONDITIONS.. STEP OUT OF THE RACKETS ENTIRELY AND LET "M" AND OTHERS

CUT UP HIS JURISDICTION. "M" WOULD TAKE EVERYTHING IN THE STATE NORTH OF THE BRONX. THE CITY WOULD GO TO OTHER COSA NOSTRA FIGURES.

WINCHELL SAYS HE CANNOT AT THIS TIME SAY POSITIVELY JOE ACCEDED TO PROPOSITION. THE FACT HE IS BEING RELEASED MAY SUGGEST HE DID. AT ANY RATE, "THE TOP - GENOVESE" FINALLY ORDERED HIS RELEASE. WHETHER, ON BEING RELEASED, BANANAS WILL HONOR WHATEVER AGREEMENT HE HAS MADE, OR BALK ON THE PACT, CAN-T BE CERTAIN. SPECIFICALLY, WHAT IS STILL UNCERTAIN IS WHETHER THE AFFAIR, JOE BANANAS, WILL THROW THE NEW YORK UNDERWORLD INTO A BLOOD BATH OF INTERNECINE WARFARE. ALL THESE THINGS WERE DONE IN THE TOTAL SECRECY COMMANDED BY COSA NOSTRA, CONTINUES ARTICLE, AND ALL HINTS, TIPS AND GOSSIP BANANAS WOULD BE FOUND DEAD CAN NOW SUMMARILY END. NEW INVESTIGATIONS WILL OPEN UP, BY POLICE AS TO THE MOBSTERS, BY THE FBI AS TO THE ABDUCTION. ARTICLE CONCLUDES BY NOTING BANANAS HAS THE HABIT OF SECRECY AND, WITH HIS LIFE AT STAKE, IT IS NOT TO BE EXPECTED HE WILL OPEN HIS MOUTH.

FOR INFO OF BUREAU, ANY PRESS INQUIRIES RE THIS MATTER WILL BE ANSWERED WITH "NO COMMENT".

PHOENIX OFFICE BE ALERT TO POSSIBILITY VICTIM AND SON MAY REAPPEAR IN TUCSON AREA IN IMMEDIATE FUTURE. SINCE "M" LIKELY REFERS TO STEVE MAGADDINO, BUFFALO OFFICE BE ALERT TO ANY INFO CORROBORATING FOREGOING.

MALONEY's apartment, 35 Park Avenue, New York City. At present time BONANNO's whereabouts are unknown to the Bureau.

The "Commission" had met during the past couple of months and deliberated that BONANNO was to be expelled from the "Commission" and as "Boss" of his "family" and the entire membership of the BONANNO "family" to be ostracized from other LCN "families."

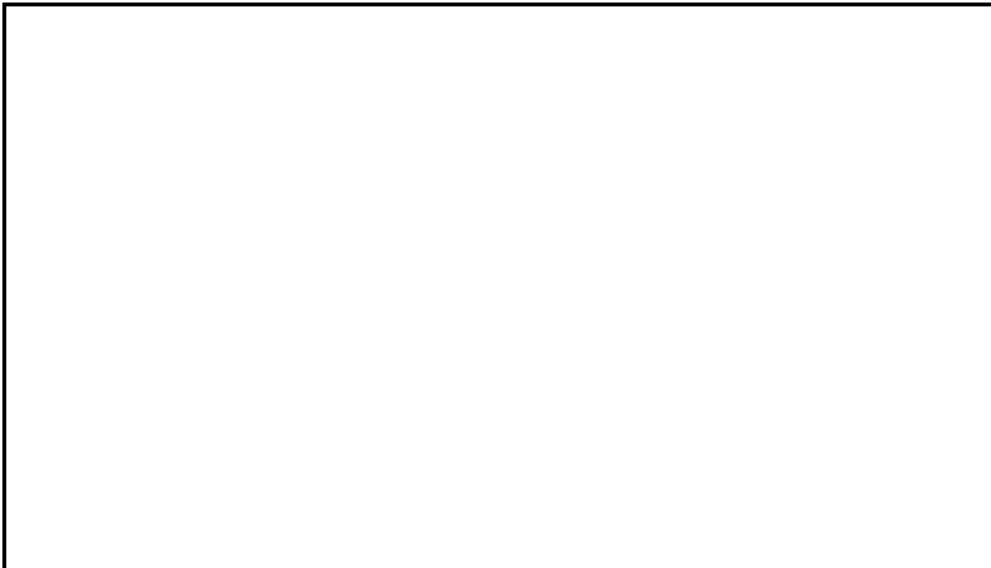

For the complete background of the BONANNO trouble and "family", refer to Criminal Intelligence Digest dated 12/3/64.

In addition to the foregoing, information had been developed strongly indicating that BONANNO, his son SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO, aka BILL, and possibly JOHN JOSEPH MORALES, aka JOHNNY BURNS, "Underboss" were marked for assassination.

 RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS (2);
 JOSEPH BONANNO - VICTIM
 OOJ - CONSPIRACY

Re New York airtel to Bureau dated 12/10/64.

While FRANK DESIMONE, "Boss" of the Los Angeles "Brugad", is reported by informants to be in the Southern California area, his exact whereabouts at this time are unknown. He has not been known to have resided in his family home at 8444 Quinn Street, Downey, California, since prior to Christmas, 1963, however, he has been in regular contact with [REDACTED] his "Under-Boss". DESIMONE feels that he is under constant surveillance by various law enforcement agencies and as a result he is "moving and hiding", depending upon [REDACTED] to handle most of the problems and details relating to his own "family".

In view of the above, it is suggested that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] also appear before the Federal Grand Jury.

Any questions which would be based on information from confidential sources and informants in other field divisions concerning the operations of the La Cosa Nostra in the Southern California area such as information developed through the investigation of STEVE MAGGADINO in Buffalo, are being left to the discretion of those offices and not incorporated in this communication. The Los Angeles Division is not in a position to evaluate pertinent circumstances of these sources to determine what inquiries might place them in jeopardy.

On 9/29/64, JAMES LANZA was observed by Special Agents of the San Francisco Division to depart his residence and drive to Fresno, California. He was further observed on that date by Special Agents of the San Francisco Division as well as Agents of the Los Angeles Division, meeting with FRANK DESIMONE who was driving his 1961 Cadillac bearing California license QXE 608. LANZA and DESIMONE were observed in conversation for approximately two and one half hours while driving around the Fresno, California area. LANZA had left his personal car at the parking lot of the El Rancho Motel in Fresno.

It is further noted that an informant of the [REDACTED] Division had advised that DESIMONE had been in the East where he attended a La Cosa Nostra meeting in late September or early October, 1964.

The inquiry concerning BATTAGLIA and SALVATORE BONANNO's presence in Los Angeles, particularly in 1961 and the possibility that it related to the attempted establishment of the BONANNO "Brugad" in Los Angeles cannot be substantiated ~~but~~, however, it is a surmisal based on opinion and the coincidence of the time factor. Informants have advised that it was during the early 1960s that BONANNO had entertained a plan to assume such control.

The Bureau and the New York Division will be immediately furnished any additional information which might come to the attention of the Los Angeles Division deemed appropriate for the proposed Grand Jury proceeding.

He too has an analytical mind and he realizes that, if the story [redacted] told is true, he would have gone directly to 35 Park Avenue, New York City, from the Pen and Pencil Restaurant instead of going to the Commodore Hotel first, but he would not know anything more than he has already said. He said he would not have seen anything for he would have arrived after the kidnapping because the cab in which he was riding stopped for a newspaper on 43rd Street and Lexington Avenue.

It was pointed out to [redacted] that, if [redacted] story is true, then the story of [redacted] stopping for a newspaper was not true and he would have arrived at 35th Street and Park Avenue prior to the arrival there of WILLIAM POWER MALONEY, JOSEPH BONANNO and [redacted] as they had stopped to get newspapers and to let [redacted] out of the cab at Grand Central Station; and, again, if [redacted] story is true, [redacted] was an eyewitness to the kidnapping and, whether the kidnapping was a hoax or legitimate, [redacted] knew in advance it was to take place.

[redacted] continued, "My conscience is clear and I know I told the truth [redacted]"

[redacted] "There can be no weighing of values between perjury or conspiracy to obstruct justice, as my license would be revoked in either case."

Lawyer Says Bonanno Is Set to Testify

Figure Kidnaped As Grand Jury Grilling Neared

NEW YORK (AP) — Joseph (Joe Bonanno) Bonanno's lawyer said today the kidnaped Cosa Nostra boss is alive and well and available. He has been missing for two months.

The mobster, 59, was overpowered on Park Avenue Oct. 21 and taken away in a cab. There were rumors that he was a target of gangland assassins.

However, his lawyer, William P. Maloney, who was with Bonanno that night, confirmed a story originally published 48 hours ago by Hearst columnist Walter Winchell that the crime syndicate leader is alive.

Maloney said he got his information in a telephone call from a person he declined to identify.

Prepared to Testify

Bonanno disappeared only a few hours before he was scheduled to appear before a federal grand jury in a probe of underworld activity. Maloney said he was informed Bonanno now is ready to go before the grand jury.

Maloney added:

"I was delighted to hear that Bonanno is alive and well and will appear and I instructed the caller to tell Bonanno to be in my office at 9 am. on Monday, prepared to appear before the grand jury.

"I told him I would call U.S. Atty. Robert M. Morgenthau and tell him of the call. I called Mr. Morgenthau, but he was at lunch and I left word that Bonanno would be prepared to appear on Monday.

Maloney said he got his information in a telephone call shortly before noon from Bonanno's son, Salvatore, also known as "Bill."

Winchell said in a story today that Bonanno has been held captive in a farm in Upstate New York. The columnist added that his information came from "underworld informants."

At the time Bonanno disappeared, there was considerable skepticism as to whether the kidnaping was legitimate. It was suggested he might have arranged the disappearance to avoid facing the grand jury.

Native of Sicily

The nature of the grand jury investigation has not been disclosed, but reportedly 30 members of Bonanno's Cosa Nostra "family" have been called to testify.

Bonanno, a 59-year-old native of Sicily, entered this country illegally in 1924.

At the U. S. Senate hearings

BONANNO

on organized crime last year, Joseph Valachi, the government informer, identified Bonanno as a leading figure in the Cosa Nostra, also known as the "Syndicate" or the Mafia.

He has been described by the FBI as one of the underworld's most feared chieftains. He divides his time between New York and Tucson, Ariz.

He was one of 27 persons indicted for conspiracy after police broke up a gangland convention at Apalachin, N. Y., in 1967.

Has Heart Trouble

He was felled by a heart attack the day before the trial of 23 of the delegates was to have opened in 1959. Twenty of the leaders were convicted but all of the convictions were later voided as a result of appeals.

Bonanno, who describes himself as being in the cheese business, first was arrested in the 1920's when he was accused of transporting machine guns to the Al Capone gang in Chicago.

In 1938, he left the United States and re-entered legally from Canada. In 1945, he became a naturalized American citizen.

He has given a brief resume of his life, claiming that he was currently 62 years of age, having been born in New York City and at the age of two, leaving New York City with his parents to reside in Sicily, Italy. SCIORTINO contended that he returned to the New York area at age 13 and resided there, except for a four-month period when he ran a bakery in the San Diego, California area in 1944, until he was 55 years of age. According to SCIORTINO, he moved to Tucson, Arizona, in 1957, upon doctor's orders, due to a serious sinus condition. SCIORTINO maintained that upon his arrival in Tucson he opened a bakery and that in early 1963 he expanded this business as a result of a $5,000 loan from JOSEPH BONANNO. SCIORTINO averred that immediately after the receipt of this loan he built a new plant designed to his specifications and that a business corporation was formed known as the Italian Bakery and Delicatessen, Inc., 4648 East Speedway Boulevard, Tucson, Arizona, with himself as president and BONANNO as secretary. SCIORTINO indicated that subsequent to the original loan from BONANNO he has borrowed an additional $1,000 to $2,000 for business purposes.

SCIORTINO went on to advise that to date he has not paid back any of the money loaned to him by BONANNO, however, indicated that subsequent to the initial $5,000 loan he has paid BONANNO various amounts of money for services performed as a salesman for sending and/or referring business to the bakery. SCIORTINO advised that all payments for these services were made in cash and that he would make a check out for a certain amount on a company check made payable to himself which he would in turn cash at the bakery and have the money available for payment to BONANNO. SCIORTINO avowed BONANNO would never pick up the cash himself, rather it was picked up almost exclusively by his son, JOSEPH CHARLES BONANNO, JR. He stated that the last time he had any money available for BONANNO was on October 23, 1964, when he had $49.02 which he gave to [REDACTED] as he could not locate either JOSEPH BONANNO or his son, JOSEPH JR.

SCIORTINO advised that he has not seen or heard from JOSEPH BONANNO for approximately one year and a half. Further, that he has not seen or heard from JOSEPH, JR.

in three or four months. (Subsequent to determining that SCIORTINO had given the above mentioned money to [redacted] b6 [redacted] was interviewed regarding what he had b7C done with the money and the whereabouts of BONANNO.

[redacted] claimed that he, [redacted] is [redacted]
[redacted] and that on three or four occasions subsequent to April, 1963, and up to October, 1964, has received money from SCIORTINO which he has utilized to pay the utility bills on the residence of JOSEPH and FAY BONANNO, 1847 East Elm Street, Tucson, Arizona. According to [redacted] he was requested by FAY BONANNO, immediately prior to her departure in April, 1963, to obtain money owed to her husband by SCIORTINO and pay the utility bills on their property in the event JOSEPH BONANNO, JR., failed to do so. [redacted] claimed that in each of these instances the money received did not exceed $60.)

SCIORTINO admitted having been arrested and fined in the New York area for bootlegging at the age of 22 [redacted] b3

[redacted]
SCIORTINO advised that this individual was subsequently deported to Italy.

During the time SCIORTINO was being interviewed he made mention of the fact that he came from a family of seven, five girls and two boys and that [redacted] b6
[redacted] carries the exact same b7C name as [redacted] and this [redacted] owns and operates a bakery and also resides in the [redacted] area.

The Bureau's attention is called to the fact that SCIORTINO advised SA [redacted] that he feels sure the FBI knows all about him and that his life is an "open book" and would therefore be willing to discuss it "up to a certain point." He claimed that if he were to talk too much he would be leaving himself as vulnerable as [redacted] did.

The payment records for the Italian Bakery and Delicatessen, Inc., plus the joint checking account for

PX 92-524

PETER [REDACTED] SCIORTINO have been monitored, which tend to indicate the possible existence of financial difficulties in the area of SCIORTINO's business and personal life. The existence of financial difficulties has been corroborated recently by [REDACTED]

BONANNO STATED THAT GASPARE DI GREGORIO, A "REBEL" UNDER GUIDANCE OF STEVE MAGADDINO /BUFFALO "COSA NOSTRA" BOSS/ PLANNED THE GRAB OF HIS FATHER AND HE HONESTLY DOES NOT KNOW PRESENT WHEREABOUTS OF HIS FATHER. BILL ADVISED THAT INDIVIDUALS WHO ACTUALLY GRABBED HIS FATHER WERE FROM YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO OR ERIE, PENNSYLVANIA VICINITY. WHEN ASKED IF HE KNOWS TRUE IDENTIFICATION OF ABDUCTORS, STATED "NO." WHEN QUERIED IF ANY ~~POSSIBLY~~ <sup>POSSIBLY</sup> SUSPECTS WERE NAMED HIM IF HE WOULD THEN KNOW, HE STATED "NO, I HONESTLY DON-T KNOW WHO THEY WERE."

BONANNO ADVISED THAT THERE ARE ONLY ABOUT EIGHT "CAPTAINS" AND THEIR MEN WHO STILL STAND WITH HIS FATHER AND REST BELONG TO GROUP HE REFERS TO AS "REBEL GROUP."

INDIVIDUALS BEHIND FATHER, JOSEPH BONANNO

BILL ADVISED BEHIND HIS FATHER ARE JOHNNY BURNS, [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] FRANK LA BRUZZO, CHARLES BATTAGLIA, HIMSELF AND OTHERS HE WOULD NOT NAME AT THIS TIME. BILL STATED BATTAGLIA,

[REDACTED]

BONANNO STATED THE REBEL GROUP CONSISTED OF GASPARE, DI GREGORIO, [REDACTED] AND OTHERS NOT AT THIS TIME NAMED. .

b6
b7C

WHEN ASKED CONCERNING THE LOWER EAST SIDE PEOPLE SUCH AS [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] PATSY GIGANTE AND OTHERS, BONANNO STATED "THEY-RE PROBABLY REBELS. I REALLY DON-T KNOW AT THIS TIME."

BONANNO WENT ON TO ADVISE THAT HIS FATHER LEARNED OF TROUBLE AND DISSENSION OF MEMBERS IN HIS "FAMILY" APPROXIMATELY MIDDLE AUGUST, SIXTYFOUR. THIS GROUP WAS BEING LED BY "GASPARINO," IDENTIFIED BY BONANNO AS GASPARE DI GREGORIO FROM LONG ISLAND. BONANNO STATED THAT STEVE MAGADDINO WAS BEHIND DI GREGORIO ALL THE WAY AND WAS OUT TO RUIN HIS FATHER, JOSEPH BONANNO.

WHEN ASKED THAT IN THE EVENT THE ABOVE IS TRUE THEN STEVE MAGADDINO HAS ACTUALLY TAKEN OVER MOST OF BONANNO "FAMILY" CONSISTING OF "REBEL GROUP," BILL REPLIED, "YES, I GUESS YOU COULD SAY HE TOOK OVER."

WHEREABOUTS OF FATHER, JOSEPH BONANNO

BONANNO ADVISED THAT HE DOES NOT KNOW THE FATE OF HIS FATHER AT THIS TIME NOR DOES HE KNOW HIS WHEREABOUTS. HE STATED HE KNEW THAT MEETINGS WERE TO BE HELD ON MONDAY AND TUESDAY AT WHICH TIME THE FATE OF THE REST OF "FAMILY" WOULD BE RESOLVED. THAT IS TO SAY, IF THEY COULD AGAIN OPERATE FREELY ON STREETS WITHOUT FEAR OF REPRISAL FROM OTHER "FAMILIES." BONANNO STATED, "WHY DO YOU BOTHER WITH US, WE-RE NOBODY NOW." BILL ADVISED THAT GROUP REMAINING WITH HIS FATHER HAS A "SPOKESMAN" FOR THEM WHO IS ATTEMPTING TO ARBITRATE THE SITUATION. WHEN QUERIED RE "SPOKESMAN," HE STATED, "YOU PROBABLY KNOW." THE NAME OF [REDACTED] WAS MENTIONED TO BONANNO AND HE SMILED, INDICATING THAT THIS WAS THE PERSON.

BONANNO ADVISED THAT WHEN SITUATION RESOLVED AND AGREEMENTS ARE REACHED, GASPARE DI GREGORIO IS GOING TO COME OUT "HEAVY." IT APPEARS BONANNO DOES NOT CARE FOR DI GREGORIO, STATING, "HOW DOES HE KNOW WHAT-S GOING ON, HE NEVER LEAVES LONG ISLAND." ASKED RE ABOVE REMARK IF IT MEANT DI GREGORIO WOULD TAKE OVER REMAINING BONANNO "FAMILY," HE REPLIED, "I DON-T KNOW YET." BONANNO STATED HE REALLY DOESN-T KNOW WHAT HAS HAPPENED SINCE HIS DEPARTURE FROM NEW YORK CITY AND WILL TAKE HIM A FEW DAYS ON STREET TO LOCATE CERTAIN PEOPLE WHO WILL PUT HIM STRAIGHT. BOANNO REITERATED AT THIS POINT HE DOES NOT KNOW LOCATION OF HIS FATHER BUT SHOULD KNOW WHEN HE GETS BACK TO NEW YORK CITY.

BONANNO STATED THAT HE HEARD WHERE IT WAS FELT THAT HE AND CHARLES JOSEPH BATTAGLIA ACTUALLY KIDNAPPED HIS FATHER TO PREVENT FEDERAL GRAND JURY APPEARANCE AND TO GIVE TIME TO RESOLVE "REBEL" SITUATION WITHIN "FAMILY" BUT THAT THIS WAS NOT TRUE. HE ADVISED HE WAS IN NEW JERSEY NIGHT OF OCTOBER TWENTY ONE, SIXTYFOUR, AND COULD PROVE THIS BUT WOULD NOT GIVE EXACT LOCATION NOR WOULD HE STATE WHERE BATTAGLIA WAS AT TIME OF DIISAPPEARANCE OF HIS FATHER.

END PAGE FOUR

ORGANIZATION OF JOSEPH BONANNO "FAMILY"

BILL BONANNO WAS NEXT QUERIED RE THE ORGANIZATION OF THE JOSEPH BONANNO "FAMILY." BILL STATED THAT THIS IS THE FIRST TIME I HAVE EVER MADE THIS POSITIVE STATEMENT TO YOU PEOPLE. "MY FATHER HAS BEEN THE BOSS OF "COSA NOSTRA" "FAMILY" SINCE NINETEEN THIRTY, I CAN-T REMEMBER THE EXACT DATE." SEPTEMBER NINETEEN, NINETEEN THIRTY, WAS MENTIONED TO HIM AS BEING DEATH OF SALVATORE MARANZANO, WHO WAS BOSS PRIOR TO JOSEPH BONANNO-S TAKING OVER. BILL REPLIED, "IT MUST HAVE BEEN AROUND THAT TIME THEN."

/ BILL STATED, "NOW I GUESS YOU WILL MAKE ANOTHER VALACHI OUT OF ME."

BONANNO STATED HIS FATHER HAD BETWEEN FIFTEEN AND TWENTY "CAPTAINS" WITH HIM PRIOR TO HIS RECENT TROUBLE WITH THE "COMMISSION" BUT WOULD NOT GIVE NAMES. IT WAS FELT BEST NOT TO PRESS BILL BONANNO AT THIS PARTICULAR TIME ON THIS POINT.

WHEN QUERIED IF FRANK LA BRUZZO HAD EVER BEEN IN LINE FOR "BOSS" OF JOSEPH BONANNO "FAMILY," BILL REPLIED, "NO, HE DOESN-T HAVE THE STOMACH FOR IT." IT WAS POINTED OUT THAT LA BRUZZO HAS BEEN KNOWN TO HAVE A VICIOUS TEMPER. BILL AGREED, SAYING, "HE - S DONE SOME THINGS."

NEW YORK CITY TO BE "CONSIGIERLI" AND BEGAN TO LINE UP PEOPLE BEHIND HIM SO WHEN TIME CAME HE COULD MOVE INTO JOB OF "BOSS" WITHOUT OPPOSITION.

BONANNO, WHEN ASKED ABOUT JOHNNY BURNS AS A POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR TO HIS FATHER, REPLIED, "NO, BURNS HAS HIS OWN TROUBLES WITH THE GUYS. YOU KNOW THAT." BILL WOULD NOT DISCUSS BURNS.

WHEN QUERIED ABOUT [REDACTED] BILL STATED, "HE IS LOYAL TO US" BUT HE WOULD NOT ELABORATE ON THIS.

RE BILL BONANNO-S TRIP TO TUCSON, ARIZONA

BILL STATED CONCERNING HIS TRIP TO TUCSON, APIZONA, THAT HE TRAVELED WITH [REDACTED] WHO WAS ORDERED BY [REDACTED] [REDACTED] TO GO WITH HIM AND DRIVE. BILL STATED THEY DEPARTED NEW YORK CITY SUNDAY MORNING EARLY AND DROVE ALL THE WAY. HE STATED THAT HE MADE A COUPLE OF LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE CALLS BACK TO NEW YORK CITY AND THIS WAS A WRONG MOVE ON HIS PART, FEELING THIS WAS HOW THE FBI PROBABLY KNEW OF HIS RETURNING TO TUCSON, ARIZONA. CONCERNING [REDACTED] BILL STATED HE WAS JUST A KID AND WHEN ASKED IF HE WAS A "MADE GUY," BILL REPLIED, "NO."

INFO RE "COMMISSION"

CONCERNING THE "COMMISSION," BILL REPLIED THERE ARE NINE MEMBERS ON IT. HE STATED THEN, "HERE-S SOMETHING I-LL BET YOU NEVER KNEW. THEY AREN-T ELECTED TO THE "COMMISSION" BUT SELECTED TO THE "COMMISSION" BY ALL " COSA NOSTRA -" MEMBERS THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES AND ARE SELECTED ONLY FOR A PERIOD OF FIVE YEARS." BILL STATED FOLLOWING ARE ON "COMMISSION"..

CARLO GAMBINO /BOSS NEW YORK FAMILY/, TOMMY BROWN /BOSS NEW YORK FAMILY/, STEVE MACADDINO /BUFFALO FAMILY/, SAM GIANCANA /CHICAGO BOSS/, JOSEPH ZERILLI /DETROIT BOSS/, VITO GENOVESE, WITH JERRY CATENA ACTING BOSS FOR HIM /NEW YORK FAMILY/. BILL STATED HIS FATHER <sup>0</sup>JSEPH BONANNO, WAS ALSO "COMMISSION" MEMBER BUT PROBABLY IS NO LONGER. ANGELO BRUNO /PHILADELPHIA "FAMILY"/. BILL STATED POSSIBLY RAYMOND PATRIARCHA FROM BOSTON, BUT WAS NOT CERTAIN OF HIM. BILL ADVISED RE PATRIARCHA THAT HE DOES NOT KNOW HIM WELL, ONLY MEETING HIM ONCE. BILL WENT ON TO STATE POSSIBLY JOE COLOMBO FROM BROOKLYN, WAS BY NOW ON "COMMISSION." BILL FELT THAT THE "COMMISSION" SHOULD BE COMPRISED OF AS MANY INDIVIDUALS FROM NEW YORK AS POSSIBLE BECAUSE THE NEW YORK "FAMILIES" ARE THE MOST POWERFUL AND THE NEW YORK "FAMILIES" CONTROL THE OPERATION OF "COSA NOSTRA" THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES. BILL STATED THAT HE MEANT BY THIS STATEMENT THAT AS "COSA NOSTRA" GOES IN NEW YORK, SO IT GOES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY. BILL STATED THAT SCALISH FROM CLEVELAND DEFINITELY NOT "COMMISSION" MEMBER. BILL BONANNO ADVISED HIS DISLIKES FOLLOWING "COMMISSION" MEMBER<sup>9</sup> BECAUSE THEY HAVE BEEN TRYING TO

REMOVE HIS FATHER FROM "COMMISSION" AND PUTTING HIM IN UNFAVORABLE POSITION IN ORGANIZATION..

MAGADDINO, GAMBINO, BROWN AND COLOMBO.

BILL CALLED COLOMBO EXTREMELY OBSCENE NAMES BECAUSE HE BETRAYED HIS FATHER, JOSEPH BONANNO.

BILL ADVISED THAT HE /BILL/ RECENTLY TRIED TO MOVE HIS REGIME INTO THE GARMENT AREA TRUCKING BUSINESS IN NEW YORK CITY AND WAS CALLED IN BY TOMMY BROWN. BROWN ADVISED HIM TO GET OUT OR HE, BROWN, WOULD TAKE THE NECESSARY MEASURES. BILL STATED THAT HE THEN HEARD A "HIT" WAS ORDERED FOR HIM /BILL/ BY BROWN SO HE, BATTAGLIA AND ANOTHER INDIVIDUAL WENT TO VERMONT UNTIL THINGS COOLED OFF.

BONANNO ADVISED THAT SOME OF "COMMISSION" RULES ARE OBSOLETE AND NEED CHANGING. HE NOTED THAT THE "COMMISSION" HAS NO BUSINESS MEDDLING INTO THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS AND STRIFE OF "FAMILY" MATTERS. HE POINTED OUT THAT THE "COMMISSION" HAD BEEN MEDDLING INTO HIS FATHER-S INTERNAL STRIFE PROBLEMS WITHIN HIS "FAMILY" AND THIS WAS THE BEGINNING OF ALL OF HIS FATHER-S TROUBLES. WHEN IT WAS POINTED OUT TO BILL THAT HIS FATHER HELPED FORMULATE THE "COMMISSION" RULES, HE REPLIED, "YES, I KNOW, BUT SOME OF THEM ARE NOT GOOD AND NEED CHANGING."

BONANNO ADVISED THAT WHEN THE INTERNAL STRIFE WITHIN THE "FAMILY" BEGAN WITH "REBEL GROUP", THE LOYAL MEMBERS WERE PREPARED TO CONDUCT FULL SCALE WARFARE WITH "REBEL GROUP." BILL STATED "THEY" WERE ARMED WITH GUNS, HANDGRENADES AND DYNAMITE IN PREPARATION FOR ALL OUT WAR BUT HIS FATHER SAID, "NO, WE MUST TRY TO SETTLE OUR DIFFERENCES WITHOUT BLOODSHED." BILL THEN REPLIED, "NOW SEE WHAT HAS HAPPENED, WE-RE NOBODY." BILL LIKENED THEIR SITUATION AS IT NOW EXISTS WITH THE PROFACI-CALLO SITUATION, HE STATED THE ONLY DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE TWO SITUATIONS IS THAT NO DEAD BODIES HAVE TURNED UP WITH RESPECT TO THE BONANNO SITUATION.

WHEN IT WAS POINTED OUT TO BILL THAT IN VIEW OF WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO HIS FATHER-S "FAMILY," HE SHOULD NOT FEEL OBLIGATED TO THE "REBEL GROUP," HE STATED HE DOES NOT FEEL HE SHOULD BE OBLIGATED TO "REBEL CAPTAINS," BUT EXPRESSED CONCERN FOR "SOLDIERS" UNDER "REBEL CAPTAINS." IT WAS POINTED OUT THAT IF THESE "SOLDIERS" WERE TRUE JOSEPH BONANNO "SOLDIERS," THEY WOULD NOT HAVE, UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, FOLLOWED THEIR "CAPTAIN" AWAY FROM HIS FATHER, JOSEPH BONANNO. BILL, TO A POINT, AGREED WITH THIS REASONING.

IT WAS ALSO POINTED OUT TO BILL THAT HE SHOULD NOT FEEL OBLIGATED TO THE OTHER NEW YORK "FAMILIES" BECAUSE OF WHAT THEY HAVE DONE TO HIS FATHER. BILL, IN A SENSE, ALSO AGREED TO THAT TYPE OF REASONING.

BILL ADVISED THAT SINCE TROUBLE IN "FAMILY" STARTED, HE HAS BEEN LIVING IN THREE SEPARATE LOCATIONS, QUEENS, LONG ISLAND AND IN WESTCHESTER COUNTY. HE WOULD NOT FURNISH EXACT LOCATION.

BONANNO WENT ON TO RELATE HIS FATHER-S POSITION IN CANADA AND MOTHER-S LOCATION IN NEW YORK CITY AND OTHER SITUATION. THESE WILL BE FURNISHED BUREAU AND INTERESTED OFFICES BY DETAILED AIRTEL.

CONCERNING HIS BOND SET AT TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS, BILL BONANNO REPLIED THAT CONTACTS HAVE BEEN MADE AND HE EXPECTS NEW YORK MONEY SOON FOR HIS RELEASE. [REDACTED]

64 JAN 13 1965

The above request is made for the following reason:

On 5/27 and 28/63, one week after [ ] reported an extensive meeting between ANGELO BRUNO, JOSEPH MAGLIOCCO and [ ] a meeting was held at the home of [ ] Surveillance by Bureau Agents of this meeting determined the following persons met:

ANGELO BRUNO
STEFANO MAGADDINO
SAM RANGATORE
PHILIP TESTA

Subsequent investigation of that meeting determined that MAGADDINO and RANGATORE traveled to Philadelphia via airplane under the names of "A. and J. LEONE." Subsequent to the meeting they departed the [ ] residence at 1:06 p.m., 5/28/63, via an automobile operated by PHIL TESTA. At 7:45 p.m. on 5/28/63, two persons departed the Newark, N. J., airport under the name of "A. LEONE," en route to Buffalo, N. Y.

The information furnished on 5/20/63 by [ ] has been reviewed and it is the definite impression of the Philadelphia Agents that the meeting which BRUNO had on 5/20/63 with MAGLIOCCO had nothing whatsoever to do with BRUNO's subsequent meeting on 5/27 and 28/63 with STEVE MAGADDINO.

The above, in light of other information developed by [ ] sources to the effect that the BONANNO controversy has been going on for several years, strongly suggests the possibility that the meeting on 5/27 and 28/63 between BRUNO and MAGADDINO was for the purpose of discussing JOSEPH BONANNO.

In view of the information reported by [ ] [ ] sources concerning the issuance of a directive by the Commission to the effect the "administration" of each Family be advised of their ruling concerning BONANNO and his family, it is urged that [ ] be subpoenaed.

[REDACTED]

Concerning [REDACTED] it is pointed out that while he is only a Soldato, he is nevertheless a most influential member of the Philadelphia Family. He is widely acquainted with most Commission members, and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] It is felt [REDACTED] would definitely confide in him concerning the BONANNO situation.

[REDACTED] and PHILIP TESTA were both present at [REDACTED] house on the occasion of STEVE MAGADDINO's visit on 5/27 and 28/63. In addition to this possibly highly significant visit, it is pointed out for New York that [REDACTED] and TESTA are respectively Sottocapo and Capodecina of the Philadelphia Family. [REDACTED] meets with BRUNO on an almost daily basis, and TESTA, since his recent release from jail, has been with BRUNO on an almost daily basis.

Re: Unsubs. (2), Joseph Bonanno - Victim

With regard to questions prepared by the Milwaukee Office, and set forth in reMilairtel, for possible grand jury examination of [REDACTED]

b3

While the use of data from sensitive sources is of value in forming the basis for certain key questions to be asked La Cosa Nostra leaders involved in the Bonanno dispute, New York is to insure that the questions are formulated in such a manner that will avoid the divulgement of detail which could have a seriously adverse effect on the future productivity of highly sensitive sources.

b3

b5

NOTE: Offices ~~questioning~~ covering La Cosa Nostra leaders involved in the dispute which has resulted in Joseph Bonanno's expulsion from the "commission" and the ostracism of his entire La Cosa Nostra "family," have prepared a list of prospective questions for use in FGJ examination of [REDACTED]. The instructions set forth in the body of this airtel come as a result of a review of all questions submitted by the interested offices, and it is believed in those instances cited that the Bureau's best interests will be better served by eliminating certain leading questions which could possibly have an adverse effect on the future productivity of our highly sensitive sources covering these La Cosa Nostra leaders in the various offices.

FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI, Boss of Milwaukee Family of LCN

Background of Relationship with JOSEPH BONANNO

In 1962 FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI was appointed boss of the Milwaukee family of LCN by SAM GIANCANA, boss of the Chicago family. BALISTRIERI replaced his father-in-law, JOHN ALIOTO, who is a former boss.

For the past one and a half years BALISTRIERI has, through JOHN DI BELLA and others, sent three or four messages to JOSEPH BONANNO with whom he wished to discuss an interest BALISTRIERI felt that Milwaukee family should have in the Grande Cheese Company at Fond du Lac, Wis. JOHN DI BELLA reportedly was associated with JOSEPH BONANNO in the operation of this company. JOHN DI BELLA died in a hospital at Fond du Lac, Wisconsin September 1, 1964.

Prior to DI BELLA's death BALISTRIERI had several meetings with JOHN DI BELLA in an unsuccessful effort to contact BONANNO. BALISTRIERI kept SAM GIANCANA of Chicago apprised of developments of his negotiations.

MI 92-477

In the summer or fall of 1964 JOSEPH BONANNO came to Milwaukee, Wisconsin where he contacted JOHN ALIOTO, former boss and father-in-law of BALISTRIERI and through him set up a meeting with FRANK BALISTRIERI at the home of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] On the pretense of being too tired, JOSEPH BONANNO refused to discuss matters with BALISTRIERI and suggested their conference be deferred to some other time.

BALISTRIERI reported his contact with BONANNO to SAM GIANCANA who was of the opinion that BALISTRIERI should have forced BONANNO to discuss the situation, stating that BALISTRIERI let BONANNO show his power over BALISTRIERI.

Following the disappearance of BONANNO, BALISTRIERI discussed with other leaders of the Milwaukee family the poor treatment he had received from both JOHN DI BELLA and BONANNO, made reference to BONANNO's ambition to have great power referring to borgattas presumably controlled by BONANNO, in Montreal, Canada and Tucson, Arizona. BALISTRIERI said BONANNO was trying to impress somebody with how powerful he was but BALISTRIERI had good information that one does not "monkey around" with the New York families or with the borgattas of PROFACI or MAGGADINO.

BALISTRIERI stated that at the time he met BONANNO in Milwaukee BONANNO was already on his way out. BALISTRIERI stated BONANNO was a good talker and may still be alive but indicated by his manner of speaking that he thought not, and stated verbally that he had some information that the others did not know. BALISTRIERI stated that as a result of recent developments he now had jurisdiction over the Grande Cheese Co. and anyone who wanted to do business in Wisconsin hereafter had to come through Milwaukee, even if it were SAM GIANCANA himself. He stated his objective now is to make money for the Milwaukee family through the Grande Cheese Company.

In addition to reporting the status of his negotiations to SAM GIANCANA, BALISTRIERI reportedly had been in frequent contact with [REDACTED] of the Chicago family who is reportedly an intermediary for SAM GIANCANA. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] had also in the past been in contact with JOHN DI BELLA reporting back to FRANK BALISTRIERI. [REDACTED] is reportedly the current operator of the Grande Cheese Company.

The Buffalo Division furnished information to Detroit on 2/8/62, that STEVE MAGADDINO and [redacted] were coming to Detroit on that day by train to see an unknown person named [redacted] on a matter that could not be discussed over the telephone. A surveillance was made and MAGADDINO and [redacted] were met and taken to the home of a relative named [redacted] arriving in Detroit at approximately 10:15 PM. Surveillance was made on the residence of JOSEPH ZERILLI and Agents observed [redacted] drive into his driveway at 12:32 AM on 2/8/62, and also observed JOSEPH ZERILLI leaving the car of [redacted] and enter his home at 12:38 AM., 2/9/62. MAGADDINO and [redacted] left by train to return to Buffalo the afternoon of 2/9/62, without ever meeting ZERILLI, or leaving the residence of [redacted] until he left for the train.

On the afternoon of 12/29/64, [redacted] of the Intelligence Unit of the Tucson PD was passing the Spanish Trail Motel, which is located just outside the City of Tucson in South Tucson. He observed an individual whom he thought might possibly be identical with SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO. He immediately reported this information to [redacted] who was at the time with SA's [redacted].

SA's [redacted] accompanied by [redacted] immediately proceeded to the Spanish Trail Motel, and other agents in the Tucson area responded to an urgent call by SA [redacted] including SA [redacted]. Upon arrival at the motel, it was determined that BONANNO was not registered. SA's [redacted] along with the officers, proceeded to a room which from the registration card indicated it might be that of BONANNO. SA [redacted] observed two individuals enter the barber shop, one of whom he thought might be BONANNO. He immediately contacted SA's [redacted] who together with the officers, immediately went to the barber shop where BONANNO was recognized and was placed under arrest.

The successful location and apprehension of BONANNO is due to the swift action taken by SA's [redacted] and the alertness on the part of SA [redacted] in recognizing BONANNO in the barber shop. The apprehension was handled with immediate dispatch which is necessary in a situation such as this because of the elusiveness of BONANNO. The apprehension was handled entirely without incident. It was also due to the splendid and outstanding cooperation on the part of Chief GARMIRE and [redacted]. Without their assistance and alertness on the part of [redacted] the apprehension might not have been effected so promptly.

It is recommended that SA's [redacted] be commended for their outstanding performance in this instance.

It is also recommended that Chief GARMIRE, [redacted] be individually commended for their outstanding cooperation and assistance in the location and apprehension of BONANNO. Indices of the Phoenix office contain no derogatory information concerning any of the officers named.

ADDENDUM BY SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

TJE:cae 1/8/65

The location and arrest of Salvatore V. Bonanno came as a result of information from the Tucson Police Department and it appears that the performance of the above-named Special Agents, though efficient, entailed nothing more than would be expected of them under these circumstances and therefore not of a nature requiring commendation. It is believed that a letter to Tucson Police Chief Garmire mentioning the other two officers therein would suffice rather than individual letters for each of the three police officers named.

Details:

From the outset of this investigation, close relatives, friends, and acquaintances of JOSEPH BONANNO, whose names appear later in this report, in the Tucson and Phoenix, Arizona, areas were contacted more than once and all denied having received any information whatsoever concerning the fate or whereabouts of JOSEPH BONANNO since he was reported to have been kidnapped on or about October 21, 1964.

On October 23, 1964, Tucson, Arizona, Chief of Police BERNARD L. GARMIRE (NA) stated he had received numerous telephone calls from news media in the New York City area, as well as local law enforcement representatives in that area, requesting information from the Tucson Police Department relative to the whereabouts of Mrs. JOSEPH BONANNO and SALVATORE V. BONANNO. Chief GARMIRE said many of these inquiries were made for the expressed reason as given by the callers that the rumors were current in New York that Mrs. JOSEPH BONANNO and SALVATORE V. BONANNO had both returned to Tucson, Arizona.

Chief GARMIRE said no reports had been received by his department, and that members of the Intelligence Unit of that department had checked the BONANNO residence and found it was still unoccupied, and that these rumors were apparently not well founded.

In view of the possibility of JOSEPH BONANNO or someone in his behalf having been in touch with [redacted] the [redacted] [redacted] was contacted on October 29, 1964, by SA [redacted] relative to the type of records kept by her on long distance telephone calls, both incoming and outgoing. She advised that she keeps records of outgoing long distance telephone calls, but does not record any incoming calls.

[redacted] of Paulos' Steak and Chop House, East Speedway, Tucson, Arizona, advised that he knows JOSEPH BONANNO as a former customer of his, and is also acquainted with [redacted] and other members of the latter's law firm, all of whom are customers at Paulos'. [redacted] said he could not, with any degree of accuracy, recall any specific dates that [redacted] or other members of his firm would have been in the place eating, inasmuch as they are in there frequently. He said it is not uncommon for customers to receive telephone calls, and no one usually pays any attention.

Inquiry among the waitresses who have worked at Paulos' for many years, and are also acquainted with the persons mentioned above, revealed that they too pay no attention to any specific dates that any of these persons have eaten in the supper club and have paid no particular attention to these persons or any others receiving telephone calls while dining at the supper club.

JOSEPH C. BONANNO, JR., was interviewed by SA [redacted] on October 29, 1964, at 6331 East Calle del Paisano, Phoenix, Arizona, where he is living alone. BONANNO advised he spent most of last summer in New York City, where he claims he stayed with his brother BILL. He stated he returned to Phoenix alone September 13, 1964, and is presently enrolled in Phoenix College. BONANNO also stated he was going to work on October 30, 1964, at a service station located at 32nd Street and East Indian School Road, Phoenix.

BONANNO claimed he has no knowledge concerning his father's disappearance other than that which he has seen in the press, and he has no idea as to the whereabouts of either his father or mother. He said he has called [redacted] as well as [redacted] in [redacted]. He stated his relatives all profess no knowledge regarding the location of his parents, although he said he pleaded with [redacted] to have his mother contacted. He also said, however, none of his relatives will discuss anything on the telephone. He last spoke with [redacted] on October 26, 1964, on the telephone, at which time he said [redacted] had laryngitis so bad she said she could not talk to him and hung up.

KFJ:dsn

[redacted] BONANNO said he has also tried to call [redacted] on several occasions in Tucson since his father's disappearance, but has been unable to contact him. He said his sole source of income is money which he receives from [redacted] and he is practically broke at this time because of his inability to contact him. BONANNO said all the bills pertaining to the residence where he lives are sent to [redacted] for payment. He said this house still belongs to his brother BILL.

b6

BONANNO further claimed he knows absolutely nothing of his father's business interests, and that these matters were never discussed in his presence. He said his father attempted to raise him in the European method, and was always extremely strict with him, not hesitating to strike him at the slightest provocation. As a result of this, BONANNO admitted he has gotten a little wild since being "on his own." He also said that because of his father's attitude toward him, he has been closer to his brother BILL than his father and that BILL has always treated him much better than his father.

Contact with the Registrar's Office of Phoenix College on October 29, 1964, reflected JOSEPH C. BONANNO, JR., is enrolled as a student at the Camelback Road Extension Branch of this college. College records reflect he is listed on the rolls as JOSEPH CHARLES BONANNO, JR., and his parents as JOSEPH and FAY BONANNO, 1847 East Elm Street, Tucson, Arizona.

On December 11, 1964, attorney [ ] again talked with SA [ ] at which time he advised that around 2:00 p.m. that date, he had received a telephone call from SALVATORE V. [ ] advised with reference to the Phoenix Title and Trust Company check payable to SALVATORE [ ] BONANNO in the amount of $3,265.34, which [ ] said previously he was keeping for attorney's fees, he indicated that he will be able to obtain the endorsements of the payees when he sees SALVATORE BONANNO, which he expected to do in the not too distant future.

With reference to the disposition [ ] makes regularly from the rental money he receives from the business property on West Congress Street, reported in the past as property owned by SALVATORE [ ] BONANNO, the title of which has in recent years been in the name of R. and B. [ ] said the total monthly rental from the tenants is $540.00.

[ ] turned the pages individually of this diary while making his explanations, holding same within the view of the interviewing Agent.

b7C

[ ] had one of the girls in his office give to him all of the long distance calls charged to BONANNO's account, which again do not mean that [ ] or any other attorney in the firm spoke with BONANNO in person, but means rather the telephone calls were in connection with BONANNO's business. The calls are set out as follows:

June 15, 1964 - to New York, $5.19

June 26, 1964 - to Canada, $17.65

July 13, 1964 - to Canada, $13.97

made by Attorney [ ]

[ ] said that their records do not contain any references to the identity of the person with whom they spoke on these various long distance calls, but he added that those to Canada were obviously not with JOSEPH BONANNO because the latter was incarcerated in a Canadian jail at the time and could not have been talking on long distance with [ ]

[redacted] advised she has observed no one around the BONANNO residence for many months. She said the man who formerly did the yard work regularly has not been observed for quite some time doing anything around the place. She said sometime in October, 1964, [redacted] said he thought he had observed a light one night in the bedroom at the northwest corner of the house, but he did not check on the matter, and saw no one around the place. She said she has observed recently that something must be broken on the air conditioning unit compressor at the west wall of the BONANNO residence because there is water leaking from this unit.

The following investigation was conducted at [redacted] on December 3, 1964, by SA [redacted]

JOSEPH BONANNO, JR., was again interviewed on December 3, 1964. He continues to reside in the home owned by his brother BILL, at 6331 East Calle del Bisano, Phoenix.

BONANNO, JR., said he has now dropped out of Phoenix College. He gave as his reason for this his arrest on an assault charge by the Scottsdale, Arizona, Police Department. He said his preliminary hearing on this charge was set for December 1, 1964, but was again postponed due to his attorney being tied up on another case. It will be reset for hearing in approximately three weeks.

BONANNO, JR., claimed he has not seen his father since about two days prior to his, JOE, JR.'s, departing New York for Phoenix last September. On this occasion he said he and BILL went to an attorney's office in downtown Manhattan where he saw his father. He professed not to recall the name of this attorney, but said he was a tall grey-haired man, and he believed his name was MALONEY. He denied having any knowledge that his father was in Tucson during the first part of October, 1964. He said if his father was there, he had no knowledge of his visit, nor did he have any contact with him. He said he was in Tucson himself on the weekend following Thanksgiving when he went there with a friend to attend a wedding. While in Tucson, he said he stayed in his parents' home to which he has a key. While in Tucson on this occasion, he said he went to [redacted] office and spoke with him for only a few minutes. He said he asked [redacted] if there was anything new about his father and [redacted] said there was not.

He said [redacted] is now working as a [redacted] for [redacted] in [redacted]

BONANNO, JR., said he plans to attempt to locate his mother by telephone during the coming week. He said the only way he knows to try to locate her is to call [redacted] who is very close to his mother and if anyone knows where his mother is, it would be her. He said, however, that none of his relatives will say anything over the telephone, [redacted] said he thinks it has been a couple of years since he has seen either of these men. He said he does not look after the BONANNO residence in Tucson when the BONANNO family are out of town nor have they ever asked him to do anything for them in this regard. [redacted] also said the BONANNOS have never requested him to pick up mail delivered to their residence nor does he have any information as to the identity of anyone who may be doing this for the BONANNO family.

[redacted] said that with reference to a recent pay-off by the Phoenix Title and Trust Company of Tucson on a contract for sale of real estate in which [redacted] had a 1/30th interest, Attorney [redacted] contacted him sometime around the middle of November, 1964 to ask if he would agree to a cash pay-off with a discount if the vendees would pay-off the balance due on the contract of sale. [redacted] said he agreed and on or about November 16, 1964 he received a check from the above Title Company for something over $1,600.00 for his 1/30th interest. He said this interest arose from his having agreed originally when the contract of sale was negotiated that his brokerage fee could be paid off in installments each year as the annual payments were made on the contract. Mr. PETER SCIORTINO, 4648 East Speedway Boulevard, advised that he has been in the bakery business all his life, first in New York, then for a four-month period during World War II in San Diego, and presently in Tucson, Arizona. He contended that he is presently 62 years of age and was born in New York City, New York, and departed New York City at the age of two for Sicily, Italy, where he resided with his parents until the age of 13. Further, he advised that he left Sicily at age 13 when he returned to the New York area and resided in Manhattan until he was 27 years of age. According to SCIORTINO, he left Manhattan at the age of 27 and resided in Brooklyn, New York, until he was 55 years of age; at which time he moved to Tucson, Arizona, on the specific orders of his doctor in view of a serious sinus condition. SCIORTINO maintained that he previously owned and operated bakery shops both in Manhattan and Brooklyn, New York. He further advised that he leased a bakery shop in the San Diego area in approximately 1944 for a four-month period.

SCIORTINO went on to relate that he first met JOSEPH BONANNO approximately 20 years ago when they resided in the same neighborhood together in the Brooklyn, New York, area.

SCIORTINO contended that when he moved to Tucson, he opened a small bakery in the same block that his current shop is located, and that about two and one-half years ago, he had aspirations of enlarging his business and made mention of this to BONANNO, who in turn loaned him $5,000 for this purpose. SCIORTINO averred that immediately after he received this loan, he had a new building designed to his specifications built, and that a business corporation was formed known as the Italian Bakery and Delicatessen, Incorporated, 4648 East Speedway Boulevard, Tucson, with himself as President and BONANNO as Secretary. He admitted borrowing additional money from BONANNO for business purposes on different occasions amounting to $1,000 or $2,000 subsequent to the initial loan of $5,000.

According to SCIORTINO, he has not paid any of the money back borrowed from BONANNO to date. However, immediately subsequent to the receipt of the initial loan and until October 23, 1964, he has paid BONANNO various amounts of money for services performed as a salesman in sending and/or referring business to the bakery. SCIORTINO stated that all the payments for these services were made in cash and that he would make a check out for a certain amount on a company check made payable to himself which he in turn would cash at the bakery and set aside for payment to BONANNO. SCIORTINO maintained that BONANNO would never pick up the cash himself, rather it was picked up almost exclusively by his son, JOSEPH CHARLES BONANNO, JR. He stated that the last time he had any money available for BONANNO was on October 23, 1964, when he had $49.02, which he gave to [redacted] as he could not locate either JOSEPH BONANNO or his son, JOE, JR., for payment.

SAS [redacted]

[redacted] proceeded to the Spanish Trail Motel, 305 East Benson Highway, Tucson, after receiving information that BILL BONANNO was reported to have been seen there by Tucson Police Department [redacted] and Tucson Police Department [redacted] accompanied Agents [redacted] to the above motel. BONANNO was located in the barber shop which is in a building immediately adjacent to the west of the Spanish Trail Motel Restaurant. He was arrested by SA [redacted] who advised BONANNO he was under arrest and the reason being [redacted]

[redacted] BONANNO's arrest was at approximately 4:35 p.m. He was taken immediately to the office of U. S. Commissioner THOMAS H. MC KAY in the Sandoval Building in Tucson. After the lapse of a short time, Commissioner MC KAY arrived at this office and heard the matter. He set bond at $25,000.00 and remanded BONANNO to the custody of the U. S. At the time of the arrest, Agents [redacted] were in the immediate area of the barber shop and took part as did the above local officers. The other Agents were nearby in the area.

While waiting at the office of the U. S. Commissioner, BONANNO used the telephone and called Attorney [redacted] [redacted] asked to speak with SA [redacted] and [redacted] advised him the nature of the process outstanding.

Date 1/8/65

SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO was interviewed at the Pima County Jail, Tucson, after he had appeared before the U. S. Commissioner THOMAS H. MC KAY. He was told at the outset that he did not have to make any statement and that whatever he said could be used later in a court of law against him, also that he had the right to the counsel of an attorney.

BONANNO said he had left the New York area early in the morning of December 27, 1964 by auto, accompanied by [redacted] and they arrived in Tucson early in the morning of December 29, 1964. He said they traveled in his, BONANNO's, car, a 1964 green Cadillac bearing New Jersey license IOL 271 which he said is registered to the World Wide Car Rental Company. BONANNO said he had understood that his Tucson attorney was supposed to have contacted the Federal authorities in Tucson to arrange for BONANNO to accompany him to the office of the U. S. Attorney in Tucson, [redacted] [redacted] He said this had been arranged through his New York attorney with some attorney in the Department of Justice in New York.

He said he did not contact his New York Attorney directly in this regard but had an intermediary handle the matter. He would not give the name of the intermediary neither did he mention the name of the New York Attorney who had handled the matter. He said the plan was that he would then [redacted]

BONANNO said WILLIAM POWER MALONEY is not his attorney. He said the newspaper accounts of BILL's telephone call to MALONEY were not accurate and apparently when he talked with MALONEY the latter was so intent on repeatedly cautioning BILL to be careful what he said over the telephone that he, MALONEY, never understood clearly the message BILL was trying to relate. BONANNO said he did not tell MALONEY what the newspapers attributed to him.

BONANNO said his attorneys in New York are [ ] telephone [ ] and (first name unknown) [ ] (phonetic). He explained the reason he does not employ the same attorneys as his father is that their interests might conflict and attorneys cannot represent conflicting interests.

He said he does not employ [ ] in [ ] as his attorney for the same reason.

BONANNO said he has not seen his uncle FRANK LUBRUZZO for two or three months and knows nothing about his whereabouts. He would not discuss JOHNNY BURNS.

BILL said, with reference to the reported kidnapping of his father, that it was not a hoax. He said there were two groups fighting and a third group actually kidnapped his father for the purpose of removing from the scene of the fighting the "rallying point".

BONANNO would not furnish any specific addresses in the New York area where he has been staying but stated that at no time was he very far away from midtown. He said he was not far away from [ ] on Christmas Day but spent Christmas Eve and Christmas Day alone.

BONANNO said that since [ ] his Tucson Attorney, has not yet returned from his trip back east, it may take a little time to get together the money for a bail bond. He said there are certain funds available which can be handled when [ ] returns. He also indicated that if he could get out of jail for just an hour he could raise the money to get a bail bond. At one time BONANNO indicated he could get some money from the west coast for a bail bond. He did not clarify the question of whether he meant the entire amount of the $25,000.00 bond set by the U. S. Commissioner.

BONANNO made it clear that [ ] knows nothing about his business affairs and that his mother knows nothing about the affairs of his father.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 1/4/65

[redacted] was interviewed in Room 44, Spanish Trail Motel, and advised that he left New York driving a 1964 Cadillac with SALVATORE (BILL) BONANNO at approximately 2:30 AM, December 28, 1964, arriving in Tucson, Arizona between 3:00 AM and 3:30 AM, December 29, 1964. [redacted] averred that they drove straight through, stopping only for meals, gas, and for BONANNO's small black and brown terrier-type dog. [redacted] maintained that neither BONANNO nor he made any telephone calls or stopped to see anyone while enroute.

He contended that their trip took them through Illinois, Oklahoma, and New Mexico and that upon their arrival he registered at the Spanish Trail Motel using the name of JAMES ROSSI. According to [redacted] BONANNO did not appear at the office of the motel when he signed the register; rather, he waited outside.

[redacted] went on to advise that from the time of their arrival in Tucson and up to the time of the arrest he left the motel room on two occasions, once to pick up some personal items and again to have his hair cut. He indicated that he has not made any telephone calls since his arrival in Tucson. [redacted] claimed that he could not recall BONANNO leaving the motel room at any time subsequent to their arrival, except for a hair cut and that he has not observed BONANNO to make any telephone calls while in Tucson. He also stated that they have not received any personal visits.

[redacted] stated that he first met BONANNO in New York at a social gathering about a year ago. He indicated that during this year he has met with BONANNO on approximately three (3) occasions, the last time prior to their trip to Tucson during the early part of November, 1964. According to [redacted] he was shopping for a birthday gift for his wife at a jewelry store on 46th Street in New York when he observed BONANNO on the corner and they went to a bar and had a drink, then departed company.

He claimed that the Saturday before their departure he was contacted by a mutual friend, whom he refused to identify, and requested to accompany BONANNO to Tucson. [ ] later changed his story, stating that he was actually contacted by BONANNO himself the day before their departure and asked to accompany him.

[ ] contended that he does not know BONANNO's wife or his father, JOSEPH BONANNO. Further, that he knows no more about the JOSEPH BONANNO situation other than what he has read in the newspapers.

The letters and figures which are underlined are questionable but the most likely possibilities have been set forth above.

No indented writing of value was noted on Q3.

Because of the lack of sufficient comparable material, a definite conclusion was not reached as to whether the hand printing on Qc1 was prepared by JOSEPH BONANNO, whose known handwriting specimens consist of Kc1, K2 and K4 in the case captioned "Joseph Bonanno, aka Anti-Racketeering." It is to be noted that the questioned material is hand printed while almost all of the known material is handwritten.

Specimens Q2 and Q3 are returned to New York with copies of this report. Representative photographs of the indented writing on Q2 have been made. Qc1 is retained in the files of the Bureau.

The Phoenix Division has a [redacted] source

[redacted] As the Bureau and New York Division have been advised previously, this residence at [redacted] is presently occupied by JOSEPH BONANNO, JR.

BONANNO, JR. has been and continues to be a source of considerable concern and annoyance to the neighbors in his area. His home is constantly frequented by numerous young men and girls of the "hoodlum" type. They are for the most part interested in drag racing and are continuously racing through the area at all hours of the night causing considerable noise and commotion. In addition to this, young girls are observed coming and going from the house at all hours. All this has been reported on numerous occasions to the Phoenix PD by neighbors.

[redacted]
[redacted] He advised on 1/23/65 that one of the associates of BONANNO, JR. now is [redacted]

[redacted] The property was owned by JOHN DI BELLA and [redacted] purchased JOHN DI BELLA's share in 5/64. [redacted] stated he knew of no interest of JOE BONANNO in this property.

At no time did JOHN DI BELLA or any other individual have any interest in the business of [REDACTED] itself which was entirely controlled by [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that in 5/64 JOHN DI BELLA sold his interest in the building to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] after lengthy negotiations in the course of which DI BELLA held out for a substantial sum of money.
[REDACTED] acted as attorney for [REDACTED] [REDACTED] in closing the deal. [REDACTED] stated he has been a close friend of [REDACTED] since childhood and knew he also acted as attorney for JOHN DI BELLA and for the Grande Cheese Company but that no conflict of interest was involved since the only problem in the transaction was settling on a sum of money.

[REDACTED] stated that JOHN DI BELLA, who died in 9/64, was operator of the Grande Cheese Company in which JOE BONANNO's wife was reported to have a financial interest.
This company was operated by JOHN DI BELLA who before his death at times would visit [REDACTED] sometimes

Phoenix has determined through investigation in this matter that Joseph Bohanno, Jr., 19-year-old son of the subject,* is associating regularly with [REDACTED]

Investigation in the [redacted] neighborhood of the residence which Joseph Bonanno, Jr., is now occupying has indicated that this house is being frequented by a number of young men and girls at all hours of the day and night and that their activity is the source of growing concern and complaints from residents in that area. According to information developed by Phoenix, [redacted] is spending a great deal of time with Bonanno and on occasion apparently staying overnight at this house.

Phoenix has designated a lead for Los Angeles to interview [redacted] concerning [redacted] association with Joseph Bonanno, Jr., for possible assistance in this investigation. It is highly unlikely that [redacted] would have any information of value to the main issues of this investigation, or for that matter, that Joseph Bonanno, Jr., would even be aware of the exact whereabouts of his father. However, in view of [redacted] favorable relationship with the Los Angeles Office in the past and in consideration of his growing prominence in political circles in [redacted] in that he has been named as a strong possibility for candidacy for [redacted] it is believed he should be made aware of [redacted] association with Joseph Bonanno, Jr., in questionable activity in [redacted]

ACTION:

Attached for your approval is a teletype to Los Angeles instructing that they contact [ ] and make him aware of current association with Joseph Bonanno, Jr.

As you know, Bonanno is the center of heated controversy at the top level of La Cosa Nostra due to his intransigence in refusing to comply with demands of his "commission" associates with regard to the conduct of the affairs of his "family." Bonanno has been highly publicized during recent months as a result of his alleged abduction at gun point on a New York City street during the early morning hours of October 21, 1964, [redacted]

[redacted] Since that time, intensive investigation has been conducted to determine if there has been a violation of the Obstruction of Justice Statute in connection with Bonanno's disappearance. [redacted]

[redacted] has divulged that Gaspare DiGregorio, a veteran member of the Bonanno "family," who rebelled against Joseph Bonanno in the early stages of this controversy, will probably be made the "boss" of the Bonanno "family" following its reorganization. [redacted]

With regard to the alleged abduction, [redacted] stated that DiGregorio was the individual responsible for this incident.

DATE: 2/11/65

Enclosed are 21 latent fingerprint lifts, 74 photographs of these lifts, and 17 negatives of the photographs of the lifts.

The lifts and photographs were obtained by the NYO from Apartment [redacted]

This apartment was occupied by CHARLES JOSEPH BATTAGLIA, FBI #4733808, [redacted] SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO, FBI #988087D, FRANK LaBRUZZO, no FBI number but fingerprints submitted 8/28/42 by Captain of Port of New York #677046W, JOHN JOSEPH MORALES, FBI #4138047, [redacted] JOSEPH ZICARELLI, FBI #1107492, and possibly JOSEPH BONANNO, FBI #2534540, victim in above matter.

It is noted that the enclosures are contained in two envelopes, one bearing the names SAS [redacted] and [redacted] and the other bearing the names SAS [redacted] [redacted]. In both instances the numbers on the back of the photographs correspond with the numbers on the lifts, which were taken by agents.

On some of the photographs of latent fingerprints it was impossible to identify them due to the surface on which the latent appeared and in some instances it was also impossible to photograph the latent print because of the nature of the surface on which the latent appeared.

The Latent Fingerprint Section is requested to compare the lifts and photographs enclosed with the fingerprints of the above listed individuals. If prints of victim JOSEPH BONANNO are determined to be among those developed, this could substantially assist in the development of an OOJ - CONSPIRACY violation. In the event none of the latent fingerprints are identical to the fingerprints of the persons set forth above, the enclosures may be destroyed by the Laboratory.

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (72-1629)

DATE: 2/8/65

FROM : SAC, PHOENIX (92-534) P

SUBJECT: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS (2);
JOSEPH BONANNO - VICTIM
OOJ - CONSPIRACY

OO: New York City

As the Bureau has been previously advised, Phoenix has interviewed JOSEPH BONANNO, JR., on several occasions. During these interviews, he has always exhibited a very courteous attitude while still maintaining he knows nothing concerning the whereabouts of his father. Also, during these interviews, BONANNO, JR., has repeatedly expressed more affection and respect for his brother BILL than for his father.

From investigation conducted by Phoenix recently, it appears that BONANNO, JR., is in financial straits. He was arrested again by the Scottsdale, Arizona, PD on 2/4/65 for driving on an expired license, and in addition has an assault - felony charge still pending against him in Scottsdale. It is also known that he is overdrawn at the Bank of Scottsdale.

BONANNO, JR., is devoting most of his time to his pursuit of stock car racing and has apparently exhausted every cent he can get his hands on in modifying an automobile which he drives in local events. In view of this, some financial assistance at this point might be even more attractive to him.

Bureau authority is therefore requested to offer BONANNO, JR., $5,000.00 for information leading directly to the location of his father, on a C.O.D. basis.

Although Phoenix has no information that BONANNO, JR., has information regarding his father's location, nor is it known that he could obtain this if he wanted to, Phoenix would like to be in a position to offer him some financial reimbursement if during contacts with him it would appear appropriate or prudent to do so.

Re Phoenix airtel to Albuquerque, 2/2/65.

AT TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES, NEW MEXICO:The following inquiries were made by SA [redacted] and SA [redacted] on 2/5/65:

[redacted] mechanic, [redacted] recalled receiving a telephone call from a fat man at the Black Range Motel around 8:30 to 9:00 a.m., Monday, February 1, 1965, for emergency service. [redacted] went to the Black Range Motel where he met a man whom he identified as CHARLES JOSEPH BATTAGLIA, Jr., by photograph. There he found CHARLES JOSEPH BATTAGLIA, Jr. had car trouble with a 1964 white Grand Prix Pontiac with Arizona license [redacted] (remainder of numbers not recalled.)

He returned the car to [redacted] with CHARLES JOSEPH BATTAGLIA, Jr., a woman assumed to be his wife, and two children. The car was found to have a loose alternator belt, a bad alternator, and the battery required charging, and the battery cables were cleaned. The total bill was nominal, and he was not able to identify the bill in his papers, since it would have been a cash ticket for only a few dollars. CHARLES JOSEPH BATTAGLIA, Jr., said something about going to Tucson, and remarked that he would have the alternator repaired later. This was the extent of his contact with CHARLES JOSEPH BATTAGLIA, Jr.

b3
b6

[REDACTED] advised SAS [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] on 11/2/64 that he had not made specific inquiry regarding the disappearance of JOSEPH BONANNO, but that the following information had come to him through [REDACTED]. He could not specifically attribute this information to any one individual nor was he possessed of additional details:

b6
b7D

It is generally rumored [REDACTED] [REDACTED] that the attorneys who were with BONANNO at the time of his disappearance are not furnishing all of the information in their possession to law enforcement agencies. There is indication that these attorneys were in some respect involved in the disappearance of BONANNO. Rumor has it that while suspicion falls particularly on the attorney from Arizona, the attorney from New York is also possessed of considerable information which he is allegedly withholding.

b7D

[REDACTED] was pressed for additional details regarding the foregoing information but advised that he had not been in a position to pump any of the individuals who had been instrumental in providing him with said information. He added that he will be alert to any additional information coming to his attention regarding this disappearance.

b7D

[REDACTED] on 11/3/64 advised SA [REDACTED] that JOSEPH BONANNO is "above water". Informant stated that members of the BONANNO "family" still are not positive as to actually what happened to their "boss" but feel that he is not "gone".

b6

ADMINISTRATIVE (CONT'D)

Information previously has been set forth reflecting information furnished by BU 280-C* to the effect that JOSEPH BONANNO was taken across the Prison Bridge (Queensboro 59th Street Bridge) to a boat tied up at a pier located nearby.

Bureau agents, on 11/5/64, and dates thereafter, conducted a thorough search of the Queens Waterfront district from Borden Avenue to Berrian Boulevard, in an effort to locate a boat anchorage which may have been used by the alleged abductors of BONANNO. This search disclosed that there were only two public wharfs plus several miles of industrial wharfs in this area. Bureau agents located only one pleasure craft, which is owned by [redacted] and this craft is presently undergoing repairs.

b7C

It is noted this search by Bureau agents also encompassed the vicinity of the Queensboro Bridge (referred to in criminal circles as the Prison Bridge), the Queens Midtown Tunnel and the Triboro Bridge, along the waterfront known as the East Channel of the East River.

This search failed to reveal any possible craft that was used in the alleged abduction of BONANNO.

[redacted] advised SAS [redacted] on 10/28/64, that [redacted] an individual who has a reputation of being an associate of [redacted] had been advised that [redacted] had fingered JOE BONANNO in the recent kidnapping. According to information available to [redacted] had the contract in this kidnapping.

b6
b7D

[redacted] advised SA [redacted] on 10/30/64, [redacted] that the word around the street in [redacted] regarding the disappearance of JOSEPH BONANNO is that BONANNO came to New York to iron out some differences with the GAMBINOS; BONANNO was actually being set up by his lawyer; that he was killed and the body dropped in Long Island City.

[redacted] advised SA [redacted] that [redacted] [redacted] he is of the opinion that the kidnapping of JOE BONANNO is a complete hoax. He further bases this on a conversation he overheard, wherein a fellow known to him as [redacted] mentioned that JOE BONANNO was okay. Informant stated that it is his understanding that [redacted]

b6
b7
b7D

NY 3986-C* advised on 11/9/64, that THOMAS EBOLI,
"acting boss", GENOVESE "family", briefly discussed BONANNO matter with MICHAEL GENOVESE, brother of VITO GENOVESE. EBOLI felt BONANNO situation still being mishandled by representatives of the "Commission". Apparently, CARLO GAMBINO, "boss" of the GAMBINO "family", has been in contact with some individuals in the BONANNO "family", but did not ask the right questions of these individuals.

EBOLI stated that he heard that [redacted] a missing
"caporegima", BONANNO "family", is hanging out in a Yonkers, NY bar owned by [redacted]
[redacted] might possibly be identical to [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] according to EBOLI's source, frequents this bar nightly, accompanied by [redacted] and female companions.

EBOLI commented to GENOVESE that "being these guys are around, [redacted] is one of the important ones that they (the "Commission") should be talking to". This remark is believed to be in the same vein as EBOLI's opening remark that they (the "Commission") are mishandling the whole BONANNO matter.

EBOLI concluded this topic of conversation stating, "Now these guys ought to send for these guys. You got to make an appearance over here", meaning the "Commission" members should call [redacted] before them and ask certain questions that EBOLI had previously suggested if they sincerely wanted to know what happened to BONANNO.

BS 837-C* advised on 11/10/64, that RAYMOND L. S.
PATRIARCA was in discussion with one [redacted] indicated that he had been interviewed by the FBI and questioned about the disappearance of JOE BONANNO. PATRIARCA then mentioned that he got word from New York that BONANNO went away by himself.

[redacted] advised SA [redacted] on 10/29/64 and 11/5/64, that he had no positive information regarding the whereabouts of JOE BONANNO. He advised that any information available is merely conjecture on the part of the present members of the BONANNO "family". He stated the old line members of this "family" do not believe and will not believe that their "boss" has been "planted".

b6
b7C
b7D

Informant advised that the expression being used among the members of the BONANNO "family" is "he is above water". He stated this, in effect, means that they believe that he is still alive.

Informant advised that JOE BONANNO was in serious trouble with the "Commission" in that word had leaked out that he had contemplated to "rub out" TOMMY LUCHESE and CARLO GAMBINO. It was also due to the fact that BONANNO wanted to take over the narcotics racket in this area and be the number one kingpin.

Informant stated that in addition to the disappearance of JOSEPH BONANNO, [redacted] and FRANK LA BRUZZO have been missing since the time of JOE's abduction. He advised, however, that one [redacted], who is close to [redacted] has been seen in the recent past. He further advised that BONANNO's son, BILL BONANNO, was reportedly in the NYC area the last week of October, 1964.

He further stated that [redacted] (ph) and all the "underbosses" are meeting later this week to see what they want to do with the rest of BONANNO's "family".

b6
b7C

PATRIARCA made the comment that BONANNO put a great act on in front of the lawyers, but "did put them on the spot". He indicated that the lawyers knew nothing concerning the alleged kidnaping.

SAS of the FBI, NYO, in view of information furnished by BS 837-C*, furnished physical coverage to [redacted] a "caporegima" in the JOSEPH BONANNO "family" of La Cosa Nostra, and [redacted] "caporegima", BONANNO "family" from 11/20/64 through 11/22/64; however, no pertinent information was developed with respect to a proposed meeting.

[redacted] advised SA [redacted] on 11/13/64, that he was in the company of [redacted] and four other unknown male Italians on the evening of [redacted]. These individuals were congregated in [redacted]. BONANNO's name was brought up during a general conversation and [redacted] commented, "Don't worry about Joe, he's okay". BS 837-C* advised on 11/25/64, that PATRIARCA advised [REDACTED] from Boston, Massachusetts, after being asked by [REDACTED] as to what happened to BONANNO, that JOE BONANNO "went away". PATRIARCA replied that after he sent [REDACTED] to apparently find out what the situation was in regards to BONANNO, he also sent word to New York to find out. The kid from New York came in and told him that he went away by himself. PATRIARCA guessed that the reason BONANNO went away by himself was that they threw him out of the "Commission" in addition to not wanting to appear before the Grand Jury.

Informant stated that JOSEPH BONANNO was not in Tucson, Arizona at the time and he believed BONANNO was currently in Upstate New York, his exact whereabouts unknown.

Informant felt that now would be a good time for the FBI to approach JOSEPH BONANNO to make a deal with him. The informant expressed the opinion that BONANNO has a very short time to live and one week might be too late to contact him to negotiate a deal.

NK 2461-C* advised on 12/31/64, that SAMUEL RIZZO DE CAVALCANTE met with JOSEPH ZICARELLI, aka Joe Bayonne, today. ZICARELLI told DE CAVALCANTE of BONANNO "family" meeting he attended the evening of 12/29/64 in New York. Attending this meeting were a committee of BONANNO "family" appointed by the "Commission" to run the "family", including [redacted] and some 30 members of the BONANNO "family". GASPARINO took ZICARELLI upstairs from the others at one point and told him that it had been suggested [redacted] be killed because of his reluctance to return his "regime" to the BONANNO "family" and "Commission's" recognition. ZICARELLI said that this should not be done as [redacted] is suffering from a sense of mistaken loyalty. The committee decided to give [redacted] until 1/8/65 to develop the proper attitude or be "thrown out" of the BONANNO "family". ZICARELLI is to see [redacted] on 12/30/64 and attempt to correct his attitude. ZICARELLI said he would "kill him" if [redacted] continues his present attitude. The consensus of opinion among the BONANNO "family" members is that BILL BONANNO acted like a "cowboy" and tried to run the "family" like a "wild west show". BILL BONANNO is thought to be "sick" or "immature" by BONANNO "family" members.

JOHNNY BURNS (JOHN MORALES) was the only BONANNO "family" member invited who did not attend the meeting. The committee and most of those present viewed his non-attendance as serious. most instances when the "Commission" orders a "hit", the victim is usually "hit" by his closest friend. ZICARELLI told DE CAVALCANTE that JOSEPH BONANNO and the rest, BILL BONANNO, MORALES, LA BRUZZO, etc., have agreed to resign. As a result of resignations, this faction wants to reunite the "family" and again be recognized by the "Commission". ZICARELLI told DE CAVALCANTE that he heard that JOE BONANNO agreed to make 12/21/64 Grand Jury appearance because he heard the United States Government was going to pick up his son, BILL BONANNO. We had had a meeting and he (JOE BONANNO) resigned rather than see it go any further, effective whatever date I tell him". [ ] stated the meeting was held where he has been staying and the meeting lasted until 7 a.m. [ ] stated that four "captains" have been on the "other side". [ ] and DE CAVALCANTE then discussed the role SAM DE CAVALCANTE played in an effort to persuade JOE BONANNO to appear before the "Commission". [ ] stated, "You were introduced to us as four committee men. is that correct?"

[ ] is that correct?" [ ] complained that he was not always notified of decisions made by the other three.

[ ] stated that at a meeting last Thursday (committee), it was decided that all "captains" would remain, at least until a new "boss" is elected. A new "boss" would have authority to remove any "captain" he does not want. He stated that a discussion was held at the meeting concerning procedure for electing a new "boss". At this meeting, according to [ ] GASPARE (GASPARE DI GREGORIO) said, "Well, all right, these nine committee men will notify the men that we're all in accord and to return to their captains", and that is the way we left off. [ ] speculated that GASPARE would notify the "Commission" by telephone or by messenger.

DE CAVALCANTE then asked [ ] "How long are you a friend of ours [ ]?" [ ] replied, "ten years". SAM assured [ ] that his [ ] judgment is as good as that of those who have been in 40 years.

[ ] then explained that at the meeting last Thursday, it was agreed that the nine-man committee would be disbanded and that the "captains" would continue to function on a temporary basis until a new boss is elected. [ ] then stated that he will not go along with the nine-man committee because it was composed mostly of GASPARE's men and because nine are too many. He indicated that he does not trust [ ] and will not talk to either unless there are witnesses.

(The significance of the above is not clear, but appears to deal with factionalism within the BONANNO "captains". It is being set out because of the names mentioned.)

After a brief pause, [ ] stated that [ ] had been "spokesman" for the nine-man committee. He stated that once they go to the "Commission" and tell them that they are united, that their administration is intact and that their "captains" have burned the hatchet, this nine-man committee will be disbanded and they will function until such time as they elect a "boss".

[ ] then spoke of GASPARE and stated that it was he who had "brought him up" (on charges). [ ] indicated that SAM and the "Commission" had been notified of this. He referred to a meeting which GASPARE also attended and stated that he spoke to [ ] and told them that as far as he is concerned, he has not been reinstated. DE CAVALCANTE then asked how [ ] felt. [ ] stated that he wanted to get this thing over with.

DE CAVALCANTE inquired of [ ] as to how many people remain that are not with GASPARE, to which [ ] replied about 25. DE CAVALCANTE inquired as to how many "caporegimas" this included, and [ ] advised as follows: [ ] FRANK LA BRUZZO, [ ] from [ ] from [ ] and himself.

DE CAVALCANTE asked how do they feel and if they were in accord with him, to which [ ] replied yes. DE CAVALCANTE then stated that on one occasion he had discussed the position of GASPARE with JOE BONANNO. DE CAVALCANTE stated to [ ] that that is why he wants him, as a favor, and as a favor to his people, to meet the "Commission" himself, since the "Commission" has other stories. [ ] inquired if these stores were regarding him [ ] to which DE CAVALCANTE stated that they were not and they (the administration) kept telling [ ] that he was making bad moves. [ ] replied that never in front of him, at any administration meetings did he make bad moves and asked DE CAVALCANTE what the stories were that the "Commission" heard. SAM advised that the administration told him that BONANNO is wrong by not going there.

JOE ZICARELLI, according to NK 2461-C*, entered the conversation and stated that he had heard contrary to that himself. At the meeting they said that no "Commission" or anybody in the world can tell a "family" what to do. [ ] replied that GASPAREINO was asked to come to the administration and refused; that he is guilty, and that is why he deserves to be thrown out of the "family" and that they voted on it. [ ] stated that everybody voted him guilty and that JOE ZICARELLI was there when it happened.

[ ] stated that they are going to deny this. JOE BONANNO was there. He has 40 years in La Cosa Nostra and part of those years as "boss", and [ ] another 40 years in La Cosa Nostra. 16

DE CAVALCANTE at this point stated to [ ] that he would like to bring him over to TOMMY RYAN and CARLO GAMBINO.

[ ] again declined until after the meeting on Monday. He stated that nobody has shown him that he is doing anything wrong. If depending his "boss" is wrong, then he is guilty. [ ] stated to DE CAVALCANTE that up until today (12/23/64) nobody has shown him that he is wrong. [ ] was critical of the "two elder statesmen" [ ] for not inviting him as part of the four-man committee when they went before the "Commission".

[ ] then told SAM that the previous evening, he received a message that his "regime" has been meeting without him because they feel that because [ ] has been so close to BONANNO that he [ ] will be removed and another "captain" will take over. [ ] said that his "regime" has spoken to GASPARE and that GASPARE said to make your own "captain". [ ] said that he then stated, "This is peace? This is the way they want to make peace?"

[ ] again mentioned that "the other captains" had been to the "Commission" and had not invited him. DE CAVALCANTE stated that he was going to make an appointment with the "Commission" anyway. [ ] explained that concerning the meeting on Monday, he received a telephone message, "we have notified the Commission, no obstacles". [ ] stated that after this meeting, he will go before the "Commission". He also reported that the message concerning the meeting came from [ ] who is with [ ]

SAM again stated that he would make the appointment with the "Commission" through CARLO GAMBINO. [ ] then told DE CAVALCANTE that as it now stands, nobody has told him that once this is over, [ ] will become a "soldier" or [ ] becomes this or that. He said that nobody has opened their mouth, and he asks SAM what have they been fighting for, to throw the guy in the garbage can now?

DE CAVALCANTE, ZICARELLI and [ ] all urged [ ] to go before the "Commission" and relate there what he has told SAM. [ ] agreed and stated that everything he has said to them, he will say to the "Commission". [ ] said that BONANNO has been his "boss" and to him he has been a good "boss".

ZICARELLI suggested that BONANNO deserves to have a voice in any meeting "because he's the guy on the rack today". [ ] stated BONANNO has resigned as a "boss" but only as a "boss" and not as a friend of ours. "If this man wants to go back to Arizona and take part in the regime there, he does it."

[ ] then referred to the charges against BONANNO and stated that concerning the charge of refusing to appear before the "Commission", the administration of the "family" advised him not to go. [ ] stated that at a meeting in the lawyer's office, attended by [ ] JOHNNY BURNS, BILL BONANNO, JOE BONANNO and himself, all advised BONANNO to "stand pat" and not go before the "Commission". He stated later that the meeting was held in [ ] office.

DE CAVALCANTE stated to [ ] that he, [ ] would probably be asked by the "Commission" why BONANNO made this last move, that being the kidnaping move. [ ] replied that this was a personal thing which he was not going into now; that he is not in a position to explain it because he did not have enough information regarding it. DE CAVALCANTE stated that he would probably still be asked this question. On 12/30/64, NK 2461-C* reported that JOSEPH ZICARELLI contacted SAMUEL RIZZO DE CAVALCANTE. ZICARELLI said he had attended a meeting the previous night designated by the "Commission", presumably in NYC, and attended by the committee, to administer the BONANNO "family". All of the former "caporegima" were present as well as about 30 selected members. The only invitee not present was JOHNNY BURNS (JOHN MORALES) who was ill and had to remain at home.

Although not stated at the outset, ZICARELLI contacted DE CAVALCANTE on behalf of [redacted] who still harbors some reservations about withdrawing his support from JOSEPH BONANNO. [redacted] is also concerned for the safety of BONANNO, his son, and JOHNNY BURNS once they are stripped of power. ZICARELLI assured [redacted] that his fears were groundless but, nevertheless, agreed to speak to DE CAVALCANTE. On 2/2/65, NK 2461-C* reported that DE CAVALCANTE met with an individual believed to be [redacted] who has been described as DE CAVALCANTE's "underboss" from [redacted]. DE CAVALCANTE advised [redacted] that BONANNO has only five originals left with him. This included JOHNNY BURNS, SALVATORE BONANNO, his son, [redacted] and couple of other guys. [redacted] inquired of DE CAVALCANTE if they still have [redacted] to which DE CAVALCANTE replies that he had straightened him out a couple of weeks ago, but there still appears to be a little hard feelings. SAM stated that [redacted] is stuck with BONANNO, but that they are going to take them in and all the men are supposed to forget the old sores. SAM advised [redacted] that GASPARINO looked like the favorite to be the "boss" and he has the "Commission" behind him. [redacted] expressed pity for JOE BONANNO, who had enjoyed great respect and prestige, but felt that he now must be getting senile.

SAM went on to advise now they feel that BONANNO poisoned MAGLIOCCO and that he, MAGLIOCCO, did not die a natural death, because the only one who could accuse BONANNO of plotting against GAMBINO and LUCHESE was MAGLIOCCO. They suspected he used a pill on him.

SAM advised [ ] that BONANNO tried to take California over when they were having trouble and sent "the kid" out there with 40 men. The "Commission" stopped him and that is where the trouble started. SAM stated that if BONANNO would have listened to him, SAM, this thing would have been all straightened out and they would have just bawled him out. [ ] stated that it is a shame, since BONANNO was only 58 or 59 years of age and had a great deal of prestige. [ ] went on to state that it was bad for the morale of "our thing" when they make a rule and then break it themselves.

NK 2461-C* reported on 2/3/65, that DE CAVALCANTE met with JOSEPH ZICARELLI. ZICARELLI advised DE CAVALCANTE that JOHNNY BURNS, true name JOHN MORALES, is still holding out with maybe 8 or 10 of his people, but was considering coming in if he could be guaranteed everything would be all right and no reprisals taken against him and his men. SAM indicated to ZICARELLI that he would give him the assurance of the "Commission" that everything would be all right for BURNS, and they could also bring BILL BONANNO in too, if they desired. It is again reiterated that DI GREGORIO would be the "boss" and they could also bring CHARLIE BATTAGLIA in from Arizona, and with one move everything would be cleaned up so long as JOHNNY BURNS makes the move. ZICARELLI indicates that CHARLIE BATTAGLIA will do what JOHNNY does.

NK 2461-C* reported on 2/5/65, that JOE ZICARELLI met with SAM DE CAVALCANTE at about 4:30 p.m., 2/5/65. It appeared that negotiations to settle the BONANNO dispute amicably have broken down. DE CAVALCANTE indicated CARLO GAMBINO has advised that the "rebel's" stipulations are unreasonable and DE CAVALCANTE and ZICARELLI have been placed in the untenable position of having to guarantee good conduct to both sides. ZICARELLI stated he will not hear from [ ] until Monday, 2/8/65, at which time he intends to criticize him severely for not handling the "rebel group" properly. During the course of an investigation conducted by SAS [redacted] at Ernesto's Restaurant and Bar, 268 New Main Street, Yonkers, NY, on 11/19/64, at approximately 10:05 p.m., it was noted that an individual standing at the end of the bar threw a lighted cigarette which landed on a table where five or six young (19-24 year old) male individuals were seated.

A fight started instantly after the cigarette hit the table and some 15 to 20, of the 30 or more individuals in the bar, began brawling through the bar area of the restaurant, knocking over tables, chairs, and silverware trays. The fight moved from the bar area into the back of the restaurant and continued in the dining room area. In the dining room area, tables and booths were knocked over as the fight proceeded through the back door onto Park Hill Avenue and into the middle of the avenue, stopping traffic across New Main Street and in both directions on Park Hill Avenue.

This fight, involving some 15 to 20 individuals in this 19-24 age group, continued until 10:25 p.m., when it ceased immediately and the entire gathering dispersed in all directions.

At this time, a squad car of the Yonkers, New York PD and an emergency van of the Yonkers, New York PD, arrived in the area and parked in the intersection of New Main Street and Park Hill Avenue, preventing traffic from proceeding through this area. Approximately six or eight police officers got out of these vehicles, entered Ernesto's Restaurant and proceeded to arrange tables, furniture and pick up eating utensils that had been thrown on the floor as a result of the fight.

These police officers, immediately after rearranging the furniture in Ernesto's, departed in their vehicles without asking any questions of anyone concerning what had happened in the restaurant and bar.

Also, on the evening of 11/18/64, while conducting an investigation in the vicinity of Ernesto's Restaurant, 268 New Main Street, Yonkers, NY, the following was observed:

[REDACTED] Administrative Aide, Records Administration Office, Department of Justice, advised that her files indicated that WILLIAM POWER MALONEY entered on duty 2/17/34 and resigned 2/15/40. He again returned to the Justice Department 5/20/41 and resigned 5/8/46. [REDACTED] advised that Mr. MALONEY is an Attorney practicing in NYC.

[ ] advised that he has not seen BONANNO since the Apalachin hearings and has no information concerning his present whereabouts nor activities.

Date 12/17/64

[redacted] was interviewed in Room 406, United States Court House, Southern District of New York (SDNY) and he advised as follows: b6 b7C

He personally believes that the kidnaping of JOSEPH BONANNO was legitimate, that it was an actual kidnaping. It could be, one, a hoax, or, two, legitimate. If it was a hoax, JOSEPH BONANNO is alive; if it is legitimate, he is either, one, alive, or, two dead. He believes JOSEPH BONANNO is alive and that he is not to be killed. If they wanted to kill him, it could have been accomplished at 35 Park Avenue on October 21, 1964, as the escape after a murder would have been as successful as the escape after the kidnaping. BONANNO had been forcibly taken or, at least, gave the appearance of being taken by force. To be a hoax, JOSEPH BONANNO would have contacted him for the legal possibilities involved in taking such action, but JOSEPH BONANNO did not contact him concerning this, although JOSEPH BONANNO also has other attorneys he could have consulted. Another reason for believing this is not a hoax is that there is a civil tax case pending against JOSEPH BONANNO in Arizona which involves disallowed deductions. JOSEPH BONANNO stands to lose a considerable amount of money if he is not present to defend himself in this action, which [redacted] considers "we" have a good chance of winning. JOSEPH BONANNO had no motive to have himself kidnaped. "We're talking in terms of kidnaping, which this is not, strictly speaking," said [redacted]

[redacted] said he always felt that JOSEPH BONANNO would have contacted him long ago if [redacted] had been able to return immediately to Tucson, and "had I not been subjected to the treatment I have received by this little....."

At this point in the interview, [redacted] New York City Police Department and Assistant United States Attorney GERALD WALPIN, SDNY, entered the room and [redacted] continued:

NY 92-3501

[redacted] I didn't tell you the cab driver's name was [redacted] That's an Irish name. I would have remembered if I had told you that. I never said [redacted] I said [redacted] or some similar name." [redacted] noted [redacted] is a big man and the driver of the cab that picked him up at the Pen and Pencil was smallish, with a Jewish name. "He was Jewish. He was five feet six, five feet seven, five feet eight or five feet nine, in that range. He wore a cap. I remember his name as I have a client named [redacted] and the cabbie's name was similar, although I cannot recall the name exactly."

b6
b7C

[redacted] was told that he had also furnished the name of [redacted] to two Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) agents on October 21, 1964, and [redacted] stated:

"I don't recall talking to the FBI on October 21st. I never told the FBI or anyone else the name of the cab driver was [redacted] because I would remember if I had said it because the name is a short Irish name."

[redacted] continued by saying that he specifically recalled the cabbie because the cabbie did a rather odd thing by stopping at a newspaper stand at 43rd Street and Lexington Avenue while "he left me waiting in the cab", and then he came back with two copies of the "Daily News", one of which he gave to [redacted] who had not requested the cabbie to do this and he claimed he was somewhat upset by this action. It was then that he noted the cabbie's name. After the cabbie gave him a copy of the newspaper, he decided not to make a complaint against the cab driver for what he considered illegal activity. They then proceeded directly to the Commodore Hotel. The fare was approximately fifty five cents, plus tip, but he did not recall the amount of the tip nor the monetary unit with which he paid the cab driver. [redacted] said he then went directly to his room in the Commodore, took off his coat, tie and shirt, washed his teeth and then called [redacted] He estimated that it took him approximately ten to fifteen minutes before he placed this call to [redacted] He then quickly dressed, boarded another cab at a location he could not recall and proceeded directly to 35 Park Avenue.

[redacted] following the above, furnished his diary and work papers to Assistant United States Attorney WALPIN.

Date 12/16/64

[redacted] while walking through the corridors of the United States Court House, Southern District of New York, advised that:

b6
b7C

He too has an analytical mind and he realizes that, if the story [redacted] told is true, he would have gone directly to 35 Park Avenue, New York City, from the Pen and Pencil Restaurant instead of going to the Commodore Hotel first, but he would not know anything more than he has already said. He said he would not have seen anything for he would have arrived after the kidnaping because the cab in which he was riding stopped for a newspaper on 43rd Street and Lexington Avenue.

It was pointed out to [redacted] that, if [redacted] story is true, then the story of [redacted] stopping for a newspaper was not true and he would have arrived at 35th Street and Park Avenue prior to the arrival there of WILLIAM POWER MALONEY, JOSEPH BONANNO and [redacted] as they had stopped to get newspapers and to let [redacted] out of the cab at Grand Central Station; and, again, if [redacted] story is true, [redacted] was an eyewitness to the kidnaping and, whether the kidnaping was a hoax or legitimate, [redacted] knew in advance it was to take place.

[redacted] continued. "My conscience is clear and I know I told the truth [redacted]"

b3
b6
b7C

[redacted] "There can be no weighing of values between perjury or conspiracy to obstruct justice, as my license would be revoked in either case."

[redacted] went on to say, "We will know in our lifetime whether BONANNO is alive or dead or whether the kidnaping was a hoax or legitimate."

b6
b7C

He claimed he has always felt that, had he been able to return immediately to Tucson, JOSEPH BONANNO would have contacted him there. That is why he was so anxious to get out of New York City and back to Tucson on October 21, 1964.

b6
b7C

[ ] complained of the "treatment I have been subjected to in the Southern District of New York. I am not going to let this thing be forgotten. I am going to carry this thing further. I don't know when....."

He did not amplify this statement, however.

It should be noted the explanations in parenthesis above are those furnished orally by [ ] explanatory of the entries.

b6
b7C

[ ] advised that these are the only entries on the time sheets which indicated work chargeable to BONANNO's account. These entries do not mean that [ ] spoke with BONANNO either in person or by telephone in connection with his business except as set out and as an example, several entries in the name of [ ] (IRS) were listed. This indicates work with [ ] Agent with the Internal Revenue Service, in connection with that agency's civil case against JOSEPH BONANNO.

NY 92-3501

[ ] said his diary, which is separate from the time sheets, has various notations, many of which are entered in the diary by his secretary, such as scheduled pre-trial conferences, trials, hearings, etc. In checking through the diary, he found no entries indicating conferences or telephone calls with JOSEPH BONANNO. [ ] turned the pages individually of this diary while making his explanation, holding same within view of the interviewing agent.

b7C

[ ] had one of the girls in his office give him all of the long distance calls charged to BONANNO's account, which again do not mean that [ ] or any other attorney in the firm spoke with BONANNO in person, but means rather the telephone calls were in connection with BONANNO's business. The calls are set out as follows:

June 15, 1964 - to New York, $5.19

June 26, 1964 - to Canada, $17.65

July 13, 1964 - to Canada, $13.97

July 22, 1964 - to Canada, $4.88

July 22, 1964 - to Montreal, $22.20

October 7, 1964 - to Phoenix $2.12, made by Attorney [ ]

[ ] said that their records do not contain any references to the identity of the person with whom they spoke on these various long distance calls but he added that those to Canada were obviously not with JOSEPH BONANNO because the latter was incarcerated in a Canadian jail at the time and could not have been talking long distance with [ ]

[ ] said he recalls some of these calls were to attorneys in Montreal who were handling the BONANNO case there.

[ ] also advised there are seven attorneys in his firm, [ ]

[ ] He said these two attorneys are employees of the law firm but work directly under the supervision of, and are responsible to, [ ] himself.

During an interruption in the press conference, SAS [ ] overheard MALONEY in telephonic contact with the USA's Office in the SDNY, at which time MALONEY identified the unknown intermediary speaking in behalf of JOSEPH BONANNO as BILL BONANNO.

USA MORGENTHAU advised that he instructed MALONEY to come to his, MORGENTHAU's, office after completion of the press conference, inasmuch as he, MORGENTHAU, wanted to discuss the BONANNO matter.

Mr. MORGENTHAU stated that the session in his office with MALONEY was stormy and throughout, MALONEY proved evasive and uncooperative with him. MALONEY claimed he had received a telephone call in his office the other day at approximately 11:45 a.m. from BILL BONANNO, who had furnished MALONEY with a local number with the instructions to return his call from a public telephone in the lobby of MALONEY's office building.

Following these instructions, MALONEY recontacted BILL BONANNO, who revealed that his father was fine and safe, and then asked "what do you want to do?" MALONEY claimed that he instructed BILL BONANNO that he should have his father, JOSEPH BONANNO, in his office at 9 a.m. on December 21, 1964, [ ]

b3

USA MORGENTHAU advised that MALONEY evaded all efforts by the USA to elicit information relative to BONANNO's present whereabouts. When pressed for the telephone number at which he contacted BILL BONANNO, MALONEY claimed that he could recall only that the number was a Murray Hill 6 or 8 exchange and he could not be more specific since he had thrown the slip of paper on which he had noted this number away.

Mr. MORGENTHAU advised that MALONEY did state that he had telephonically contacted [ ] in [ ] at approximately 1:30 p.m. to acquaint him with the new developments.

The following is a verbatim newspaper article, written by MILTON LEWIS, in the "New York Herald Tribune" Late City Edition, dated December 22, 1964, captioned, "Joe's No-Show - 2 Months Later":

"Joe Bananas, possibly because he just dreads publicity, figured in the anti-climax of the year yesterday. He is still among the 'kidnaped,' with his glum lawyer saying with crossed fingers he still expected him to show up one of these days.

"On Friday, William Power Maloney, counsel for the Cosa Nostra boss who disappeared two months ago, announced that his client would show up at the lawyer's office at 9 a.m. yesterday and go before a Federal Rackets Grand Jury an hour later.

"Those hours came and went yesterday. At least six city plainclothesmen and a like number of FBI agents, as well as hordes from all news media, inundated the scheduled coming of Joe Bananas to Mr. Maloney's office at 40 Exchange Place.

"At 10:10 a.m., a crestfallen Mr. Maloney - who hadn't shown up until 9:10 a.m. himself - came out of his inner sanctum to say, softly, that Bananas was a 'no show Joe' and that he (Maloney) was now on his way to appear before the very same grand jury - to try to explain.

"The last time Mr. Maloney had seen his client was 12:20 a.m. of Oct. 21, about 10 hours before Bananas was scheduled to appear - for the third time since August - before the rackets grand jury. He was 'forced' into a car by two 'thugs', one of whom pegged a bad shot at Mr. Maloney outside the lawyer's home at Park Ave. and 36th St. Lawyer and client had been together.

"Last Friday Mr. Maloney, acting in good faith, called a press conference to announce that he had gotten a telephone call from Joseph (Joe Bananas) Bonanno's older son, Salvatore (Bill) Bonanno. The latter, Mr. Maloney said, reported that his father was 'alive and well' and that Bananas, at the lawyer's request, would appear at Mr. Maloney's office at 9 a.m. Monday. Mr. Maloney believed this implicitly.

NY 92-3501

"The huge 'welcome home' delegation for Joe Bananas followed Mr. Maloney to the U.S. Court House at Foley Square. Where the lawyer was full of his usual bounce three days previously, he appeared quite depressed yesterday, both before and after his grand jury appearance.

"He reported he was questioned for '30 to 40 minutes,' but other sources gave the time as 'more than an hour'. Mr. Maloney has made about six previous grand jury appearance since Bananas took off two months ago yesterday - and he will be back on the same grand jury stand at 10 a.m. today.

"Also questioned yesterday by the grand jury was Bananas' lawyer from Tucson, Lawrence P. D'Antonio, who testified for about 90 minutes. This was at least his seventh appearance - and he, too, will be back this morning, seemingly commuting between Tucson and Foley Square for U.S. Attorney Robert M. Morgenthau and his assistant, Gerald Walpin, who are known to feel that 'Bananas arranged his own snatch'.

"Mr. Maloney, after leaving the grand jury, as microphones were shoved toward his face:

"'They wanted to know just what Bill Bonanno (Joe's son) told me in that phone call Friday, how I spent the weekend - and even what I had for breakfast today. I told them I had coffee cake and coffee. I told them the truth.'

"Was Mr. Maloney convinced that that call Friday actually came from the son?

"'I am convinced of that. I know his voice, I had spoken to him before.'

"'You think Joe Bananas is still alive?'

"'I see no reason to change my opinion on that - yes.'

NY 92-3501

"'Why didn't Joe show up today?'

"'I'll be able to tell you that better when I ask him - when I talk to him, when I see him.'

"'You look worried, Mr. Maloney.'

"'That's my natural look. I have a worried look all the time.'

"'Where is Joe Bananas?'

"'I don't know."

"In the midst of this crowded colloquy with scores of newsmen, including those with heavy electronic equipment, a young man, dark-complexioned, thin and medium-tall attempted to take over, advising the press to 'take it easy', to 'give Mr. Maloney room'. He appeared to be in Mr. Maloney's entourage and when asked who he was replied, 'I'm from the family', without saying from whose family. Joe Bananas is boss of one of the five Cosa Nostra families in New York.

"Finally, Mr. Maloney disengaged himself and walked out of the press room, with this sharply-dressed young man tugging at his sleeve and whispering in his ear.

"'Who is he?' Mr. Maloney asked a Herald Tribune reporter.

"'Isn't he with you?'

"'Hell, no.'

"'Come with me - I have a car', the stranger said to Mr. Maloney, giving the distinct impression that he had some sort of message - from somebody - for the lawyer. So Mr. Maloney got into the young man's car, saying, 'I have to get back to my law practice.'

NY 92-3501

"The car bore New York license plate number 6L-3956, and, according to the Police Department, it is registered as a 1962 blue Chevrolet in the name of Murray Esposito of 2487 Coney Island Ave., Brooklyn. At that address there is a cooking oil business known as Esposito Bros., where it was said there is no Murray Esposito.

"Later in the day, Mr. Maloney was asked if indeed this young man had come with a message. Mr. Maloney left the lawyer's office, after his chauffeur said:

"'I asked him what his connection was with the case. He told me: 'I used to shine Joe Bananas' shoes on Henry St. in Brooklyn. I thought he'd show up today and I wanted to say hello to him. I like the guy. Tell him hello for me.'"

"That was anti-climax No. 2 for the hectic day.

"With the stranger 'explained', Mr. Maloney was asked again:

"'Do you expect Joe to show?'

"'I certainly do expect him to. There's a lot of talk around town, I know, that he won't. Well, you can make yourself some money. You can bet $5 that he will show up.'

"'When?'

"'Very soon.'

"But U.S. Attorney Morgenthau - who hopes that Mr. Maloney is correct - was not taking any bets. For one thing, gambling is illegal in New York."

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted]

After an unsuccessful attempt to locate [redacted] for interview on December 15, 1964, she was contacted on December 16, 1964, at [redacted]

[redacted] stated that she had absolutely no information concerning the victim but that the reason for writing to Mr. WILLIAM POWER MALONEY, victim's attorney, was that she knew of the existence of an electronic computer that had "intelligence built in" that enabled it to read a person's mind, and she needed someone to back her financially to conduct an investigation that would enable the Defense Department to take over the computer, and Mr. MALONEY might be interested in financing her venture.

[redacted] said that the computer was located at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, D.C. and that it also had a "psychiatric brain built in" which allowed it to ask questions and to determine electronically what the complete answer should be. She said that because of this, the psychiatrists assigned to the hospital did not have to conduct the examinations and the machine would judge a person insane, whether they were or not. She added that she had tested the range of this computer and it had a range of 3,000 miles.

[redacted] reiterated that she knew nothing of the "JOSEPH BONANNO case", and for obvious reasons, the interview was terminated.

[redacted] telephonically contacted the New York Office and requested a Special Agent of the FBI contact him immediately regarding information he possesses concerning JOSEPH BONANNO.

[redacted] advised the interviewing agents that he is [redacted] at [redacted] working from 6:00 p.m. to 2:00 a.m., Monday through Friday. [redacted] stated that at approximately 7:30 p.m. during the evening of December 1, 1964, a postman arrived with a registered letter for "JOSEPH BONANNO, Park Avenue, New York, New York." According to [redacted] he did not recognize the name at first and told the postman that there was no resident in the building by the name of BONANNO. It then occurred to him, [redacted] stated, that the letter could be meant for JOSEPH BONANNO who was abducted from in front of 35 Park Avenue on October 21, 1964. [redacted] stated that he also remembered that BONANNO's attorney, WILLIAM POWER MALONEY, is a resident of 35 Park Avenue and he called Mr. MALONEY asking him if he would sign for the registered letter since he was Mr. BONANNO's attorney. [redacted] stated that Mr. MALONEY instructed that the postman bring the letter to his apartment and he would sign for it. The postman complied with these instructions, according to [redacted] and MALONEY accepted the registered letter.

[redacted] stated that he saw the registered letter which the postman was carrying and noted that it was postmarked from Argentina and bore a return address which he could not remember. He stated that the letter did not have a street number, but the number "37" was on the letter as if the post office had inserted this number. He also stated that he was quite sure that the letter came from Argentina and carried a return address but he could not recall the sender's name.

It is to be noted that this letter received by MALONEY was written in Spanish and is translated verbatim as follows:

"Mr. Joseph Bonanno;

"I send you this letter as you are the only person who can help me and who will not deceive me.

This amount will serve to obtain for me my release. As soon as I leave this jail, it will be possible for me to return this favor.

Hotel, West 44th Street and Broadway, New York City. [redacted]

b6
b7c

[redacted] He was advised by SA [redacted] that he did not have to talk to the agents and that any information he furnished could be used against him in court. He was advised also of his right to consult an attorney.

[redacted] said that he has been retained by SALVATORE
VINCENT BONANNO for the past few years, since about 1960, as [redacted] [redacted] for BONANNO's business and real estate interests in [redacted] and vicinity. He said he met BONANNO through another client, [redacted] and has handled legal work for [redacted] acquaintance of BONANNO.

[redacted] also said he briefly assisted in a criminal case in which BONANNO was involved with the Tucson Police Department.
He said that around September, 1964, he had advised BONANNO that a payment was being made regarding the sale of some property, for which the proceeds were approximately $24,000.00.
He had been instructed by BONANNO, to whom the proceeds were due, to advise BONANNO when the arrangements were completed, and when [redacted] had obtained the money. [redacted] was negotiating with the Union Bank in Tucson, regarding these proceeds, and obtained the money, in the form of five checks, each for $4,000.00, and a check for himself of approximately $4,000.00 for fees and expenses. It was his intention to deliver that $20,000.00 to SALVATORE BONANNO when instructed to do so.

On the morning of December 21, 1964, [redacted] received a telephone call at his home in [redacted] from SALVATORE BONANNO, who asked him if he had obtained the checks, and when he said yes, BONANNO instructed him to fly to New York City to meet him as soon as possible. [redacted] told BONANNO that he would take the American Airlines flight which would arrive in New York City at approximately 8 p.m. that date.

BONANNO arranged to meet [ ] at the out-of-town newspaper stand, West 43rd Street and Broadway, New York City, at about 8 p.m. - 9 p.m. However, due to delays, [ ] arrived there late, and then checked into the Astor Hotel, West 44th Street and Broadway. He then received a telephone call from an unidentified male, instructing him to meet SALVATORE BONANNO at the out-of-town newspaper stand in 30 minutes. [ ] followed instructions and was met at that location by SALVATORE BONANNO, who was driving a 1963 or 1964 grayish Cadillac. They drove for awhile, and ended up at an apartment at an unidentified location. They stayed there awhile, and BONANNO returned him to the Astor Hotel in the early morning of December 22, 1964. A few hours later, BONANNO called him again, and again picked him up, by arrangement, at the corner of West 43rd Street and Broadway. They again drove to the above-mentioned apartment and stayed there most of the day, and into the early morning of December 23, 1964.

BONANNO returned [ ] to the vicinity of the Astor Hotel, and dropped him off. [ ] briefly stayed in his room, and killed time around the hotel. He was again picked up by BONANNO at West 43rd Street and Broadway, around 6:30 a.m., December 23, 1964, by arrangements they had agreed upon when BONANNO dropped him off a few hours earlier. They went to a different apartment, and spent the day, until BONANNO drove him back to the vicinity of the Astor Hotel and dropped him off, minutes before 5:00 p.m., at which time he was contacted by the agents.

On December 23, 1964, [ ] was interviewed in a Bureau car while en route to the office of USA ROBERT M. MORGENTHAU, SDNY, United States Court House, Foley Square, New York. The interview was continued at the office of USA MORGENTHAU, and again in a Bureau car, while en route to La Guardia Airport, Queens, New York.

The agents reviewed information furnished by [ ] earlier that evening, and the following information was obtained from [ ]

After arriving in New York City, on December 21, 1964, too late to keep his appointment with SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO, at West 43rd Street and Broadway, he registered in the Astor Hotel, West 44th Street and Broadway. After about an hour, he received a telephone call from an unidentified male, telling him to meet SALVATORE at the out-of-town newsstand, West 43rd Street and Broadway in 30 minutes. [ ] went to that location, and was soon picked up by SALVATORE BONANNO, who was driving a 1963 or 1964 grayish Cadillac.

They drove, apparently away from New York City, for one and one-quarter to one and three-quarter hours, and arrived at an apartment building where BONANNO parked the car on the street in the vicinity. [ ] said he could not recall whether or not they stopped for coffee en route to the apartment, but believed they did. They left the car and entered the apartment building by a basement door, and went up to approximately the tenth floor by a self-operated elevator. There was no doorman. In [ ] opinion, the apartment was about five years old, moderately furnished, clean, not elaborate, with two bedrooms, one or two baths, with a terrace overlooking similar apartments. He estimated the building to be about 15 to 20 stories high, and a few blocks from a main thoroughfare.

On this occasion, he gave BONANNO the five checks, each for $4,000.00, and as far as he knows, BONANNO might still have them. While they stayed at the apartment, they discussed business, mutual friends, politics and like subjects. [redacted] declined to report any conversation he had with BONANNO, claiming this to be privileged conversation between himself and his client.

On Tuesday morning, December 22, 1964, BONANNO drove [redacted] back to the vicinity of the Astor Hotel, and [redacted] walked the few blocks from that location to the hotel. [redacted] arrived at the hotel at about 4:30 a.m. to 5 a.m. At 6 a.m., SALVATORE BONANNO called [redacted] at the hotel and arranged to pick him up at the above-described newsstand in about 20 minutes. They again drove to the same apartment building, and went into the same apartment, described above. After a while in the apartment, he and BONANNO left to eat breakfast at a restaurant within a 15 minute drive of the apartment. [redacted] identified this restaurant by means of a matchbook as [redacted] [redacted] After eating, they returned to the same apartment, and continued to discuss business, the $20,000 in checks and similar matters. [redacted] stayed in the apartment, but during the day, BONANNO left for a while. [redacted] slept, watched television, and passed time away during the day. Some time during the day, after BONANNO returned, another man arrived and stayed briefly. The man was not introduced, and left shortly. [redacted] described him as 5'11" to 6'3", but could not be specific on any other details. Photographs of several persons were shown to [redacted] but he could not identify any as being this man.

At about 7 p.m., BONANNO cooked supper in the apartment. [redacted] stayed in the apartment all day, while BONANNO came and went. [redacted] recalled that the telephone numbers were missing from the telephone or telephones in the apartment. At about 9 p.m. that night, [redacted] want to call [redacted] BONANNO directed him to use a booth in the vicinity of the apartment.

[ ] recalled that he left the apartment building by the front door, turned left through the parking lot, walked to the nearest street, turned right and walked for about a block. He turned left and walked a block to a main street. He then turned right and walked a block or two to a telephone booth. He recalled passing a gas station en route and thought it might have been a Richfield station, or possibly a Shell station. He called [ ] from the booth, calling her at his home telephone number in [ ] which is [ ] told him to call [ ] regarding government attempts to stop payment on the $20,000.00 in checks. [ ] went back to the apartment to discuss this with SALVATORE BONANNO, and after discussion, went to another booth in the same area to call [ ] In order to get to this booth, [ ] left the apartment to go to the street, and when he reached the street, he turned left and walked about a block. He turned left and walked another block and then right to a gas station, which he believed was a Sunoco station. He used a telephone booth in this station, and called [ ] at [ ] home. He recalled that in order to get to this telephone booth, he passed a large, empty field. [ ] furnished a rough sketch of the relative locations of the above-described telephone booths, and the apartment. He used a telephone credit card, number [ ] in making both of the above calls.

He also recalled that earlier in the day, he called the New York City office of WILLIAM POWER MALONEY, Attorney, and spoke briefly to Mr. MALONEY. He identified himself as [ ] from [ ] and asked to talk to [ ] [ ] was not available, so [ ] called back a half hour later and spoke to [ ] was brief with him and warned him he did not want to talk to [ ] because to do so would result in [ ] receiving a Federal Grand Jury subpoena. This was a ten cent local call from a third telephone booth in the vicinity of the apartment.

[ ] and SALVATORE BONANNO left the apartment house between 1:30 a.m. and 2 a.m., Wednesday morning, December 23, 1964, and arrived in the vicinity of the Astor Hotel between 4 a.m. and 5 a.m. [ ]

At about 6:30 a.m., December 23, 1964, as arranged, BONANNO picked him up, this time in a bluish-gray 1963 or 1964 Cadillac, license not recalled. They drove for about one and one-quarter to one and three-quarter hours, to an apartment, similar to the previous one, but not the same, and not in the same building. The area was similar, but did not appear to be the same area in which he had been on the previous days. BONANNO took him to an apartment on the fifth or sixth floor of a 15 to 20 story building, which building they entered by a basement door. [redacted] stayed in the apartment all day, from about 8 or 9 a.m. until midafternoon. [redacted] left the apartment only to call [redacted] at [redacted] again using his credit card, and unsuccessfully tried to call a client in [redacted]. He talked to [redacted] regarding BONANNO's checks and returned to the apartment. He said that to make the calls, he went out the front door of the apartment building, turned left and walked until he reached the street. He again turned left for a block and right to an Esso or Mobil gas station, where he made the call from a phone booth. He again furnished a rough sketch of the area.

BONANNO was absent from the apartment from about 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. [redacted] recalled that the number plates on the telephones in the apartment were blank.

They left the apartment around midafternoon and drove to within a few blocks of the Astor Hotel, where BONANNO dropped him off. He advised BONANNO that he was to return to Tucson, and BONANNO told him he would call him there, but did not say when.

However, he said he could not say definitely whether this was, or was not, one of the apartments to which SALVATORE BONANNO had taken him.

[redacted] pointed out the restaurant opens at 11:00 a.m. daily. Both sat in the back of the restaurant, near the public telephone. Individual [redacted] believes is BILL BONANNO has visited this restaurant before; while not a regular customer, [redacted] believes he has been in approximately once per week. Both waitresses indicated photograph of BILL BONANNO was rather familiar to them as that of an individual who has visited the restaurant in the past. - B. Information concerning the citing of SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO by USDC Judge CHARLES H. TENNEY for contempt relative to Federal Communications Commission Statute, Title 45, USC, Sections 203 and 501

United States Attorney ROBERT M. MORGENTHAU, Southern District of New York, telephonically advised the Federal Bureau of Investigation, New York Office, on March 2, 1965, that SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO had been cited for civil contempt by United States District Judge CHARLES H. TENNEY on March 2, 1965.

Mr. MORGENTHAU stated BONANNO was cited under provisions of Federal Communication Commission statute, Title 47, United States Code, Sections 203 and 501. BONANNO was afforded immunity under the above statute but continued to refuse to answer questions relative to the disappearance of his father, JOSEPH BONANNO, on October 21, 1964, and his telephone calls with attorney WILLIAM POWER MALONEY.

NY 92-3501

United States Attorney advised BONANNO was cited for civil contempt which carries an indeterminate sentence and is customarily unailable.

Mr. MORGENTHAU stated SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO was turned over to the United States Marshal's Office who in turn committed BONANNO to the West Street Jail, New York City.

The following is an article appearing in the "New York Daily News" dated March 3, 1965, written by NORMA ABRAMS, entitled "Young Bananas Jailed Till He Talks".

"Chiquita Banana said never, never put bananas in the refrigerator. Federal Judge Charles H. Tenney disregarded her advice yesterday and opened a federal cooler for Salvatore (Bill) Bonanno, son of Cosa Nostra's missing Joseph (Joe Bananas) Bonanno.

Judge Tenney found the 32-year-old Bill guilty of civil contempt and committed him for refusing to answer questions before a federal grand jury probing his father's kidnaping by two 6-foot thugs early Oct. 21.

"Young Bananas' lawyer, Albert J. Krieger, tried to have his client sentenced for criminal contempt-for which a term must be fixed.

"It Can Run and Run

"Judge Tenney made it civil contempt-which carries an indeterminate sentence, customarily is unailable, and can run for months or years, unless the offender decides to purge himself by talking.

"Back of it was Bill's repeated balks before the grand jury in its attempts to learn (a) what happened to Joe and where he is now, and (b) an explanation of some curious hocus-pocus in December in which Bill figured.

"It was on Dec. 18 that Bill phoned exciting news to his father's lawyer, former Assistant U. S. Attorney William Power Maloney, who had been a witness to Joe's kidnaping in front of a Park Ave. apartment house and had even had a shot fired at him when he tried to help his client.

NY 92-3501

"Alive and Well, He Said

"Bill told the lawyer his father was alive and well and would appear in his office Dec. 21 and go before the grand jury. His disappearance, incidentally, occurred just 9½ hours before he was to have faced the same investigating body on Oct. 21.

"Over the phone, arrangements were made for Bill to produce his father for a preliminary meeting with Maloney in a Manhattan hotel the day before his Dec. 21 official return.

"But Joe didn't show for either date. And Bill in numerous appearance before the grand jury - the U. S. attorney's office says he was in 10 times under subpoena - refused to explain the affair, even under a grant of immunity.

"The Client-Attorney Bit

"Bill's defense was that a client-attorney relationship existed between him and Maloney.

"I have no reservations in saying that there was no attorney-client relationship here", Judge Tenney declared. "He has refused to answer the questions and now he has to take the consequences.

"In his refusal to answer, the dignity of the court has been attacked by the witness. The government is also aggrieved, as is the grand jury. He is to be held until such time as he shall purge himself by answering."

"The 6 foot 2, heavysset Bonanno listened impassively.

"Lawyer to Try for Bail

"His lawyer, Krieger, announced he would go before the U. S. Court of Appeals Monday in a plea to have bail set.

"The grand jury has a large Cosa Nostra group due before it today. Among them, Sam Giancana, syndicate boss of Chicago; Gerardo Catena, top mobster in Jersey, and Tommy Eboli, lieutenant to imprisoned Vito Genovese.

"New York, N.Y.
February 2, 1965

"I, [redacted] make the following free and voluntary statement to [redacted] who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I have been advised that this statement can be used in a court of law.

I reside at [redacted]
[redacted] and am employed [redacted] at [redacted]
[redacted]

While so employed on Nov. 14, 1964, I accepted on that date, an application for a furnished apartment from a young man, who identified himself to me as [redacted]. [redacted] said that he was self-employed as a lawyer, and wanted an apartment while in the process of relocating his law practice into the [redacted] area. As I recall, [redacted] telephoned me first, in response to a newspaper ad for the apartments and thereafter came to my office. He took a four month lease, beginning Nov. 15, 1964, and wanted to occupy the apartment Nov. 15, 1964. He wanted a two bedroom

He said he would have one of the others stop by for the keys to the apartment, and this would be alright. [redacted] subsequently picked up the keys, which were for [redacted] located in the development at [redacted]

"I recall that [redacted] paid the $240.00 initial monthly rent, and $240.00 security deposit by $300.00 cash, together with a check for $180.00, but I do not recall on which bank the check was drawn.

"I would describe [redacted] as a white, male, age 31, height 5'9", husky build, dark hair, medium to dark complexion, brown eyes, wears glasses, well dressed.

[redacted] is described as about the same age as [redacted] but did not wear glasses.

"I had no subsequent contact with these individuals.

"On Nov. 19, 1964, a Thursday, three men came to my rental office, looking to rent a furnished apartment. Two of these men identified themselves to me as [redacted]

[redacted] The third man was not introduced to me. They identified themselves as jewelers, in the process of moving their business to [redacted] They wanted an apartment as soon as possible, as they were leaving by plane for [redacted] on Friday, Nov. 20. I commented on this, and [redacted] said that they wanted to be careful since the opening of the new business was to be kept secret for the time being. They made a $30.00 cash deposit toward the $240.00 initial monthly rent, and $240.00 security deposit. They said that this was all they could pay at the time, since they had no more cash. They promised to be back on Monday, Nov. 23, and to pay the remainder, $450.00.

"They inquired if it would be permissible for the third man to come and stay at the apartment every so often, as he would be coming into town periodically in connection with relocating the business. I said it would be alright, but when they asked for additional keys, I told them that they would have to obtain extra keys at their own expense.

"I recall that all three men were very well dressed, and wore expensive jewelry, and that [redacted] had numerous types of identification, showing him to be in the jewelry business in [redacted]

"As we were in the process of completing the rental application, I noticed that the third man looked at his wristwatch. Immediately thereafter, [redacted] [redacted] said they had to leave, and they left.

"On Monday, Nov. 23, [redacted] came to my office by cab, which dropped them off in front. They allegedly had just come from the airport, and while in my office, [redacted] tore up and threw away what appeared to be an airlines ticket or envelope. I was unable to let them occupy the apartment at that time, because all of the necessary furniture had not been installed in the room. They finally took occupancy of [redacted] at "Special Agent [redacted] has shown me a group of photographs. I have chosen three of these photographs which I have identified respectively as [redacted] and the third man mentioned above. After I chose these three photographs, Special Agent [redacted] identified the photograph of the man, known to me as [redacted] to actually be [redacted]. He identified the photograph of the man known to me as [redacted] to actually be [redacted]. He identified the photograph of the third man, whom I saw with [redacted] on Nov. 19, 1964, to actually be Joseph Bonanno.

"I saw the individual, identified to me as Joseph Bonanno, only on the occasion of their Nov. 19 appearance at my office, and do not recall seeing him thereafter. In the photograph which I chose, he was wearing glasses. I recall that the glasses he was wearing on Nov. 19 were heavier than those in the photograph.

"The foregoing statement, consisting of this page and six handwritten pages was read by [redacted] and after certain minor corrections were made, she agreed that it was true and correct, and had nothing to add to, or delete from the statement.

NY 92-3501

[redacted] telephonically contacted SA [redacted] on January 15, 1965, and advised that [redacted] told him today that about a week previously [redacted] had been in conversation with [redacted] whom [redacted] stated has some connection with [redacted] said that he had during the previous week heard a group of "Mafia people" from the Boston area discussing the captioned matter, the gist of which was that BONANNO is now in a place called Torreminas (ph), Sicily. He had supposedly left the United States aboard a Panamanian freighter, name unknown. [redacted] advised he had no additional information and merely passed this information on for whatever it might be worth.

On the 30th of January, 1965, an article appeared in the "El Tiempo", a Spanish newspaper, entitled "JOE BANANAS" ESTA en SICILIA; CONVOCAN CONGRESO de MAFIA. The following is the English translation of the aforementioned article:

"Rome, Italy (by telephone) (Especially for 'El Tiempo'). The notorious leader of the Mafia Joe Bonanno aka Joe Bananas, who disappeared the 21st of October, 1964, was found in Italy living in a small town of Sicily called Taormina, according to 'El Tiempo' of New York, who has been informed by reliable sources.

"On the 21st of December, WALTER WINCHELL wrote that he had received a telephone call from an individual saying that Joe Bananas was going to testify before the Grand Jury the next day. The call was a guise to divert the attention of the authorities while Bananas continued living in Sicily.

"Later WINCHELL stated that Bananas could also have disappeared from Taormina, but at the time he was writing his column, Bonanno, one of the most feared leaders of the Mafia and an attendant of the Mafia Congress at Apalachin, is in Sicily.

NY 92-3501

"According to what we have been able to ascertain, the notorious gangster never was kidnapped, but did not wish to appear before the Grand Jury, and arrived in Italy on a Panamanian cargo ship disguised as a member of the crew. He left the day after having been 'kidnapped' at the entrance to the apartment of his attorney, William P. Maloney.

"Bonanno or 'Bananas', one of the most important figures in organized crime in the United States, will remain in Italy until the Spring when this country will celebrate another 'congresso' of the Apalachin type, but on a much smaller scale, with the attendance of the Mafioso from all parts of the world.

"One of those attending will be the famous Joe Adonis, who was deported to Italy many years ago, and who earned millions of dollars since having established residence in this country.

Adonis, who had to go to school to learn Italian, arrived in Italy with several millions of dollars and he has since duplicated his fortune. Within three months his daughter will marry one of the leaders of the Italian Mafia and this will be the official motive for the guests who will gather, among whom shall be the most important leaders of the Mafia world from all parts of the hemisphere and Europe.

"Immediately after the wedding, the nucleus of organized crime in the United States, Italy and South America, will meet, this time without difficulties, because they have learned much from their experiences with the police in Apalachin, State of New York, and because they have the protection of the feared Italian Mafia.

"In the ceremony and party after the wedding of Adonis' daughter, the famous singer, Frank Sinatra, who has ties with these kind of people, will sing as guest of honor.

"Most of the important Maffian gangsters of the United States, who have valid passports or who can return to this country without difficulty, will attend the wedding.

NY 92-3501

"According to what we have ascertained, the members of the Mafia in the United States are well pre-occupied with the 'image' of the Italians in the United States and by the fact that crime organized by members of the Maffian family has the reputation of being narcotic traffic.

"According to reliable sources, since four months the Mafia hasn't meddled into narcotics business within the United States and will punish the members who still insist upon doing so. The high Mafian chiefs will still, however, maintain control of the narcotic traffic, but only as (top authorities?) and only outside of the United States, not for direct sale or the little merchants within the country.

"They have decided, according to what we have ascertained, to contract a public relations firm of Madison Avenue in New York to create a better and more acceptable image in general of the Mafia and the 'families' that control their many legitimate businesses.

"The members of the Mafia aren't going to abandon their actual campaign to control the city of Boston, City of the Kennedy family, which is the bulwark of the United States, where the Mafia doesn't control the organized crime. Still, in Boston, the Irish and Jewish gangsters control the 'rackets'. Nevertheless, during the last months, 19 Irish and Jewish gangsters have been assassinated, and the strong men of the Mafia are taking possession of the organized crime in that city with a lot of help from certain police elements.

"One of the elements involved in this campaign is JIMMY 'BLUE EYES' (OJOS AZULES) ALUI, ex-associate of the gangster MEYER LANSKY, who has the concession of the game in Cuba."

Mr. FRANK BURNS, Secaucus, New Jersey, not further identified, telephonically contacted the headquarters of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington, D.C., in the early evening of January 14, 1965, and advised as follows:

"JOE BONANNO is not dead. If you get HANLON, Fourth Avenue, Bayshore, Long Island, you will get BONANNO."

NY 92-3501

[ ] furnished no further information.

b6
b7C

On January 16, 1965, the Washington Field Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington, D.C., received information telephonically from an unidentified individual that certain people involved in the JOSEPH BONANNO case would be meeting at [ ]

[ ] has been known to the New York Office for the past several months. [ ] is [ ] whose family residence is in [ ] and who are currently welfare relief recipients. [ ] himself has been employed in various locales around New York State, and, by [ ] admissions, frequents his home at very irregular and unscheduled intervals. She has described him as an alcoholic and from his telephone conversations with Agents of this office, it is indicated that when he is drinking he is subject to hallucinations.

For example, in November, 1964, Secret Service received information from an anonymous source that [ ] was in possession of numerous counterfeit $10.00 bills. Investigation failed to reflect that [ ] had any such counterfeit money and it is believed that [ ] was the source of the anonymous information concerning himself. On another occasion, [ ] visited the Police Commissioner's Confidential Squad of the New York City Police Department and advised officials there that he was a paid informant of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This was definitely not true and [ ] has at no time furnished any information to this office.

As recent as January 14, 1965, the date of the alleged call from [ ] to the Bureau, [ ] was in telephonic contact with Agents of this office at the Garden City Resident Agency, to whom he has previously spoken and alleged at that time that he was on "an undercover assignment not involving the police or the FBI".

For several weeks, Agents of this office have been attempting to locate [ ] through [ ] in order to remonstrate with him for his allegations to the New York City Police Department that he is a paid informant of this office.

NY 92-3501

Although he has telephoned the Garden City Resident Agency and this office and has spoken to Agents, he has failed to keep appointments with Agents and subsequently expressed the feeling that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was going to arrest him on unstated charges.

Because of [ ] background, his habitual drinking and his past activities, it is considered most unlikely that the "Cosa Nostra" leader, JOSEPH BONANNO, would have anything to do with [ ]. His home in [ ] is run down and is occupied at the present time solely by [ ]

b6

It is believed most likely that the [ ] who telephoned the Bureau on January 14, 1965, was, in fact, [ ] himself.

On January 4, 1965, [ ] advised he received information today from a highly confidential source, whose identity he cannot disclose, to the effect that an individual named [ ] resides at [ ] and this individual is a furniture upholsterer who allegedly has some knowledge of putting narcotics inside of upholstery. [ ] said his source related JOE BONANNO was supposedly at this individual's home at the above address several days after his alleged kidnaping.

b6
b7E

[ ] related that his source told him he did not want the information divulged to anyone and he did not want the information to emanate from [ ] pointing out that the source undoubtedly heard the above information from unknown source, whose reliability is unknown. He said he had no further information other than the above and had on January 4, 1965, telephonically contacted [ ] Central Intelligence, New York City Police Department, and furnished him the above information, and [ ] related he would notify the federal authorities.

Inasmuch as recent facts and developments in captioned case are unknown to Tampa, the above information is furnished for whatever action deemed advisable.
